A BRIEF BIOGRAPHY OF OUR GRAND MASTER

Born of French, English, Scottish and Pennsylvania Dutch ancestry, Ronald Eric Groshaw grew up on the family farm near Moorefield, Ontario where he attended S.S. No. 5 Maryboro Public School, and subsequently Palmerston High School. While attending the University of Western Ontario at London, hostilities began in Korea. He enlisted in the R.C.A.F. while continuing his studies for a doctorate in medicine. Upon completion of a junior rotating internship at Victoria Hospital in London, he served with No. 408 Squadron in the Arctic and subsequently with NATO in Europe. Upon the completion of that tour of duty, he did postgraduate study in ophthalmology in both Europe and North America, culminating in a specialist qualification in 1962. Dr. Groshaw established a private practice immediately, and four years later was appointed to the teaching staff of the University of Toronto; a post he still holds with the faculty of medicine. Dr. Groshaw has been the Chief of Ophthalmology at Etobicoke General Hospital since it was built, and is also on the medical staff of St. John's and West Park Hospitals, as well as Sunnybrook Medical Centre. Since 1978, he has been a member of the Medical Advisory Committee of the Council for Ontario of the Order of St. John. In October 1982, at Ottawa, the Governor General invested him as a Serving Brother in that Order.

The United Church of Canada has always been a part of his life. He was a member of the choir at Moorefield United Church and, more recently, has served on many committees of the official board of St. Luke's United Church, Islington.

In 1960, he married Barbara Jean Bain, a graduate of the University of Western Ontario in public health nursing. They are the parents of two active boys. George, age 19, is pursuing studies at York University in Fine Arts, and Eric, age 17, is in grade 12.

M.W. Bro. Groshaw first saw the light of Masonry in 1959 in Conestogo Lodge No. 295, Drayton. Several years later, after affiliation with Wellington Lodge No. 635, Toronto, he became Worshipful Master in 1971-72. A charter member of Heritage Lodge No. 730, he served as its Worshipful Master in 1980-81. Bro. Groshaw is a member of several Scottish Rite Bodies, including the Royal Order of Scotland. He was Thrice Puissant Grand Master of Toronto Lodge of Perfection in 1974-75. He received the 33° at Regina, Saskatchewan on September 10, 1976. In capitular Masonry, he was First Principal of Mimico Chapter No. 295 in 1979-80, and is also a member of Geoffrey de St. Aldemar Preceptory No. 2. As a member of Rameses Shrine No. 33, Toronto, he served as its first Ceremonial Master in 1982, and is also a member of the Ceremonial Cast and the Royal Order of Jesters, Court No. 83. Our Grand Master served as Grand Senior Warden in 1976-77 and was then elected to the Board of General Purposes in 1978 and 1980. Upon his election as Deputy Grand Master in 1981, he assumed the duties of President of the Board of General Purposes and Chairman of the Long Range Planning Committee.

Recreationally, Dr. Groshaw enjoys being a tree surgeon, as well as tilling the soil at the three-acre cottage property on the western shore of Lake Simcoe. His hobbies also include fishing, sailing, golf and skiing.

Our Grand Master feels very privileged to have the opportunity to work with the brethren, being mindful of the fact that our Masonic teachings of morality, brotherhood and compassion, though shrouded in antiquity, are as relevant today as at any time in our history. It is his fervent prayer that we may strive to have peace, harmony, understanding and good will toward all people in this beautiful and bountiful land.

GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

To the Officers and Members of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

My Brethren:

On this the occasion of the 128th Annual Communication of Grand Lodge, I welcome all of you with cordial, warm affection.

Each successive assembly of Grand Lodge is a spirited event. A sharing of Brotherhood, symbolizing an end, as well as a beginning, signifying renewal as well as change.

We are here today because we love this fraternity, its welfare, its programs, and its progress. As we wend our way through the agenda, let the decisions arrived at transgress your individual personal commitment, generate increased enthusiasm, dedication, and a renewed willingness to make our programs work effectively.

As lodge representatives, you are here also to witness an accounting of my year's activities, as well as termination of my tenure as Grand Master. In a sense, it is for me a repetition of "Custer's Last Stand." With humble and grateful heart, I stand before you, conscious of the many blessings with which I have been favoured. A priceless blessing of the friendship, loyalty, and support of endless numbers of Brother Masons, surpassed only by the guidance of a loving, Divine Father who has given me the required strength and wisdom to bear the burdensome responsibilities that rest upon each succeeding Grand Master. In his name I offer my grateful thanks.

Distinguished Guests

The presence of many distinguished guests from Grand Jurisdictions and Concordant Bodies, with which we are at amity has added great lustre to this Grand Communication. We extend to you a special welcome, with the added hope that sharing in our deliberations and social events will be of interest, as well as pleasurable. Your very presence provides us with the opportunity to thank you for the hospitality, gestures of friendship, and courtesies received at the hands of many delightful people, while attending your Grand Communications. Further, we trust the accommodation provided for you and your ladies is satisfactory in every respect. When you return home, please convey to members of your respective Grand Lodges, the fondest fraternal regards of the Grand Lodge of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Necrology

During the year the Great Architect of the Universe, in His infinite wisdom, called numerous members of the Grand Lodge to final rest in His Eternal Care. Their names are recorded in the report on Deceased Brethren. With saddened hearts, we share a common loss.

In grateful tribute to their memory, the following is hereby inscribed.

R.W. Bro. P. Stuart MacKenzie

Through representatives of the Church, Masonic Fraternity, Judiciary, Militia, men and ladies crowded into the Knox Presbyterian Church, Walkerton on Sunday, April 23, 1983 ran the threads of R.W. Bro. Peter Stuart MacKenzie's long, active life of 75 years. His was a life that touched on many other lives that added a human dimension to a saying Bro. MacKenzie once passed on to me. "An idea can turn to dust or magic, depending on the talent that rubs against it."

A graduate of the University of Toronto and Osgoode Hall, Bro. MacKenzie was called to the bar as a Barrister-at-Law by the Law Society of Upper Canada in 1936. After a successful practice of law, our late Brother was appointed to the Bench of the County Court of Ontario, County of Bruce, in 1956, where he served with distinction until his retirement in 1982. In addition to responsibilities as a County Court Judge, Bro. MacKenzie gave of his talents as a Judge of the County Court in other areas of the Province on matters pertaining to labour-related negotiations.

R.W. Bro. MacKenzie served his Country as an Officer in the 98th Battery of the 21st Field Regiment, Royal Canadian Artillery, prior to and during World War Two.

His service to the community was varied and outstanding.

Bro. MacKenzie became a Mason in 1939, served as Worshipful Master of Saugeen Lodge A.F. & A.M. No. 197 in 1949, and in 1958 was elected District Deputy Grand Master of Bruce District. Commencing in 1960, Bro. MacKenzie was a valued member of the Board of General Purposes of Grand Lodge, a standing member of and for several years Chairman of the Committee on Grievances and Appeals.

R.W. Bro. MacKenzie was the Grand Representative of the Grand Lodge of Quebec near our Grand Lodge, for the past 13 years.

M.W. Bro. R. E. Davies, Past Grand Master and Grand Secretary, represented the Grand Master at the Memorial Service.

The condolences and sympathy of the Masons of this Grand Lodge go out to Mrs. MacKenzie; Mrs. Edward Ebanks, London, a daughter; son Robert of Walkerton; and granddaughter Natasha Ann Ebanks.

R.W. Bro. Thomas E. Greenaway

A lifetime resident of the Brantford community, this faithful Brother was initiated in Reba Lodge A.F. & A.M. No. 515, in 1920, where he progressed to Wor. Master in 1937. He was elected District Deputy Grand Master of the Brant District in 1954, appointed to the Board of General Purposes in 1965, on which he served with distinction to 1971.

In 1971, he became an honorary member of St. George Lodge A.F. & A.M. No. 243, St. George. Later, he affiliated with Heritage Lodge A.F. & A.M. No. 730, Cambridge, in 1979. At the time of his passing away, on February 4, 1983, at the age of 85, R.W. Bro. Greenaway was the Grand Representative of the Regular Grand Lodge of Belgium near our Grand Lodge.

Our late Brother will be missed in Masonic assemblies, in the lodges of which he was a member, in the Brant District, particularly by younger members who benefited from his great knowledge, guidance, and love of Freemasonry.

To the lodge officers, members, families, relatives, friends and associates, we extend deepest sympathy for all departed Brethren. "Where cross the crowded ways of life, we hear thy voices, oh sons of man."

Acknowledgements

1. Grand Lodge has been the recipient of a substantial bequest from the estate of the late Bro. Cecil Philp, Toronto. Under the terms of the Will, the legacy was directed to the credit of the Benevolent Fund, for assistance to widows and orphans.

At my request, the Grand Secretary has acknowledged, suitably, receipt of the legacy by letter to the heirs and solicitors of the Estate, with an appropriate expression of thanks.

We are abundantly grateful for this generous addition to the Benevolent Fund.

2. The Committee on the Constitution continues to give their time, talents, and expertise, on amendments of a minor nature to the Constitution that was adopted at the 1979 Annual Communication of Grand Lodge. Proposed amendments resulting from their work will be brought on for consideration at this Session.

To the Chairman, M.W. Bro. W. K. Bailey, and members of the Committee: R.W. Bro. H. A. Leal, V.W. Bros. G. T. Rogers, A. F. Rodger and J. V. Lawer, goes forth the sincere thanks and appreciation of Grand Lodge for their many hours of devoted work.

3. With profound regret, I give notice that R.W. Bro. James J. Talman has resigned from honorary membership on the Board of General Purposes.

Our highly esteemed Brother was elected Grand Senior Warden in 1959, elected to the Board of General Purposes in 1962, on which he served with distinction through to 1972, at which time he was elevated to the complement of the Honorary Board.

4. The composition of the Board of General Purposes will be further altered in the coming year. R.W. Bros. Melville J. Damp and W. Lorne Pacey have chosen not to seek re-election after many years of altruism and devotion.

It is appropriate that we take the means of this address to recognize the services of R.W. Bros. Talman, Damp and Pacey for their various services on Committees and as Committee Chairmen. We extend grateful appreciation for the role each of them has fulfilled in Grand Lodge. May they and their families be favoured with many years of joyful life, good health and contentment.

4. W. Bro. R. H. Holbrook was installed Worshipful Master of Thunder Bay Lodge No. 618, Thunder Bay on December 3, 1981. He served well and faithfully until his untimely death on November 6, 1982. I recommend that he be granted the rank of Past Master posthumously.

Sections 18 and 384 of the Constitution

Throughout the year, instances of a creeping-in of the wearing of jewels and / or lapel pins at lodge meetings have been reported to me. Further, requests have come forth from lodge Secretaries seeking leave to wear distinctive identification. In each case, such pleas were not permitted.

Section 384 specifies the wearing of a Royal Arch Mason Jewel, but does not authorize use of that of the Past First Principal.

Worshipful Masters, Tylers, and Lodge Secretaries are hereby reminded that the defined content of the above Sections of the Constitution must be rigidly adhered to.

Alcoholic Beverages

The Directive of April 15, 1980, relative to the making available and consumption of alcoholic beverages in lodge premises is still in effect as of the date of issue.

Petitions for Dispensation to permit expanding the directive to satisfy individual circumstances have come to my desk repeatedly. Dispensations to comply with such requests have been refused without exception.

To my dismay certain occurrences have been brought to my attention of a blatant circumvention of the guidelines laid down in the directive. Worshipful Masters of lodges and District Deputies are hereby charged not to permit any act that would give cause to erode the trust and obligation of office that rests upon you by permitting a disregard of this granted privilege. If such conduct persists, it may well be a successive Grand Master will be compelled to withdraw this right that was designed for specific needs. The many will then be forsaken by actions of a few.

Congratulations and best wishes for future success.

Degree Charts

Authoritative information has reached the Grand Lodge Office from a most reliable source relating to Coloured Degree Charts commonly in use in lodges throughout the Province.

The existing lithographed type charts may well become “A Collector’s Item,” as current cost estimates would seem to render future production unlikely.

We accordingly alert Worshipful Masters and / or Lodge Trustees to take the utmost care of the charts presently in the custody of lodges. Further it is recommended that they be secured in fire-proof safety areas between meetings. Consideration might be given to have them encased flat under glass for display on lodge room walls on meeting nights at which they are used, for degree purposes, rather than having them mounted on rollers.

This release is being submitted in the best interest of the Craft.

Conferences of Grand Masters of Masons of North America and Grand Secretaries

The Grand Master, R.W. Bro. Groshaw and the Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. R. E. Davies represented Grand Lodge at the 1983 Annual Conference in Dallas, Texas, on February 20, 21, 22 and 23.

The program involving Grand Masters from the entire North American Continent fills an instructive, informative need with respect to prevailing concerns that arise from year to year. Personally, the sessions brought me more closely to the realities of the state of the Order in this decade of the 1980’s.

After the official opening, the Grand Secretaries met concurrently but separately. M.W. Bro. Davies considers their deliberations most helpful in his efforts to conduct the affairs of the Grand Lodge office with greater efficiency.

The 1984 Conference is scheduled for Seattle, Washington.

The All Canada Conference

This year's conference of Grand and District Grand Lodges convened in Vancouver, B.C. on February 17 and 18, 1983 at the call of the President, M.W. Bro. Douglas Philips, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia. All Canadian and the two District Grand Lodges of Newfoundland were represented.

Our delegation was favoured once again by contributing to the agenda. The Grand Master — a submission on "Masonry in Canada"; the Deputy Grand Master — a member of the Nominating Committee; and M.W. Bro. Davies— the Treasurer's Report.

This Conference renders the necessary means of broadening the universal concept of Freemasonry, as well as confronting the problems that affect the fraternity nationally. It brings together leaders of the Craft from the many regions where customs and traditions vary, but emphasizes the fact that all have the same rich heritage, ideals and principles to share.

The 1984 Conference will be in Winnipeg, Manitoba.

I recommend continued membership in both Conferences.

The Seven Toronto Districts

The Officers and Members of the Past Masters' Association A.F. & A.M. of the Districts of Metropolitan Toronto give of their time and efforts in arrangements for the comfort and pleasure of the lodge representatives attending the Annual Communication.

On behalf of Grand Lodge, it is my pleasure to extend sincere thanks and appreciation to the devoted Brethren for their contribution to Masonry in the Grand Jurisdiction.

Personally, I thank the Committee in charge of the Seven Toronto Districts' Church Service for the invitation that permitted me to attend the impressive services in 1981 and 1982 as Grand Master.

The Grand Master's Banquet

The Grand Master's Banquet is a highlight of every Annual Communication.

I extend my sincere thanks to M.W. Bro. Davies, R.W. Bros. W. H. Sproule and D. I. Greenwood for their work in detailed arrangements and distribution of tickets. We trust there will be accommodation for all desirous of attending.

The guest speaker, Bro. The Honourable William H. Hudnut III of Indianapolis, Indiana enjoys the reputation of outstanding oratorical skill.

I am certain having Bro. Hudnut come to us will uphold the tradition of having talented speakers enlighten and motivate this distinctive assembly.

The Past Grand Masters

The contributions of the Past Grand Masters to the welfare of Freemasonry in this jurisdiction continues with intense commitment and zeal. I can do no better than to express heartfelt gratitude that the Great Architect has blessed them with the necessary health and vigour that enables them to sustain their labour of love, and to be in our presence at this Annual Communication.

Especially, we thank the Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. R. E. Davies; M.W. Bro. J. N. Allan, Grand Treasurer; M.W. Bro. W. K. Bailey, the Custodian of the Work; and the former Grand Masters who serve as Chairmen of important Committees of the Board of General Purposes, for their contributions.

Regretfully, M.W. Bro. Ewart Gladstone Dixon, Past Grand Master (Hon.) and Grand Secretary Emeritus, is unable to attend Grand Lodge. Our prayers go forth to him for relief from the sufferings of his infirmities. May the Most High look down upon him with His gentle Grace each passing day.

The Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. R. E. Groshaw, President of the Board of General Purposes and Chairman of the Long Range Planning Committee, has performed his responsibilities with great intensity.

R.W. Bro. Groshaw is to be particularly commended for convening, preparing the agenda, and conducting the autumn meeting of the Board of General Purposes on November 20, 1982. The Autumn Board Meeting fills an important role in the Grand Lodge yearly accomplishments.

For his work on behalf of Grand Lodge and for accepting several assignments to attend important functions for me, the Grand Master expresses sincere thanks and appreciation.

I recommend the continuation of a meeting or area meetings of the Board annually.

The District Deputy Grand Masters

For the second successive year, the Grand Master has been blessed with outstanding personal representatives in the 43 Districts.

Individually and collectively, I applaud, hail, salute and thank them for devotion to the call to duty, dedication of purpose and attitude of sympathetic understanding on decisions that had to be made in the performance of responsibilities within the respective Districts.

The Past District Deputies in Ontario have a proud tradition. Please continue that reputation by supporting Freemasonry in your lodges, districts and communities. Your experience will be of immeasurable worth. In laying aside your jewel, do not surrender your devotion to the Craft.

The Grand Lodge Officers and Members of the Board of General Purposes

To the Grand Wardens, the Grand Chaplain, the Grand Registrar, the Grand and Assistant Grand Director(s) of Ceremonies, the remaining Appointed Officers, and Members of the Board of General Purposes, I convey a very special thanks.

The delightful presence of so many of these energetic servants of our Order at District Receptions, Anniversary Celebrations and Official functions was a great source of inspiration and encouragement to me. I shall be mindful ever of your fidelity, friendship and vision. I wish for the Officers who stood steadfastly at my side many years of good health and contentment. Hold forever my deepest gratitude in your memories of service to Masonry in 1982-1983.

This Grand Master cannot refrain from expressing special appreciation to the Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. R. E. Davies. Our two years of working together has been a pleasant experience of cooperation, truly an association that I will reflect upon with great joy for the remainder of my life.

The staff, under Bro. Davies' supervision, has given me untold assistance. I wish to express to them an abiding thanks for their cheerful response to any requested services. We are most fortunate in having such loyal and dedicated personnel responding to increasing demands in an office of ever-increasing work load.

Report of Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances

The report of the above-captioned Committee, on-going since its formation following the 1980 Annual Communication, is to be presented at this Grand Lodge Assembly.

Following presentation, the procedure will vary from normal custom. Grand Lodge will be asked to accept the report as a recommendation for use by Constituent Lodges rather than for adoption. This will eliminate the possible thought of interference by Grand Lodge with respect to the autonomy of lodges.

Grand Lodge will wish that I thank V.W. Bro. Samuel H. Cohen, Chairman, and the Committee members, well-skilled in matters pertaining to finance, for their countless hours of intensely devoted work in preparing a document fashioned for direction, incentive and course.

Cornerstone Laying

An Especial Meeting of Grand Lodge was called on September 25, 1982 to conduct a Cornerstone Laying Ceremony of the Pembroke Lodge A.F. & A.M. No. 128 Temple in Pembroke. The Worshipful Master, Officers and Members of Pembroke Lodge are to be congratulated for their ingenuity, co-operation, and involvement that resulted in the ceremony proceeding with orderly dispatch.

This custom and tradition, followed quite frequently in the early days of Freemasonry in this Grand Jurisdiction, seems to have fallen into disregard. We commend the concept of the impressive, dignified ceremony in instances of lodges providing new Temple premises.

The Black Creek Pioneer Village Project Project H-O-M-E

In my 1982 Address to Grand Lodge, at pages 30 and 31, authorization was given and subsequently approved for Heritage Lodge No. 730 to proceed with this project. I am pleased to report that the project, by means of Project H-O-M-E, has been carried out in a manner that complied with the defined guidelines to my satisfaction.

The funding objective has not been reached at the time of this writing. No doubt it will be before the Annual Communication. The generous giving of Masons throughout the jurisdiction is worthy of the highest praise and gratitude.

I commend the Worshipful Master, Officers, Members and the various Committees of Heritage Lodge, for their untold work and effort in matters pertaining to the project. Particularly praiseworthy is the liaison with the Grand Lodge Office, with representatives of the Conservation Authority, and the courtesies extended the Grand Master relating to the Sod-turning Ceremony at the site of the Temple on March 31, 1983

The 250th Anniversary of Masonry in Massachusetts

The heartiest congratulations of Grand Lodge are hereby extended to the Masons of Massachusetts for having reached the pinnacle of 250 years of service to the Fraternity of Freemasonry.

A most impressive and dignified series of events unfolded in Boston on April 9 through 12, 1983 that brought together Grand Masters and / or representatives of Grand Lodges from throughout the Masonic world in the glorious celebration.

Your Grand Master was among the invited guests. It is my joyful privilege to report that a copy of the 1982 Proceedings of Grand Lodge, together with a Gold Medal of the 125th Anniversary of our Grand Lodge (1855-1980), struck at the Canadian Mint, were deposited in the Time Capsule fashioned for contributions from Grand Lodges with which the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts is in amity. The sealed capsule now rests safely in their custody.

Happy we are to have been the recipient of such pronounced hospitality and fraternal good will by M.W. Bro. Philip Berquist, his lady, Nancie, the lodge officers and members of this distinctive Grand Lodge with which we enjoy a most pleasant fraternal relationship.

International Day — The Grand Lodge of Ohio

The Grand Lodge Free and Accepted Masons of Ohio hosted an International Masonic Day in Cleveland on May 21st, 1983. Your Grand Master and his lady attended as guests of M.W. Bro. Vernon E. Musser, the Grand Master.

This colourful event provided a welcome means of fostering American-Canadian Masonic fellowship. The various activities were programmed in an impressive spirit of Brotherly affection, stressing the universality of Freemasonry.

One of the highlights was the exemplifying of the Master Mason Degree (Ontario ritual) by a degree team of Royal Canadian Mounted Police — in traditional uniform — with W. Bro. E. T. Yeomans of Builders Lodge No. 177, Ottawa, in the Chair of the Worshipful Master.

The degree was portrayed to a high degree of perfection and precision in the beautiful Masonic Temple, filled almost to capacity by Masons of our two great nations.

We wish to express a special thanks for the courtesies and favours extended the guests from Canada by our genuinely gracious hosts — the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Ohio.

Visitations to Senior Brethren of the Jurisdiction

Bro. Russell Brown, Shuniah Lodge No. 287, Thunder Bay	Age 101
Bro. (Dr.) Thomas Higginson, Lodge of Fidelity No. 231, Ottawa	101
Bro. Alfred Bassett, Ionic Lodge No. 526, Ottawa	100
W. Bro. Samuel Comrie, Keene Lodge No. 374, (at) Warkworth	100
Bro. George Davis, Wellington Lodge No. 271, Erin	100

Bro. T. D. Clarke Hamilton, Sydney Albert Luke No. 558, Ottawa	100
Bro. James Manser, Oxford Lodge 76, Woodstock	100
Bro. (Rev.) John A. Davies, King Solomon's Lodge No. 43, Woodstock	99

The manner in which those beloved Brother Masons could communicate with me was utterly amazing. Each portrayed alertness of mind and interest in our Craft.

Bro. Brown, of Thunder Bay, disclosed that in his vocation was included many years of service as a Purser on cruise pleasure ships. He was on duty on the ill-fated Noronic that burned at the dock in Toronto on September 17, 1947. Fortunately, his was among the 200 lives that were saved.

My visitation with Bro. Rev. Davies, Woodstock, was of a personal nature. Bro. Davies was a guest of my late Father and Mother for the summer of 1912 in Lombardy while enrolled in college that led to him becoming a Priest of the Anglican Church for over 50 years. Bro. Davies emigrated to Ontario from Wales in 1911.

May God's richest blessings continue to pour down on our dear Brother Masons of such elongated service to the Craft.

The Horizons

My sojourn as your Grand Master is coming to a close.

The two years of service has brought me into the presence of Brother Masons from throughout the Masonic world. Gracious invitations have entitled me to intermingle with Brethren of all ranks in 42 of the 43 Districts of the Province. This has permitted me to witness a broad perception of fraternity, a vision of unity and Brotherhood that has embraced the ends of the earth for almost three centuries of recorded history. That is what has made it a challenge of immeasurable worth.

The rich rewards of service have been manifested in a variety of ways. The great attribute of brotherly love can be seen in the faces of the old and the young alike and heard in their voices as you listen to the joys and sorrows unfold.

Frequently, in conversation, the grave problem of continued declining membership will surface. The committed and dedicated brethren who have perceived the rich legacy of Freemasonry that has come down to us through the years may well be classified as the winners. Winners are part of the answer. Conversely, others who have failed to grasp the principles and glories of the Order, seeking change, are the losers. Losers are a part of the problem, they want others to overcome.

Freemasonry in the Grand Jurisdiction has great human resources, capable of contributing more in service than the system presently demands in terms of conferral of the degrees. However, I do not sense discouragement becoming a foe. Part of the answer to that is more involvement in educational programs and social activities as supplementary to the working of the degrees.

My contention is that Freemasonry in all its glory will steadfastly endure.

For the great privilege of being permitted to serve the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario as Grand Master, I can do no more than express my humble thanks to every member. I sincerely hope I have kept the faith with you.

To my wife, Doris, I must give my profound gratitude and thanks for her companionship and understanding throughout. We share the many gifts that were presented to me so generously on my visitations.

And so I leave you, hopefully to meet at the end of yet another furrow.

Blessings to all of you.

Fraternally and respectfully

HOWARD O. POLK,
Grand Master.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE ON THE GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

At the conclusion of the Address it was moved by M.W. Bro. N. R. Richards, seconded by M.W. Bro. G. E. Turner, and carried: That a committee, composed of all the Past Grand Masters present, consider and report to Grand Lodge on the Grand Master's Address. The motion was put by the Deputy Grand Master.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DECEASED BRETHREN

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. W. A. Isbister, Chairman, and on motion of R.W. Bro. Isbister seconded by R.W. Bro. G. H. Fresque, it was adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

When I remember all the Friends so linked together
I've seen around me fall, like leaves in wintry weather,
I feel like one who treads alone, some banquet hall deserted
Whose lights are fled, whose garlands dead and all but he departed.

Brethren, during the next short while as we engage in reverence to the memory of our Departed Brethren we shall see in our minds eye the likeness of those who have been of significant influence on our own lives. Let us so act and speak our thoughts in a manner that they may in turn result in our image being remembered by our Brethren in future.

The concept of Masonry has been passed on to we present day Masons with significant tradition. Let us endeavour to emulate that tradition by further extending our efforts along the path of those who have been awarded the William Mercer Wilson Medal. It is often the small acts of kindness which are in reality most significant. If we could further extend our activities in these directions to include remembrance to those who need a lift in spirit, a smile, some encouragement, or just something else special to make their day, our efforts would be kindly remembered.

Lodges continue to hold Remembrance Services with regards Departed Brethren. Those services involving the placement on the altar of a rose or carnation for each Departed Brother adds an extra dignity. Annual services for Departed Brethren your committee encourages.

It has been a rewarding experience to have attended several Church Services during the year at which our Grand Chaplain has been the principal speaker. The warmth of his personality and quality of his messages have been inspiring.

The following lines of remembrance were penned by Rt. Wor. Bro. Willard Gordon of Toronto on the occasion of the death of V.W. Bro. T. Fred Kingsmill Sr. of London.

As some trees are evergreen
And withereth not with winter's breath;
So some memories survive.
Unchanged—untouched by life or death.
Time scatters not the golden leaves of memory;
They fade not as the years depart
But grow unceasingly in the gardens of the heart.

Brethren, our Grand Chaplain, R.W. Bro. Gordon H. Fresque, will now conduct the Remembrance Service.

Memorial Service

Opening

“God is our hope and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be moved and though the hill be carried into the midst of the sea.”

(Psalm 46:1,2).

“Cast your burden on the Lord, and he will sustain you.”

(Psalm 55:22).

“The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth and even for evermore.”

(Psalm 121:8).

Prayer of Approach

Eternal God, our heavenly Father, who lovest us with an everlasting love and canst turn the shadow of death unto the light of a new day; help us now to wait upon thee with reverence, that, as we hear the words from the Volume of the Sacred Law, we may find peace of thy presence. Amen.

Psalm 90:1-6, 10, 12, 14-17 (reading responsively)

Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men.

For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

Thou carriest them away as with flood; they are as asleep; in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

In the morning it flourisheth and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

Hymn—O God, Our Help in Ages Past

(TUNE — ST. ANNE)

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Under the shadow of thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home. Amen.

I. WATTS, 1674-1748

Let Us Pray:

Almighty and eternal God, before whose face the generations rise and pass away, the source of life, the strength of those who labour and suffer, and the refuge of the Holy and Blessed dead, we remember with thanksgiving our brethren, who, having finished their course on earth, have passed to the Grand Lodge Above.

Heavenly Father, we yield unto Thee most high praise and hearty thanks for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in all Thy saints, who have been the choice vessels of Thy Grace and the lights of the world, in their several generations. We most humbly beseech Thee to give us grace to follow the example of their steadfastness in Thy faith, their obedience to Thy Holy commandments, their zeal to promote the cause of brotherly love, relief and truth.

Mercifully grant that this hour of memory may be a mount of renewed vision, from which new light shall fall upon our fleeting days. Help us to know the purpose for which Thou called us into being. Make us ever ready to do Thy Holy Will, fill our minds with light, our hearts with love, that our lives may be built into Thy temple of spiritual fellowship.

Make our days bright with Thy presence, rich in the fruits of Thy service, and tender in human ministry that our lives may be fragrant with happiness.

Use us as Thou wilt, our hands to do Thy works, our lips to proclaim Thy truth, our lives to be the good news of Thy love and mercy.

To Thee be honour, glory, thanksgiving and adoration world without end.

The Lord bless us and keep us; The Lord make his face to shine upon us and be gracious unto us; The Lord lift up His countenance upon us and give us peace, now and for evermore. Amen.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee on Deceased Brethren.

W. A. ISBISTER,
Chairman.

AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master,
Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

We have examined the summary of resources of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario as at April 30, 1983 and the various statements of receipts and disbursements as indexed for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such test and other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion these financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario as at April 30, 1983 and the results of its operations for the year then ended in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

GRAND TREASURER'S REPORT

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

One year ago your Grand Treasurer stated in his Report to Grand Lodge, and I quote "that the deficit forecast in the budget one year ago did not materialize." I am happy to inform you that a like situation exists today. Instead of a deficit in our year's operation, I am able to report a surplus of $36,265.

In explanation of this extremely desirable financial state of affairs, I again draw your attention to the fact that our Report each year is on a cash basis. It takes no account of our inventory, the value of which was substantially reduced this year, thereby improving our cash position.

I wish to commend those responsible for expenditures in connection with Grand Lodge for keeping within their budget. Our Grand Master and the Grand Secretary set a good example which was followed by the Chairmen of the various committees. The result — a satisfactory financial year.

I wish to again draw your attention to the continued build-up of the Commutation Capital Fund. It now amounts to $222,266. These investments produced an income this year of $20,418, an impressive sum but is still only about 50% of an amount required to equal payments that would be made by those members whose Grand Lodge dues have been commuted if they were paying annual dues.

The reinvestment of the proceeds of bonds that mature is being continued, fortunately in securities that pay a higher rate of interest. This practice has been particularly advantageous for the Memorial Fund Investment Income in the year just past amounted to $60,001, a healthy increase from the year 1979 of $16,645. when the investment income was $43,356.

Donations and bequests to the Memorial Fund in the past year amounted to $71,399; the income from these Capital Funds will be available for benevolent purposes, year after year, in the future. Grand Lodge is grateful for these additions to the Fund and will welcome similar action by members of our fraternity during their life time or when planning the distribution of the assets of their estate.

Again, I wish to record my thanks to the Grand Secretary and his staff for their co-operation and assistance in facilitating the work of the Grand Treasurer. Likewise, to the Chairman of the Committee on Audit and Finance, for his co-operation and advice on financial matters.

I wish, also, to record my appreciation of the services rendered by our Auditors, Doane Raymond, in the preparation of the Annual Statement for presentation to Grand Lodge. The statement sets out our financial operations during the year and the state of our finances at year end. I recommend careful perusal of this information by the brethren.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

JAMES N. ALLAN,
Grand Treasurer

Capital and accumulated income so invested will revert to the General Fund when each particular pension terminates.

On motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by the Grand Treasurer, the Report and the Auditor's Report were accepted.

Statistical information may be found in the audited statement presented by the Grand Treasurer and in other tables printed in the annual Proceedings of Grand Lodge.

In conclusion, once again I must recognize the dedication and tireless efforts of the office staff in the administrative service to our Fraternity. The myriad of detail handled by your staff requires their total effort and dedication, without which your Grand Lodge Office could not hope to function as it does.

Finally, I express my sincere thanks to the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master, our Past Grand Masters, District Deputy Grand Masters, Members of the Board, the Brethren, and, especially, the Lodge Secretaries who have given so freely of their time and talent in assisting your Grand Secretary.

This support and assistance of which I speak has not only greatly assisted your Grand Secretary but is also most deeply appreciated.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

Grand Secretary.

On motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by the Grand Secretary, the Report was received and adopted by Grand Lodge.

REPORTS OF THE DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS

The Reports of the 43 District Deputy Grand Masters were presented by the Grand Secretary and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by the Grand Secretary, they were referred to the Board of General Purposes.

COMMITTEE OF SCRUTINEERS

The Grand Master appointed R.W. Bro. Robert Strachan, Chairman of the Committee of Scrutineers, to supervise and count the vote at the election of Grand Lodge officers, with power to name the members of the Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

M.W. Bro. B. B. Foster presented this Report and read the Foreword to the Reviews. The Deputy Grand Master then moved, seconded by M.W. Bro. B. B. Foster, that the Report be received.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL RELATIONS

This Report was presented by M.W. Bro. E. W. Nancekivell, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by M.W. Bro. Nancekivell, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

A request for recognition was received from the Grand Lodge of Santa Catarina, one of the State Grand Lodges of Brazil, together with a Statement of Principles and a list of Grand Lodges which already recognize this State Grand Lodge of Brazil, and your Committee recommends that we do extend recognition to this Grand Lodge which would appear to be entirely regular.

The Grand Lodge of Spain was consecrated in Madrid November 6, 1982, by the Grand Master of the French National Grand Lodge (which is recognized by all the regular Grand Lodges in the world). It is composed of ten Constituent Lodges chartered by the French National Grand Lodge between 1978 and 1982, plus six additional lodges chartered since that date. The Commission on Information for Recognition has considered very carefully the documents presented and is of the opinion that the Grand Lodge of Spain is entitled to recognition. Therefore, having received a request for recognition from this Grand Lodge, we do so recommend to the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

ERIC W. NANCEKIVELL,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND JURISPRUDENCE

This report was presented by M.W. Bro. W. L. Wright, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, each part, together with the report in its entirety, was approved and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Committee on Constitution and Jurisprudence begs leave to report as follows:

PART I

R.W. Bro. John W. Millar has given Notice of Motion to amend the Constitution as follows:

By striking out the words "twenty-five dollars" on line one of Section 152(c) and substituting the words "thirty dollars" and by striking out the words "two dollars and fifty cents" on line one of Section 152(h) and substituting the words "three dollars" so that the Sections 152(c) and 152(h) will now read:

Section 152(c) Thirty dollars for the Commutation of dues to Grand Lodge.

Section 152(h) Three dollars per annum, for every member of each lodge whose fees have not been commuted to Grand Lodge, including honorary and charter members.

Your Committee finds no Constitutional objection to this Notice of Motion.

PART II

Inasmuch as the Notices of Motion by R.W. Bro. H. A. Leal, V.W. Bro. G. T. Rogers, V.W. Bro. A. F. Rodger and V.W. Bro. J. V. Section 373—delete “initiate, pass, or raise more than five candidates” and insert “confer more than five degrees”.

Section 394—delete first paragraph and insert “A lodge that has requested recognition of having attained one hundred years of active service, after having received the written permission of the Grand Master, is entitled, as a special mark of distinction, to have the regalia and insignia of its members ornamented as follows:”

Section 399(a) (ii) line 11—delete “heavy bullion” and insert “English twisted”.

Section 435 line 2—after “or to” insert “dependent”.

Section 445 line 1—delete “Semi-Centennial and”.

Section 446 line 1—delete “Semi-Centennial and”.

As the amendments in these four separate Notices of Motion generally deal with matters of a basic administrative nature, now apparent after four years of experience gained under the Constitution, and providing the words “representing a lodge” are added following the word “Masons” in the first line of Section 280, your Committee then notes, with the following exception, no Constitutional objection to these four separate Notices of Motion.

Your Committee notes that the proposed amendment to Section 51 would create an inconsistency with Section 65 of the Constitution, not the subject of any amendment at this time. Accordingly your Committee on Constitution and Jurisprudence reports that it would not be regular for this proposed amendment to be presented to Grand Lodge at this Annual Meeting, and such Notice of Motion is consequently rejected.

PART III

R.W. Bro. T. H. Hammell has given Notice of Motion to amend the Constitution as follows:

Article 51: in the Book of Constitution be known as Article 51(a) and that Article 51(b) shall read as follows;

Article 51(b):—All districts whose geographical centre is more than three hundred (300) kilometers from the location in which the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge is taking place, shall be allowed to preselect the District Deputy Grand Master prior to attending the annual meeting of Grand Lodge.

Your Committee notes that the proposed amendment to Section 51 would create an inconsistency with Section 65 of the Constitution, not the subject of any amendment at this time. Accordingly your Committee on Constitution and Jurisprudence reports that it would not be regular for this proposed amendment to be presented to Grand Lodge at this Annual Meeting, and such Notice of Motion is consequently rejected.

PART IV

R.W. Bro. William Fairley has given Notice of Motion to amend the Constitution as follows:

That Section 313(c) of the Constitution be deleted. Subsection (d) would then become subsection (c).

Your Committee finds no Constitutional objection to this Notice of Motion.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the Committee.

REPORT OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON LODGE BUILDINGS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. A. L. Copeland, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Copeland, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

In 1957, the Grand Master M.W. Bro. Wm. L. Wright's annual address issued the following ruling; "A Lodge cannot occupy or use new or remodeled or extended premises before dedication of same without the permission of the Grand Master."

In the following year, our Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Harry L. Martyn, directed the formation of the Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings. This Committee was instructed to give advice and assistance to all lodges and Temple Corporations considering the erection of new temples, or the renovating of existing buildings, for Masonic use. The first chairman of this Committee was the late R.W. Bro. George T. Evans. In 1958 the Committee prepared a Bulletin designated L.B.2, which was a revision of the Bulletin No. 1, to cover a number of additional points not previously included.

In July 1981, we reported that we would be proceeding with the updating of our Committee bulletins. We have met several times over the past year and are pleased to report the completion of the revised L.B.1.

The following regulations which are to be followed, are to all intents and purposes those which were published in '75 under the chairmanship of my predecessor, R.W. Bro. Eric Horwood, with minor additions and updatings.

REGULATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS FOR LODGE BUILDINGS

FORM L.B.1

General Information:

1. Form L.B.1. and any amendments to it; "Lodge" shall mean any Temple Board, Corporation, or Association of Masons formed on operating premises where lodges are permitted to meet or assemble.

A) Grand Lodge Bulletins, Forms L.B.1 and L.B.2.

C) Ontario regulations under "The Fire Marshal's Act."

D) Submission of plans to local Building Department and obtain the necessary permits etc.

Regulations:

The following are the Regulations and general Requirements for all lodge buildings whether new, renovated, or remodelled.

3. Any new building being considered for erection or alterations or additions shall be approved by the Advisory Committee.
4. Any lodge about to enter into an agreement to rent or lease a building or part of a building, shall present plans of such building to the Advisory Committee for approval.
5. Any lodge considering making structural alterations to any existing building shall present plans for approval to the Advisory Committee.

7. All contact with the Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings shall be through the Grand Secretary.
8. Separation: In a single-story building, where the Masonic Lodge is to occupy a section of the building, the lodge room and the anteroom shall be completely separated from the area occupied by any other body or group, by a solid sound-proof partition.

One exit may be the main entrance to the building, others shall be standard, exterior steel stairs or fire escapes enclosed on new buildings, and preferably enclosed or protected from the elements. Note: Access to fire escapes must be through doors at floor level. Refer to Section 3.4 Ontario Building Code for design of exit facilities and number of egress doors.

B) Exit doors shall open outwards (to the outside or to enclosed or protected stairway, not an egress door from the lodge room leading to a public corridor). These doors shall open outwards and shall be equipped with panic hardware operated from the inside only.

C) Consideration should be given to the handicapped by means of a ramp or extra doors.

10. Stairs and Railings:

(2) Treads and risers in every exit stair except a fire escape stair shall have uniform run and rise in any one flight and shall not alter significantly in run and rise in successive flights in any stair system.

(3) Where the run of any tread in an exit stair is less than 10 in. a nosing of at least 1 in. shall be provided beyond the face of the riser or an equivalent back slope on the riser shall be provided.

A) Every exit shall be separated from the remainder of the building it serves by a fire separation with a fire resistance rating conforming to Ontario Building Code 3.4.5.1.

B) No storage whatever shall be permitted in the stair enclosure. (Ontario Building Code 3.4.5.2.).

12. Preparation Room: May be a minimum of 6'0" x 6'0", but where practical it should be larger, and shall have one door entering from the anteroom and one door into the lodge room. A substantial cupboard should be provided for lodge regalia, etc.

13. Ceiling Heights:

A) Lodge rooms shall have ceilings of a height suitable to the size of the room. It is recommended that ceiling height be a minimum of 10'0".

B) Interior finish requirements as required by the Ontario Building Code.

14. Lodge Rooms:

A) There shall be three steps to the dais in the EAST, two steps to the S.W., and one step to the J.W.; steps to each dais shall have risers not greater than 7" and treads not less than 12", but preferably 14" wide. These steps shall be low and broad as they give a better appearance and are safer.

B) Where permissible, main lodge rooms shall have double doors, and easily operated for reception of large groups.

15. Crypt: Provide a crypt in a suitable place for the Emblems of Mortality.

16. Windows: In the lodge room, the windows shall be of a size, shape and height to discourage eavesdropping. Drapes are to be treated to be fire-retardant.

17. Toilets: Shall be of a size and number as required by the Ontario Building Code, Sub-section 3.6.4. Consideration should be given to the handicapped when planning washrooms. Drinking fountains shall be placed in convenient locations.

18. Kitchen: Shall be of a size to suit the membership and shall have a sink and a range and cupboards to contain the dishes. A wide, serving wicket is recommended.

19. Heating:

A) The heating system shall be adequate to comfortably heat the lodge room, banquet room and other rooms.

B) Furnace and / or electrical rooms shall conform with the Ontario Building Code.

20. Lighting: The lighting of the lodge room shall be adequate to give the room a bright pleasing appearance. There shall also be provided the various outlets and switches required during the ceremonies, such as at the altar, over the officers' chairs, the "star," etc. in accordance with L.B.2. All stairs shall be well lighted. Exit lights shall conform with the Ontario Building Code. Emergency lighting should be installed in exit areas in case of power failure.

21. Ventilation and Air Conditioning: It is recommended that lodge rooms and banquet rooms should have a mechanical ventilating and possibly air conditioning systems. Such systems should be a low noise baffled system, designed for the particular application. A single exhaust fan, placed in an outside wall, will not work efficiently.

22. Safekeeping of Records: The concern is always that of protecting our heritage and records. Provision should be made to safeguard records in a fire resistant safe, vault, or room. Microfilming is a more acceptable method of preserving records, but they should be stored in a different location than the original records.

23. Completion: On completion of the project, the D.D.G.M. accompanied by a representative of the Advisory Committee, will examine the premises to ensure that it conforms to the ritualistic requirements, and also obtain verification that the Building Code Requirements and Fire Safety Regulations have been met.

*NOTE: The following regulations were adopted by the Grand Lodge in 1957.

A) A lodge cannot occupy or use new or remodelled or extended premises before dedication of same without the permission of the Grand Master.

B) The procedure is for the Lodge or Temple Corporation, as the case may be, to contact their District Deputy Grand Master when the premises are ready for occupancy. The District Deputy Grand Master, in consort with a member of the Advisory Committee, will then inspect the premises and will submit a report, in writing, through the Grand Secretary, for the Grand Master and the Advisory Committee, noting therein anything which has not been installed or finished as required by or does not comply with the Government Regulations and the requirements for Lodge Buildings.

C) Lodges shall not give notice of meeting in the new premises unless and until the Grand Master's permission to do so has been obtained. This usually requires not less than three weeks. Lodges shall govern themselves accordingly.

The advantages of holding title to Masonic property by Incorporation of a Nonprofit Company without Share Capital, has been recommended by our Committee on many occasions. It assures that the property is owned and vested in the membership of the lodge. All requests for the Incorporation kit should be directed to the Grand Secretary.

The L.B.2 - Electrical covering Lodge Room Lighting, dated 1971, is now being examined for minor revisions and updating.

Your Advisory Committee earnestly solicits your inquiries. A prompt courteous response is assured.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

A. LOU COPELAND,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CONDITION OF MASONRY

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. R. J. Connor, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Connor, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful, the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Why doesn't Grand Lodge do something about declining membership and decreased lodge attendance? How often have you heard this statement?

The report from R.W. Bro. Ronald Campbell of Ottawa District No. 1 explains the problem as they see it and gives an example of a start towards a solution. Initiations in his district were 48, affiliations 17, slightly more than offsetting the loss due to death (60), over which they had no control. The continuing decline, therefore, can be attributed almost entirely to resignations (29) and suspensions (27) - a loss of members who, for some reason or other, have tried Masonry and found it lacking - a loss which can and must be stopped.

To endeavour to interest the disinterested and to attempt to reverse the recent trend in our Grand Lodge, the following two thrusts have been introduced to combat Masonic "drop-outs":

"Several lodges are addressing the problem by introducing programs to stress the involvement of sponsors, especially the need to participate with the new member once the degrees have been completed; there has been an upsurge in 'Members' Nights' with the newer members participating in the work. Sponsors in Civil Service Lodge No. 148 are encouraged to visit other lodges with their candidate when the work of the evening will be the degree recently received by the candidate. The benefits are two-fold: the candidate gets an opportunity to digest the degrees and also to learn the pleasures of visitation. A number of lodges are highlighting the responsibilities of sponsors: St. Andrew's Lodge No. 560 is developing a handy booklet outlining the duties of sponsors. The overall point being stressed by the lodges is that the sponsors' responsibilities begin, not end, with the signing of the application.

The Worshipful Masters of the two Ottawa Districts organized a dinner for all newly-made Masons so that they might meet others in the similar situation, as well as become more aware of the composition of Masonry in the Ottawa area. The evening was considered a success with 60 in attendance and it is hoped this will be the beginning of an annual New Master Masons Night."

Many of our districts report on the number of resignations and suspensions, but there is one district taking a positive step to instill Masonic interest early in the young Mason's career so that he will be eager to actively participate and not just be a member to gradually lose interest and drop from our ranks some years hence.

In our Grand Jurisdiction, there has been good news and some not so good news. Let's look at the unpleasant part first, an area, for the most part, covering items mentioned before but still prominent in the eyes of the D.D.G.M.s.

Fire safety is the prime concern, not only of the D.D.G.M., but of every Mason. Here is a quote from the report of R.W. Bro. Allan Hewens of Ottawa District No. 2.

"W. Bro. Richard Rabishaw was appointed District Advisor on Fire and Safety Precautions and his credentials are as Deputy Fire Chief of the Atomic Energy Station at Chalk River. He has inspected all lodges in the district and forwarded his recommendations to each lodge and temple for implementation. His recommendations are that all lodges should install alarm systems in their buildings. Each lodge should have a fire plan in case of an emergency and practice a fire drill. Each temple should have their local Fire Department do an annual inspection and should install emergency lights." All very practical suggestions.

Many lodges are under insured (or have no insurance) on their regalia and paraphernalia and / or lodge building. This is an item which requires annual assessment and should be high on the priority list of each lodge and Temple Board.

An item being cited more often is that of dues arrears. Economic conditions are partially responsible for this item, but diligence on the part of a lodge can keep arrears from becoming a problem and from depriving the lodge of operating revenue.

What about the good news? Each district had its share of memorable events to help foster interest and activity. There were some very special ones such as:

- One Hundredth Birthday parties for Bro. Alf Bassett of Ionic No. 526 and Bro. George Davis of Wellington No. 271 — two Masons who don't let age diminish their Masonic activity.
- Testimonials given to say "Thank You" to Masons who have given extra effort on behalf of our Craft. How much nicer to tell them how we feel than to sing their praises after they have gone.

- Mention was made of 2 or 3 lodges who have not had a candidate for 3 or 4 years and now have one or more, igniting a spark to revitalize these lodges and bring them back to a greater activity.
- The honour and pleasure we all share in having one of our members become the first North American Mason to occupy the Chair of King Solomon in the premier lodge of research, Quatuor Coronati, No. 2076 of the United Grand Lodge of England. R.W. Bro. Wallace E. McLeod brings honour to us all by his election to this office and many Masons of our Grand Lodge journeyed to London to attend his installation.
- One district reports that several lodges have been successful in having their tax assessment revised and now are paying taxes more in line with their means.
- Huron-Bruce Lodge provided funds for the step-daughter of a Mason to fly from Calgary to Toronto for the funeral of one of their members.
- The speakers program, area and multi-district workshops and seminars all have been of great value in provoking interest and enlightenment in many areas.

It would not be right to overlook the glowing terms with which each D.D.G.M. has expressed his satisfaction with his year in office. The gratitude they give to their lodge for proposing them for their high office and for supporting them all through the year; to their District Officers - the Secretary and Chaplain and the Chairmen of Blood Donors, Education, Benevolence, Library, Long Range Planning and special assignments; the Grand Lodge for the support and information; and to the Grand Master for his confirmation of their election; is eloquently stated in each submission. All are in accord in agreeing that a team effort in each district made the year seem to fly by and become one to be remembered by everyone on that team.

This summation of the reports of our D.D.G.M.s started out by referring to the problem of declining membership and decreased lodge attendance. Indeed this was the main concern of every one of our 43 representatives of our Grand Master. Each one tried to assess the problem as he saw it and all have endeavoured to inaugurate programs in their district to help towards a solution. I quote from two of their reports.

From R.W. Bro. John Toll, Niagara District A:

"Masonry in this district, and in other nearby districts, is in serious trouble, and I can foresee more serious trouble in the future. This appears to be a direct contradiction to much of what I have reported about the individual lodges, where I have found hard-working, enthusiastic Masters backed by capable and dedicated officers. Yet my reports about the various lodges have been accurate. There is nothing wrong with the quality of work, or the spirit of good Masonic brotherhood which exists within the lodges and, particularly in this district, between the various lodges within the district.

To verify what I have to say, I have compiled some figures, giving membership figures of the various lodges in 1956, 1959 and 1983. The scope of twenty-three and twenty-six years presents a picture of a steady and significant decline, particularly in the larger centres. I also compiled similar figures for Niagara "B" and found a parallel story. I have taken special notice of the age distribution of the membership in the lodges at present and am convinced that this indicates an even greater and more serious decline in the future.

The large number of our members who are approaching advanced years are not being replaced by younger men.

Using as a guide the enthusiastic response and the ease with which Project HELP oversubscribed its goal, I am convinced that we have a body of men at all levels of our fraternity who are crying for worthwhile things to do in the name of Masonry, who beg for an opportunity to practice brotherly love, relief and truth, not only within the membership but also within the larger brotherhood of man.

The individual member needs to be involved in a cause at the lodge and/or district level which first actively uses his individual talents and secondly allows him to see and experience the results of his efforts. The public image of the fraternity which would result would, I am sure, bring candidates to our doors begging for admission."

Here is how the D.D.G.M. of Chatham District, R.W. Bro. Eric Williams sees the problem:

"While we deplore the loss of membership, we must not consider this an indictment of Masonry as such, or a failure to do our job. There is nothing wrong with Masonry. Masonry still offers the same high standards as always and we should keep it so. The trouble lies with the individual member. We do not have to alter our concepts of Masonry just because some members would rather sit at home and watch T.V. than attend lodge meetings. Rather than downgrading our requirements, we should, if anything, be more selective in our choice of candidates and officer material. Every brother who intends to propose or second a candidate for Masonry is under an obligation to do his utmost to make certain as far as possible that the candidate is in all respects one who will reflect honour on his choice and that the candidate, if admitted, will be able to work in harmony with the brethren of the lodge. Also, the conferring of degrees on a man does not make him a Mason. The making of a Mason is no swift and sudden process. It consists of a continuing course of education, training and character formation."

You will all agree that this problem cannot be left to our D.D.G.M.s to solve - it is our problem - yours and mine. Every Mason should try to assist his district in finding an answer to reverse this trend by bringing Masonry back to being an ongoing, viable, growing, dominant force in the community and in the country.

R.W. Bro. Williams concludes his report with this paragraph:

“It would do us all good to pause for a few minutes every now and then to review our actions, behaviour and thoughts and see if they measure up to our own philosophy, and to the teachings of the Craft, and remember that misconduct by Masons can do more to injure our Fraternity than anything else.”

Let us all pause and reflect, renew our resolve, and go out into our communities armed with the precepts of Freemasonry to show, by example, that our Craft is truly worthy of the energy and the attention of all men who practice the golden rule and believe in the brotherhood of man.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

ROD J. CONNOR,
Chairman

REPORT OF THE LIBRARY COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. F. J. Bruce, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Bruce, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

On behalf of your Library Committee, it is my pleasure to present the following report to the 128th Annual Communication of this Grand Lodge.

The members of the Committee are R.W. Bros. Pellow, Auckland, Pos and Horwood, with the undersigned as chairman.

During the year the Library was not officially opened by the Committee at 888 Yonge Street. However, Bro. Albert Peddie of Patricia Lodge No. 587 did open it each Friday from 12 noon till 2:30 p.m. Bro. Peddie continued to fill out record cards listing the books in the Library. The Committee thanks Bro. Peddie for his work.

The Building Management allowed brethren in the Library at 888 Yonge Street, if possible, from July 19, 1982 till May 19, 1983; some 42 brethren did visit, and 48 books were signed out.

The Library Committee, again, this year, prepared Kits and Material and sent same to each of the new D.D.G.M.s. These Kits contained material for the D.D.G.M. himself, the Masters of his District Lodges, Lodge Library Chairmen, and his District Library Chairman. The Kits were composed of; Book List, Price List, Book Reviews done by R.W. Bro. Wallace McLeod - some 55 in all, Audio-visual Material, list of papers available and a number of other papers to help the districts and lodges to bring Masonic knowledge and understanding to their brethren.

We again requested that all new D.D.G.M.s put on their committees a District Library Chairman — of 43 districts, 40 complied. Again, this enabled your Library Committee to have a better line of communication through to each lodge.

The Outreach Program, this year, had a 50% increase over 1981-82, with well over 1,800 books being purchased and sold to the brethren for a sum of over $10,000.00 (at time of report all returns had not been made). This year, 97 prepared papers were ordered by lodges; this was a drop over last year. This year, we will again show a small profit on book and paper sales; this will be shown in a final report as book stock on hand.

Audio-visual—there was a big increase this year with some 75 slides, tapes and films being requested by the lodges. Your Library is now in need of a new supply of this material and as time goes on the stock is wearing out.

Over the year a number of the districts ordered books direct from Grand Lodge to sell to the lodges and brethren, this being only Grand Lodge publications. Fourteen District Library Chairmen carried a stock of books, including Grand Lodge publications and 25 to 30 other publications and Masonic writings, selling from $500.00 to $2,500.00 per district. Our thanks to all Chairmen for their efforts, and a special thanks to all of the seven Toronto Districts, Ottawa 2 District, Georgian District, St. Lawrence District, Bruce District. I would recommend to the next Library Committee to try and expand this approach to help in bringing Masonic knowledge to our brethren.

A report form was sent to all D.D.G.M.s to report on the Library condition in their districts. One question asked was: "How can the Grand Lodge Library Committee better serve your lodges and districts?" A great number of ideas were brought forth. Most felt that the Library Committee had done a good job over the past year; with supplies to the District Chairmen with necessary material to assist them. Other suggestions were:

- (a) To send out monthly news reports and reviews on books and material.
- (b) To be sure each year that the districts have a Library Chairman.
- (c) Make available books with larger print for older brethren.
- (d) To supply D.D.G.M.s with prepared talks on the Library and what it has to offer.
- (e) To have Masters write more about the Library in their summons.
- (f) To supply the districts with some sort of traveling Library for the lodges to review
- (g) Request for more books and material with Canadian content, written by and for our Grand Lodge.

W. Bro. Merrill Horrick, from Goodwood Lodge No. 159, Ottawa 1 District, has listed books from the Grand Lodge Library by title and author, and when completed it will be supplied to all lodges in the district.

R.W. Bro. Anderson, in Prince Edward District, has catalogued all books in the district lodges and compiled them into a book, and when complete will send copies to all lodges in the district, so that the brethren may know what is available in their own district.

Albion Lodge No. 109 dedicated a Library for their 125th Anniversary year, May 17, 1983.

It is reported by the D.D.G.M.s that a lot of interest has been shown this year, and from their District Reports of some 31 reports received 86 have Lodge Library Chairmen, 167 have Libraries of their own and 14 started Libraries this past year. I would recommend that the next Grand Lodge Committee see if we can increase the number of lodges with Library Chairmen and Libraries of their own.

Your Library again printed over 8,000 sheets of Material, answered some 275 letters and requests, with a large number of parcels to be mailed. Expenses — not all in at the time of this report est. Rent $4,100.00, Insurance $250.00 with mailing and printing around $1,400.00.

Over the last year only a few books were received as donations to the Library. A number of books have been bound and rebound. This work was done by Bro. David Turner.

The transfer of the books from our Grand Lodge Library in Toronto is presently under way to our Grand Lodge Office Building in Hamilton.

I again list the addresses of book supply houses.

- (1) Your Grand Lodge Office, Hamilton
- (2) Masonic Book Sales, P.O. Box 250, Pefferlaw, Ontario L0E 1N0.
- (3) Macoy Publishing Company, P.O. Box 9825, Richmond, Virginia 23228.
- (4) A. Lewis Publishers, Terminal House, Shepperton TW17 8AS.
- (5) Masonic Service Association, 8120 Fenton Street, Silver Spring, Maryland 20910.
- (6) Masonic Book Club, 317 North Main Street, Bloomington, Illinois 61701.
- (7) Quatuor Coronati Correspondence Circle, 27 Great Queen Street, London WC2B 5BB.

In closing I wish to express sincere appreciation to all 43 District Deputy Grand Masters, for their full co-operation this past year; to the District Library Chairmen for their work; to M.W. Bro. Robert E. Davies, our Grand Secretary; to the staff at the Grand Lodge Offices, who go out of their way to look after needed supplies. And a special thank you to the members of the Committee.

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of your Library Committee.

FRANK J. BRUCE,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON WARRANTS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. R. Colledge, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Colledge, Part I was received and adopted, and Part II was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee on Warrants begs to present its report for the year. This Committee consists of R.W. Bro. E. A. Gould, Grand Senior Warden; R.W. Bro. K. C. Bartlett, Grand Junior Warden; and R.W. Bro. W. R. C. Bradford, Grand Registrar; and the Chairman.

PART I

An application for a Warrant has been received from a lodge presently working under dispensation. We, your committee, have examined the books, records, and petition from the applicant and find everything to be in order. We therefore take great pleasure in recommending that a Warrant be issued to:

London Daylight Lodge U.D., London to be numbered 735 and added to London East District.

The Brethren responsible for the formation of this lodge are too numerous to mention in this report, but we extend our most sincere congratulations to each and every one of them.

The Most Worshipful the Grand Master has granted dispensation for a new lodge in Ottawa 1 District, to be named Edinburgh Lodge, and has advised the District Deputy of that District, that he may now proceed to make arrangements for the ceremony of Instituting this lodge at his pleasure.

We extend our best wishes to Edinburgh Lodge, and look forward to them receiving their Warrant.

PART II

We have tabulated the results of the letter sent out in November of 1982 regarding the proposed "Substitute Warrant." The results were very negative, to say the least.

We received answers from 13 Districts, representing 182 lodges and from 13 individual lodges, for a total of 195 lodges out of 647.

Of the answers received, 12 of the Districts stated that they had no desire to acquire a substitute, and ten of the individual lodges gave the same reply. The remainder of the lodges in the Grand Jurisdiction did not reply, which seemed to indicate a lack of interest.

We feel that a response such as this does not justify such a document and we do not recommend the adoption of a "Substitute Warrant."

May we express our gratitude to M.W. Bro. R. E. Davies, Grand Secretary, and his entire staff for the assistance afforded us during the past year.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted

ROBERT COLLEDGE,
Chairman.

CALLED OFF

Grand Lodge adjourned at 12:05 p.m.

CALLED ON

Grand Lodge resumed Labor at 1:53 p.m., the Grand Master on the Throne.

REPORT OF THE BLOOD DONORS' COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. A. N. Newell, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Newell, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is my privilege to present the report of the Blood Donor Committee.

The Committee was composed of R.W. Bros. M. J. Damp, J. D. Jackson, R. J. Connor, A. J. Broomhead, W. Frank, G. F. W. Inrig, D. J. Emerick, R. Green; V.W. Bro. J. M. Forster, with the undersigned as Chairman.

The same organization was maintained with distribution of fact sheets and the name of the Area Supervisor if the name of the District Chairman had been submitted. Once again 25% of the districts did not submit a report at the time of writing this report. There was little material apart from recorded numbers in many of the reports but there were several District Chairmen who performed in a commendable fashion and voiced their concerns and problems and offered suggestions.

The complaints were much the same as last year although from different chairmen and different districts.

- A. Red Cross — There is difficulty in communications and difficulty in obtaining changes in dates and locations. This is also a problem for the Red Cross because of personnel, equipment and financing. There was also difficulty at the clinic level with variation in interpretation of eligibility to donate.

B. Lodge Level — Some lodge chairmen are not fulfilling their duty; for example, there were no reports from nine of fourteen, seven of twelve, or nine of sixteen lodges and so on in various districts.

Some have suggested that all chairmen should be active donors, have been a recipient or manifest in some way a desire to serve.

C. Grand Lodge — No mention of blood donors in the form for the District Deputy Grand Master. More support is required in some districts.

In a more positive vein, fifteen districts increased their donation to varying degrees from 15% to 187%. Districts deserving commendation are Brant, Chatham, Hamilton A and C, London East and West, Niagara A, Nipissing East, St. Lawrence, Toronto 2 and 3, Waterloo, Wellington, Western and Windsor.

Individual efforts have also been excellent and the following have been reported:

W. Bro. Cecil McFadden	Burlington Lodge No. 165	116 donations
Bro. Norman White	Petrolia Lodge No. 194 (he attended clinic with five family members)	214 donations
Bro. Ron Pfander	Wardrope Lodge No. 555	60 donations
W. Bro. W. R. Ovens	Chairman for Frontenac District received a Citation from the Red Cross.

I was pleased to participate in a presentation to V.W. Bro. Hoyle on behalf of the three Hamilton Districts. I would like to draw particular attention to the London West District. A very active and varied program was instituted by W. Bro. R. J. McKibbin. An active singing group called "The Corpuscles" was formed which participated in 25 Lodges to promote participation. Combined with Red Cross posters, bloodstones, blood lifelines, cards after donating, "Share a Pint" night, Red Cross iced cakes, they constantly promoted our project. This was so successful that the two districts of London East and West achieved a total of 1,112 units.

I must also mention the achievement of two rural Lodges in Windsor District under W. Bro. Alvin Turner:

Central No. 402	268 units
Naphtali No. 413	359 units

They accounted for 75% of the donations for their district which totalled 892 units.

Suggestions received include:

1. There should be some recognition of donors by Grand Lodge.
2. Lodges should be encouraged to retain blood donor chairmen for more than one year.
3. Trophies to be presented in each district for the most successful lodge. This is being carried out in Hamilton A and London East and West, Prince Edward and Georgian Districts according to the submitted reports.
4. A certificate be presented to the donor for certain achievements as is done in Peterborough District.
5. Forms be left with the Tyler that can be filled out at the time of registration.
6. Lodges support Blood Donor Clinics.

The following is a tabulation of the results of this and the preceding year:

For the first time since 1977 we have exceeded 10,000 units and with our declining membership, it is the highest percentage participation since 1962.

Recommendations:

1. There should be a standard method of reporting; should family members or the number attending a Blood Donor Clinic supported by Masonic endeavour be included.
2. Standard reply forms used by the district Chairmen. Are they being supplied by the area supervisors? They must be submitted at the end of April.
3. Lodge and District Chairmen should report significant donors, special lodge or district efforts, interesting happenings and reasons for poor results as well, whether they be lodge, district or Grand Lodge problems.
4. Reassess appointment of lodge and district chairmen. If they are functioning properly, ask them to continue. If they are not, replace them.

I must express my appreciation to those area supervisors, district chairmen, lodge chairmen and donors who have tried to fulfil our obligation to this most worthwhile project.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the committee.

ALAN N. NEWELL,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE POLICY COMMITTEE ON THE BULLETIN

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. R. S. Throop, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Throop, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is the hope of this Committee that the Bulletin has served another year of benefit and usefulness to the Craft throughout this Grand Jurisdiction. If this has been achieved then we are thankful and hasten to express our appreciation to all those who contributed to its pages, whether it be the inspiring message from the Grand Master, items of an educational and instructive nature, or just plain neighbourly news submitted by brethren from Kenora to Cornwall.

Masonic knowledge, like all knowledge, can in part be said to consist of practical understanding gained by experience. The Bulletin was, and still is, designed to assist in the sharing of our Masonic experiences and thereby contribute to the increase of our Masonic knowledge. We solicit your active participation in this worthwhile endeavour.

It has been said that able men serve good causes because of their devotion to them and do not ask to be thanked but again this year it is our privilege to recognize the contribution to Masonry of the Editor, R.W. Bro. Wilson McConnell in collating and publishing the Bulletin, and of the Grand Secretary and his staff for their assistance in its distribution.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the Committee.

ROBERT S. THROOP,
Chairman.

PRESENTATION OF GRAND REPRESENTATIVE'S COMMISSION

M.W. Bro. H. O. Polk summoned V.W. Bro. J. D. Atchison to the East, and on behalf of the Grand Lodge of Western Australia, presented his Commission.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON GRIEVANCES AND APPEALS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. N. E. Byrne, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Byrne, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee, as a result of amendments to the Constitution, effective at the last Annual Communication in July 1982, is now charged with reviewing the results of all trials held after that date.

Three trials have been conducted and in all three, a finding of guilt was pronounced by the Trial Commission. In all three trials the punishment directed by the Trial Commission was a suspension for a definite period of time.

Your Committee has carefully reviewed the proceedings in all three trials and in confirming the decisions has confirmed the penalty in two, and varied (by rewording) the penalty in one.

It is not necessary for Grand Lodge to approve or reject these decisions of your Committee and accordingly the same are not now presented to you. Further publicity in all three cases will not achieve any beneficial result. The Masons involved have stood trial by their peers and accepted the decision respectively of the Trial Commission. No appeals have been filed.

Your Committee is pleased to advise that there are no expulsions for Grand Lodge to consider this year.

Two reports of Reviewing Committees have been transmitted to your Committee in accordance with the rules respecting trials. In both instances, after investigation, the Reviewing Committee has found no reasonable grounds to support the complaint and accordingly in each case, that terminates the matter.

This Committee, as well as Grand Lodge in general, for years enjoyed the benefit of the wealth of experience and wisdom brought to it by the late R.W. Bro. P. Stuart MacKenzie. He served this Grand Lodge well as Chairman of this Committee for many years, and his death has left a vacuum in the Committee which will be exceptionally difficult to fill. He had the "Wisdom of Solomon" and, coupled with his great expertise as a distinguished County Court Judge, he guided and led your Committee through many meetings, where his great care, legal knowledge, extra effort, compassion and understanding were greatly relied on. He served his Country, his profession and Masonry well and those of us who knew him well, will sorely miss his friendly manner, his happy countenance and his thoughtful and serious deliberation. We cherish his memory in our hearts.

Your Committee is generally pleased with the manner that lodges throughout the jurisdiction are dealing with complaints and charges. In a society as wide spread as that of Masonry, we are bound to find some who, through ignorance, carelessness, greed, or lack of a true fraternal attitude, tread on the uneven paths of dishonour, deceit and dishonesty and even sometimes resort to violence.

Your Committee respectfully submits that we, as Masons, must ever be ready to deal with these frailties of the human soul, and while enforcing our strict moral code, avoid the pressures of those who would ask us to ignore these situations under the guise of friendship and fraternity.

A fraternity to be sound and whole must strictly enforce a firm, moral code so that the erosion of complacency and unconcern does not attack the strong moral fiber of the great body of men who adhere in word and deed to the Brotherhood of Man under the Fatherhood of God.

In conclusion, your Committee again strongly recommends that lodges and individual Masons do not proceed with complaints and charges of a criminal or quasi-criminal nature until such matters have been dealt with by a Court of competent jurisdiction. It is only then that we, as Masons, can safely proceed with these matters, particularly in view of the recent increase in civil responsibilities and liabilities cast upon those who would take the law into their own hands.

Matters involving marital difficulties are sometimes harder to deal with, and strict caution must be used.

Your Committee acknowledges with thanks the special efforts provided by our Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Robert E. Davies and his staff. Relying upon their sure support and cheerful assistance, your Committee has been able to continue its responsibilities to the Grand Jurisdiction and report on its activities during the year.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee.

NORMAN E. BYRNE,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PRINTING AND PUBLICATIONS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. R. T. Runciman, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Runciman, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren

On behalf of the Committee on Printing and Publications I beg leave to submit this report to the 128th Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

Printing costs for the year ended April 30, 1983 are:

Grand Lodge Bulletin.....	$ 8,041.30
Fraternal Reviews.....	6,595.03
Proceedings	10,915.40
Preliminary Reports	5,012.76
Printing, Stationery & Office Supplies.....	5,936.67

The inventory of Grand Lodge publications for the year ended April 30, 1983 is:

		Volumes Sold
Meeting the Challenge	4,600	440
First Grand Master	950	90
Beyond the Pillars	—	350
The Work	4,600	15,400
Whence Come We?	15,500	500
Constitution	300	1,800

During the year, the Grand Secretary's office received $802.00 from the sale of "The Proceedings."

All of the above figures are subject to audit and the final audited figures will appear in the Grand Treasurer's Report.

In our report last year we indicated that there was a new order placed for printing of "The Work" as the inventory was depleted. The printing of 20,000 copies was delivered after the year end and 15,400 copies have been sold.

The supply of the "Book of Constitution" is almost depleted and numerous "housekeeping" amendments are being proposed at this Annual Communication of Grand Lodge. Your Committee recommends that the Constitution be reprinted.

The stock of the excellent book "Beyond the Pillars" is now completely sold. The book is used as part of the curriculum established by the Masonic Education Committee in its programme and that Committee plans to continue its use. Your Committee recommends that in view of continued use of the book for Masonic Education that it be reprinted in sufficient quantity based on the foreseeable demand by the Masonic Education Committee. This book was first published in 1973 and there have been some significant changes since that time and therefore consideration should perhaps be given to revision of the appropriate sections to bring the information up to date.

We are particularly pleased with the sale of "The Proceedings." The price was increased last year to more accurately reflect the cost of this publication. The cost of the other Grand Lodge Publications except "Whence Come We?" was increased to reflect the increase in costs related to the sale and delivery of these items.

We are again disappointed in the sale figures for "Whence Come We?" and we urge the District Deputy Grand Masters and the District Chairmen of Masonic Education to continue to promote this book at every opportunity. The Committee also wishes to express its thanks to the above-mentioned Brethren and the Masonic Education Committee for their assistance throughout the year. In particular, we thank the Masonic Education Committee for promoting "Beyond the Pillars" by including it in its curriculum.

The Grand Secretary and his staff are to be commended for their vigilant control of costs again this year and we express our thanks to them for their continued support and guidance.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ROBERT T. RUNCIMAN,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE LONG RANGE PLANNING COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. R. E. Groshaw, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. G. E. MacDonald, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

During this past year, the Long Range Planning Committee has continued to study the structure and organization of Freemasonry in our Grand Jurisdiction, and to contemplate methods whereby our Fraternity can be more meaningful to our membership. This committee appreciates the efforts of the D.D.G.M.s, and indeed the entire Board of General Purposes in publicizing the objectives and aims of this Committee, with a resultant dialogue which, hopefully, fairly represents the attitudes of our membership. In this regard we feel the following are worthy of note:

(1) We endeavoured to help, and now congratulate all who are responsible for the success of the Black Creek Pioneer Village project.

(2) Housing for senior members of our society, briefly referred to in last year's report, has subsequently been discussed by the entire Board of General Purposes. As a result of this, some districts and groups of lodges are doing feasibility studies in their region, in conjunction with the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation.

(3) We continue to have concern for youth, and your Committee is grateful for submissions provided from those working with the youths in our communities. We continue to encourage participation of our membership in youth programs. This should not be done to recruit candidates for our Order, but as part of our desire that young people be more exposed to humane attitudes and compassion for others, and for those moral principles and values which have stood the test of time.

(4) Consideration may be given by lodges to the Installation and Investiture of their Officers at a time in close proximity to the Masonic year of our Grand Lodge. Tradition must always be treated with respect, and this should be only contemplated if the lodge desires that the term of its Worshipful Master and Officers coincide with the term of the Grand Lodge Officers and Committees of the Board of General Purposes.

(5) In the 1981 report of this Committee, it was recommended that consideration be given to a possible division into areas for elected representatives to the Board of General Purposes. Late in 1981 the Grand Master charged the Long Range Planning Committee with the task of providing a format by which regional elections could be implemented, and a major part of our time and efforts were directed toward this task. The Committee recognizes the merits of such a plan, while at the same time recognizing that the present structure has served Grand Lodge well, and for an extended period of time. Society is changing, socio-economic patterns are variable throughout the jurisdiction, and the Committee recognizes that any change may have far-reaching ramifications and effects, and should not be implemented without serious deliberation. To carry out the responsibilities entrusted to the Board of General Purposes it is necessary to attract the most competent Masons and to involve all eligible voting members in their selections. The following chart illustrates a possible division of the jurisdiction.

A Possible Division of the Jurisdiction to Provide Area Representation to the Board of General Purposes

			Total — 647 Lodges

(A) The jurisdiction could be divided into fourteen (14) geographic regional areas, based on the present district structure.

(B) These fourteen areas could be divided into two groups of seven, so that all areas of the province are represented.

(C) One member of the Board of General Purposes could be elected from each of the seven areas on the even years, and similarly on the odd years, so that each member would serve for a two-year term.

(D) It is suggested that a Committee be established in each area, consisting of one representative from each district within the area to receive nominations and supervise the election of one aspirant for office per district. Areas might wish to make some alternate arrangements more suitable to particular area situations.

(E) At the District Meeting at Grand Lodge, the area representative would be elected by the same ballot method as presently prevails at Grand Lodge.

(F) It is proposed by the Long Range Planning Committee that the election to the Board of General Purposes be by area representation for a five-year trial period, and that no proposed changes in the Constitution be considered before the end of this trial period.

(G) It is further proposed by the Long Range Planning Committee that the Grand Master continue the present practice of appointments to the Board throughout the proposed trial period of area elections to that Board.

In November 1982, the above proposal was presented to the Grand Master for his information as a possible format. Thereafter the following suggestion was received by the Long Range Planning Committee, namely:

Associate Board Membership

This option would give representation in addition to the District Deputy Grand Master to those districts without an honorary, elected or appointed member of the Board of General Purposes.

(1) The Grand Master would direct the D.D.G.M. of the district which did not have a Board representative - elected, appointed, or honorary - to convene a meeting of the Past Masters, Worshipful Masters, Wardens of his district before September 15 to elect a P.G.L. officer as an Associate Member of the Board of General Purposes if that district so desired.

(2) Only a Mason in good standing of a lodge in that district would be eligible.

(3) Such representative would be designated as an Associate, hold office for up to two years, or until such time as the district has a representative. He could be eligible for re-election.

(4) Such representative would attend any and all special meetings (other than the two meetings as specified in the Constitution).

(5) Such representative would not have voting powers but be entitled to enter into discussions. He would not have any change in rank.

(6) Mileage and any per diem would be borne by the district on precisely the same basis as Grand Lodge does for Board Members.

(7) Associate Members would function in the districts precisely as the members of the Board of General Purposes do at the present time.

(8) The above could be instituted for a trial period, and if approved, then changes in the Book of Constitution could be considered. The net result could be the discovery of talent, in addition to better communication between districts, the Board and Grand Lodge. More assistance and backing for D.D.G.M.s in those particular districts would permit more utilization of Past Grand Lodge Officers.

The Long Range Planning Committee urges that everyone with voting rights consider the foregoing proposals and to compare them with our present election practises. The Long Range Planning Committee would appreciate comments, responses, and recommendations, so that electoral representation best fits the needs of our late twentieth century Masonic Society and provides us with a meaningful structure to enter the twenty-first century.

In conclusion, we continue to solicit your input in all matters pertaining to the welfare of Freemasonry, as it pertains to each and every individual member of each lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. E. GROSHAW,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCE

This Report was presented by V.W. Bro. T. R. Davies, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by V.W. Bro. Davies, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The dictionary defines benevolence as kindness, humanity, fellowship, tenderness, charitable unselfishness and a disposition to do good. Benevolence is a fundamental precept of the work of our Masonic Craft and each of the individual Members of the Committee on Benevolence have worked diligently at furthering the work of the Committee across our Grand Jurisdiction. The Members of our Committee bring strong geographic representation from across the Province and I wish to express my great appreciation for the dependable support they have provided during this past year. Our Committee presently consists of our Past Grand Master, M.W. Bro. N. Richard Richards, and the following: R.W. Bro. John Millar, R.W. Bro. John Auckland, R.W. Bro. Robt. Colledge, R.W. Bro. William Frank, R.W. Bro. Lorne Pacey, R.W. Bro. W. E. Rawson, R.W. Bro. Robt. Runciman, R.W. Bro. Charles Sankey and R.W. Bro. James Guy, our Supervisor of Benevolence.

Several of these Committee Members have served for some years and we value the continuity which has been a definite asset in dealing with Benevolence applications. We have also welcomed one or two new members each year and the new ideas which have come from that source have been equally important in the assessment of applications and dispensing of benevolence.

Our regular Annual Meeting was held at the Grand Lodge Offices on June 10th and 11th, 1983. The purpose of this meeting is to receive the Annual Report of our Supervisor of Benevolence, R.W. Bro. James Guy, to review applications for benevolence and to establish grants in accordance with need. During the Masonic fiscal year we dispensed benevolence to 70 individual cases for an aggregate amount of $61,591. This is substantially below the recommendation we made during last year's communications, wherein we anticipated that up to $90,000 might be needed for Benevolence during the past fiscal year. The reason for this disparity is the fact that there were several fewer applications submitted, i.e. 70 applications approved this year as compared with more than 80 during the year prior. We have submitted our budget requirements for the year 1983/84 to the Audit and Finance Committee for $82,000, which after deducting revenue available from the Memorial Fund would leave a maximum draw on Grand Lodge General funds in the year ahead of say $15,000. If the flow of applications is no greater than was the case in 1982/83, it is very likely that this budget requirement will prove as an over-estimate.

My report up to this point has dealt with the subject of money. This should not be surprising when you have a banker as Committee Chairman. I am aware, however, that the word "Benevolence" means goodwill. I am aware too that there are many ways of expressing goodwill besides giving money. Let us neglect no opportunity to visit Brother Masons or their families especially when they are faced with the difficulties that accompany illness, advancing age or death. "It is when you give of yourself that you truly give."

During the course of our Annual Meeting at the Grand Lodge Offices we were again the guests of the Hamilton Past Masters' and Wardens' Association, who for many years have arranged refreshments for our coffee break on Friday evening. The Members of our Committee look forward to the fare provided and particularly for fraternizing with Members of the Association. Our warmest thanks are extended to them for their kindness.

During the year under review we have concentrated new efforts on communicating the work of our Committee throughout a reasonably broad group of Masonic Districts and were pleased at the excellent reception given to the meetings conducted by the Benevolence Committee in Hamilton, Toronto, Ottawa and London. Our programme at this series of meetings involved the exemplification of the case assessment done by our Committee and was designed to heighten the awareness of all Brethren attending of the variety of cases we deal with and the basic rules upon which benevolence can be made available. We were pleased at the evidence of interest shown by Brethren from across the jurisdiction at these meetings and recommend that similar meetings be developed in other Masonic Districts in future years.

Each year we receive applications which involve a temporary need pending disposal of property or other assets and your Committee has felt that there are circumstances where assistance could be provided in some form other than as an outright grant. We recommend that this subject be referred to the Long Range Planning Committee for consideration to review the suitability of developing alternative vehicles for certain cases in addition to the ongoing work and established procedures of the Committee.

The work of the several District Chairmen is a vital part of the process of Masonic Benevolence and we highly value the care and attention which the work of our Committee has been given at the District level throughout the Province. Several of our District Chairmen have had long experience in their role, and we continue to encourage the incoming D.D.G.M.s to re-appoint the incumbent District Chairman of Benevolence where an obviously good job is being done so that we can maintain a strong continuity, which is so beneficial in the work of our Committee.

I cannot emphasize too strongly the importance that great care be taken in the completion of the Benevolence applications. I urge all District Chairmen to be involved in the application as much as possible and to ensure that the submission comes to the Grand Lodge Committee with thorough detail, and whenever possible, accompanied by a letter outlining the overall situation. Each year we find ourselves dealing with applications which are woefully lacking in information and we feel a concern that with the lack of information we often perhaps do not deal with the request adequately. At the same time, I must commend those individual lodges and Chairmen who have taken such care in preparing applications in exact detail and with excellent background by way of submission letters to aid the decision by the Grand Lodge Committee.

One last word on this subject is to remind all of you that your Committee is influenced very significantly in its Benevolence dispositions by the level of support provided to the individual case by the applying lodge.

We have enjoyed a fine relationship with the Masonic Foundation and recommend that we further pursue the liaison with this arm of Masonry to work jointly on supporting the Masonic projects of mutual concern.

In closing, we wish to express our appreciation for the quality of interest and support which has been forthcoming from the several District Chairmen of Benevolence, each of the individual Members of our Committee and a word of special thanks to the Supervisor of Benevolence, R.W. Bro. James Guy. He has continued unfailingly in the task of overseeing our dispensation of Benevolence during the past year, even during some health adversity. We also express our thanks to the staff at the Grand Lodge Office, and very much indeed to the support and involvement of our Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Robert E. Davies. The overall support from all quarters has been an inspiration.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted

T. RICHARD DAVIES
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC EDUCATION

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. W. R. Pellow, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Pellow, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

In presenting this report of this Committee to the 128th Annual Communication of our Grand Lodge may I first express my sincere thanks to you Most Worshipful Sir for affording me the opportunity of serving Grand Lodge as Chairman of this very important Committee.

The Committee was composed of M.W. Bros. W. L. Wright, N. R. Richards; R.W. Bros. F. J. Bruce, E. C. Steen, D. C. Bradley; V.W. Bro. E. J. Brown, with the undersigned as Chairman.

Masonic Education in our jurisdiction has been elevated to a high plateau of research, study, enthusiasm, dedication and devotion to Craft Masonry. This Committee feels the pulse of progress and interest in Masonic Education and considers it a privilege to share some of the important highlights with you for the year 1982-1983.

This Committee met formally on four separate occasions; September 4, 1982, January 8, April 9 and April 29, 1983. In retrospect, it has been a revelation to participate in directing the Grand Lodge Masonic Education policies set forth by this Committee. Each resolution put forth for the betterment of Masonry has been deliberated, cogitated and formulated with total Committee commitment. A special vote of gratitude is extended to R.W. Bro. Edsel Steen for exceptional secretarial duties and to Bro. Harry A. Pellow for the use of his board rooms as a meeting place in Toronto, Ontario.

This Committee continues to service our vast jurisdiction by a system of regionalization and we are indebted to our seven Regional Directors, Bros. J. D. Jackson, G. Y. Masters, E. Gutpell, H. F. Whitmore, P. A. Curry, E. C. Steen and F. Howes. The Regional Directors have been diligently co-ordinating guest speakers programs to several lodges. They have capably assisted in co-relating personnel and organizational administration for several Workshops and have acted as our liaison with District Masonic Education Chairmen and this Committee of Grand Lodge.

The Powers and Duties of this Committee are briefly outlined in very generalized terms in our Constitution, Article 136, subsection J. Following within the parameters of these guidelines, we have maintained a five-point program. In the light of modernization this Committee has improved by strengthening the weaker fibers of our programs and creating new strains of interest for the education and enjoyment of our members.

We have:

1. The Grand Lodge Speakers' Program
2. The Newsletter
3. Deacon's Program
4. Masonic Workshops
5. New Correspondence Course

The Grand Lodge Speakers' Program

There were an excess of 100 speakers placed in lodges by our Regional Directors and the District Masonic Education Chairman. Some W.M.s put a good deal of effort into making their year as interesting as possible. For instance, Dentonia No. 651 reported speakers were present on four occasions. Other lodges have combined a guest speaker with a special evening i.e. Burns' Night, a Memorial Service and Veterans' Night.

One Brother speaks very highly of the program, quote, "the present Speakers' Program be continued, it serves a worthwhile need in that it brings better speakers to lodges, helps those lodges where speakers and/or research material are scarce and it provides continuity of contribution and participation for experienced and knowledgeable Grand Lodge members."

In general, the feedback from the lodges who employed Grand Lodge speakers ranged from good to excellent. The Speakers' Program and the awareness of its existence still requires advanced planning and promotion for success.

Many Districts report they already have their own programs in place, degree work is taking up so much time there is little time left for Masonic Education, others detrimentally try to squeeze the speakers in after degree work.

This Committee recommends the Grand Lodge Speakers' Program continue in 1983-1984.

Any lodge in this jurisdiction can use the Speakers' Program. Each District should co-ordinate the scheduling with the Regional Director. Just ask for more information.

The Newsletter

Dynamic excitement, interest and positive stimulation continue with each edition of this Masonic Education booklet.

Editor, R.W. Bro. D. C. Bradley, is constantly urging Masons to contribute short articles for publication. Our jurisdiction owes the Editor a hearty vote of thanks for his tireless efforts in collating, researching, editing and administrating this mini-publication to the plateau of success it has attained among our Grand Lodge publications today.

Comments: A worthwhile aid in short talks . . . very informative . . . would like to see it published monthly . . . consider it misnamed . . . need a district representative to set subscription goals . . . while it is improving I feel it dwells too much on the theology of Masonry and not enough on the interface of Masonry with the rest of the world . . . possibly some thumb sketches of presently active members of Grand Lodge would be interesting.

2,500 copies were printed of Vol. 2, Edition 4, April, 1983 — several excellent educational topics included:

Osiris
Comments on the Constitution
The Link Between Lodge and Member
Wolfgang Mozart
Lorne Lodge No. 375
Charity

Vol. 3, Edition 1 is available at this Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

The Newsletter needs your assistance in acquiring a new name. We solicit your suggestions; more important, we urgently require your subscription renewal.

Enclose a $5.00 cheque payable to the Chairman on Masonic Education. You will receive at least three editions annually. Include your name, Masonic Rank, address and postal code.

Back issues are now available and a limited supply of the five editions of Vol. 1 have been bound for collectors and students.

Deacon's Program

An instructional program for Deacons and Lodge Officers. The text "Towards The Square" by R.W. Bro. D. C. Bradley contains five themes, which are:

The W.M.
Meetings
Lodge Committees Lodge Officers
Grand Lodge

The sixth printing of this text was completed January, 1983.

This program was successfully conducted in Algoma East, Georgian (19 of 21 lodges), Hamilton C, Ontario, Toronto 7 and Windsor Districts.

In London, four districts combined for an all-Saturday session April 9, 1983, (London East, London West, Wilson and St. Thomas) under the capable Chairmanship of R.W. Bro. E. S. P. Carson. Attendance 200 and $1,200.00 of our Grand Lodge Publications were sold to participants. Title for the day, "Approaching The East."

The Committee fosters the belief that the strength, guidance and perpetuity of our Craft to a very great extent lies in the leadership abilities, capabilities and progressive attitudes of the Worshipful Master. This popular program assists in our endeavours to produce strong line officers in our Craft and mould motivated and qualified Worshipful Masters.

Masonic Workshops

Several well organized workshops were conducted in this jurisdiction involving hundreds of Masons who enjoy and employ the principles of Freemasonry.

Algoma combined with Western District. Guest speakers, R.W. Bros. J. P. Antoniak and E. J. Morgan excelled under the theme, "Reaching The Newly Made Mason" and covered selected topics such as Fireside Chats, the Sponsors and Communication.

Hamilton "C" captured the theme "Masonry and You." 93 in attendance.

April 16, 1983 under the supervision of General Chairman, W. Bro. Dr. Frank Wilson, the Belleville Masonic Workshop was a smashing success incorporating delegates from six Districts (Prince Edward, Frontenac, Victoria, Ontario, Peterborough and Toronto 1); 152 in attendance. A questionnaire was circulated and 105 were completed and returned to the Chairman. The responses were revealing. Recommendations included:

- a. Workshops should be conducted semiannually or annually.
- b. Books should be present for sale.

- c. Several interesting and important ideas emanated for other seminars and educational nights.
- d. Stress younger members to attend. Bus in older members.
- e. Have only two topics. Everyone could then attend all sessions. Impossible with four speakers, four topics.

(This portrays genuine interest and accolades are deserving to the speakers and organizers for a job well done.)

St. Lawrence District held a workshop titled, "Masonic Law." Attendance 80, excellent.

Toronto District 7, Saturday, April 30, 1983. Topic: "Masonry Today and Tomorrow" held under the competent direction of V.W. Bro. George Kerr. It was obvious that several organization meetings with keenly interested Masons were held to provide the top notch calibre of this workshop. Interspersed with tremendous speakers, light humour, superb educational topics and abundant fellowships, this workshop was fantastic. Informative questionnaires were provided. 66% were returned.

To assist you, we have organizational manuals, complete minutes of recent successful workshops and samples of workshop summaries are available from the undersigned. Again, just ask.

New Correspondence Course

When addressing this Communication of Grand Lodge on the subject of educational or correspondence courses in Masonic Studies we must acknowledge a host of interested Masons in this particular field. Since the inception of the Grand Lodge Standing Committee on Masonic Education, formulated by the late M.W. Bro. John S. Martin, G.M. in 1929 and piloted under the direction of M.W. Bro. W. J. Dunlop for several years, we have been steadily "tilling, sowing and cultivating" Masonic Education. Several P.G.M.s have chaired this Standing Committee and have provided the spade work in successive years leading to the introduction of this new correspondence course today.

V.W. Bro. Ernest J. Brown rose as the shining star to organize and administer "The Study Group" which was approved by this Committee. R.W. Bro. Wallace McLeod, then Chairman of Masonic Education, encouraged and assisted Bro. Brown to satisfy a need and desire for a formalized educational course of study. R.W. Bro. Arthur Youngs directed his power workers of scrutineers to maintain interest, mark assignments, encourage students and open new horizons in Masonic Education. To these several devotees to Craft Masonry this Committee offers our sincere commendations and gratitude and tenders a most humble Thank You on behalf of all Masons in this Grand Jurisdiction.

The Committee on Masonic Education has reviewed the purpose, offering and acceptance of the Study Group which has been available under the sponsorship of that Committee since 1977. The Committee notes that the Study Group generated interest and guidance for those seeking Masonic knowledge, attracted a significant number of participants from several districts and has made a worthwhile contribution to Masonic information programs. Since the Study Group ceased to function December 31, 1982, the 1983 Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Education holds a strong view based on the result of the trial period of The Study Group, that the function of the Study Group be continued through a correspondence course.

Your Chairman appointed M.W. Bro. N. R. Richards and R.W. Bro. D. C. Bradley as co-chairmen of Curriculum and R.W. Bros. Frank Bruce and Edsel Steen co-chairmen of Administration for the new correspondence course.

This Committee presented for consideration to the Board of General Purposes and to this Annual Communication of Grand Lodge the following:

1. That a new Masonic correspondence course be formulated. This course to be known as, "The College of Freemasonry."
2. Registration to commence September 1, 1983.
3. The Masonic Correspondence Course will commence January 1, 1984.
4. The Correspondence Course consists of four separate and distinct programs:
 - a. Masonry at Work
 - b. History and Origin of Freemasonry
 - c. Administration and Operation
 - d. Preparing for Leadership
5. One program is not a prerequisite to another. A student will be enrolled in only one program at a time. Each program in succession does support the other.
6. Eligible to any Master Masons in good standing in this jurisdiction or a Master Mason in good standing approved by the Grand Lodge Chairman on Masonic Education.
7. Recognition be given for successful completion of each program. After successful completion of the four programs participants will be recognized as Fellows of the College of Freemasonry.
8. The Course of Study for the four programs will be the responsibility of the Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Education and resource persons will be recommended and generated by that Committee.
9. The fee for the first program, "Masonry at Work," will be set for 1984 at $30.00. The fee for course programs will be reviewed annually and submitted to the Board of General Purposes for approval.
10. Each student will be expected to complete each program within a calendar year (12 months) from the day of commencement of his first assignment.
11. The programs will utilize 50% content from our Grand Lodge Publications.
12. Information related to the course will be available from the office of the Grand Secretary.

What is Happening?

The 43 Districts have all appointed District Chairmen on Masonic Education. Each have contributed greatly to providing a variety of interesting subjects to the Brethren at the District level. 38 D.D.G.M.s are to be congratulated for their clear and comprehensive reports to this Committee. It is unfortunate that there are five Districts this Committee can not report on because submissions were not received in time to meet publication deadlines.

The Chairman prepared an 18-page report and paper on Masonic Dress for discussion purposes because of interest exhibited in this area.

The Lodge Location Map was presented at the November Board of General Purposes as a pilot project. The financial outlay was recovered by the lodges in the London East Masonic District and by individual donations. The lodges of this district were presented 150 copies for their respective use.

To satisfy the remote lodges of our jurisdiction with Grand Lodge Speakers other than their own D.D.G.M.s, video-cassette tapes were made. The place of video cassettes will be pursued further.

September, 1982 — 2,500 copies of "A Functional Pronouncing Glossary of the Work" revised by R.W. Bro. Wallace McLeod, were published by this Committee. 100 were distributed to the Board of General Purposes members in November, 1982. 2,400 copies were given to Grand Lodge to be sold to the membership from the Grand Secretary's office. Each Lodge Chairman of Education should purchase a Glossary and utilize its contents to ensure the Work is being delivered in a proper manner.

Have you been satisfied with Masonic Education this year? Are the presentations and programs you have listened to and attended been action packed and interesting? If yes, Thank You. If not, then why not? Your comments would be most welcome!! Anytime.

R.W. Bro. Edsel Steen agreed to chair the Grand Lodge Education Workshop Seminar for 1983. Our various programs will be explained and discussed, questions and answers, suggestions and clarification will be provided for all in attendance.

Several very intelligent and thought-provoking Masons in our jurisdiction have addressed this Committee with queries and presented with several well written articles for approval or censorship. This duty is not covered by this Committee within the framework of the present Constitution.

It is a consideration of this Committee that a Grand Lodge Editorial Board be formed to review Masonic literature in our jurisdiction when the intent is to publish and distribute.

Communication to constituent lodges continues to be one of our serious problems in exercising our mandate. The Committee feels it would be appropriate to have the year ends of constituent lodges and Grand Lodge coincide.

What They Say?

It is evident that unless a speaker is exceptionally talented and informed, the greatest interest in Masonic Education at the lodge level is generated by audience participation sessions.

Several D.D.G.M.s offered constructive suggestions on Masonic Education such as, a travelling show with a cast of District Masons . . . District Education Bulletins . . . new candidate letters . . . and an outreach educational program for our neighbours.

What They Did !!!

A committee of five P.M.s from Toronto 2 travelled to different lodges by invitation, spoke on Boards of Trials and conducted question and answer sessions.

An open forum in Wilson District — host, Walsingham No. 174, Pt. Rowan; 65 in attendance.

Wyndham Lodge (Guelph) eight special education evenings (organized by the S.W. in 1981).

Waterloo District Chairman assisted each lodge chairman with his Masonic Education programs. Four P.M.s acted as a Steering Committee. All Chairmen met on two occasions and direction was given. Two topics were Memorial Services and Sponsorship; there were others.

Gothic No. 608 Lindsay — Allegory and Symbols.

King George V No. 498 presented a taped address on History of Masonry and a 16 m.m. film on The Brotherhood of Masonry.

A total of 32 Masonic Education Presentations were delivered in Victoria District, a superb record for 1983.

Niagara A and B held at least two combined education meetings.

Jerusalem No. 31, Bowmanville held a seminar on the second degree. W. Bro. William Baluk continues as the Supervisor of Education in Ontario District.

St. John's No. 63, Ottawa 1 District, held an evening devoted to members who have NOT attended lodge for some time, aimed as a memory refresher. Ottawa 1, also, organized three District Lodges of Instruction reportedly very crisp, fast paced and involved as many non-officers as possible. Ottawa 1 advised they conduct a two-pronged approach to Masonic Education and have for several years. Two District Committees are established:

1. Masonic Education
2. Masonic Instruction

The accent on the former is WHY and on the latter is HOW.

D.D.G.M., Norman Bell reports deserving accolades in Masonic Education must be directed to R.W. Bros. Roy Weatherdon, James Scarborough and Charles Harris. Perennial workers in Masonic Education in the Bruce District. Saugeen No. 197, Walkerton, has had three evenings of education.

Port Elgin No. 429 and Oakridge No. 708 (London devote three to five minutes each meeting to Masonic Education). This trend runs true in all lodges in the Georgian District and many others in our jurisdiction.

Hiram No. 490 (Markdale) held a Lodge of Instruction by the S.W.s of the Grey District arranged by District Chairman W. Bro. Dave Comber; attendance 80.

Windsor District have a built-in tremendous Speakers' Program; 18 out of 19 lodges participated. There were a total of 28 speakers requested. The excellence of one speaker demanded seven recalls. W. Bro. J. N. Hayes presented this Chairman with an exceptional and separate report as did Ottawa 2's W. Bro. Albrecht (22 pages of Questions and Answers.)

Rideau No. 595 and Ashlar No. 564 were district hosts to a session on Questions and Answers on topics such as Corn, Wine and Oil, Investigations and Ashlars. Bytown No. 721 was host for a lecture in the Master Masons Degree as found in the Grand Jurisdiction of Quebec.

Many border lodges cross the international line to receive guests and benefit from the universality of the Craft in friendship and education.

28 lodges in London East and London West schedule interlodge visitations and present Masonic Education.

Hamilton "B" promotes W. Bro. James Bramley as one of their most talented educators; a member of Hillcrest No. 594.

No less than 13 presentations on Masonic Education in Frontenac. Talks ranged from, On The Altar, The Great Landmarks, Why and How Grand Honours are Given, to a slide talk on Cutler's Castle (England) and how a set of working tools for the Ancient St. John's No. 3 (Kingston) was made from wood from its roof.

A "Think Tank" in Hamilton "A". One and a half hours devoted to the problems, challenges and fun of being a Lodge Officer. Another District Education evening was held October 28, 1982 at the Hamilton Central Masonic Temple. A degree was exemplified with mistakes. The audience were given pencil and paper to record the errors.

April 21, 1983, in Toronto 5 District, a 90-minute presentation; a three-phase program.

- a. Members were divided in two groups — 50 Questions and Answers on the Book of Constitution. Points were assessed.
- b. Presentation of a skit on proper solicitation.
- c. History of The Masonic Ritual.

Burns Lodge No. 153 (Wyoming, Sarnia District) was host for "Information and Invitation to the Ladies in the Lodge Room." Attendance 100.

Clinton No. 84 — A skit on a Board of Trial; well received.

Toronto 4 Highlight: Russian Initiation Ceremony in Full Dress; 367 in attendance — overtures from Hamilton and Kingston to perform in these cities.

April 14, 1983, Toronto 6 — "What is happening" — attendance 90, very enjoyable.

Hamilton "C" — The D.D.G.M. requested at every official visitation to all 14 lodges in his district a short address on the first Worshipful Master and the first candidate received in their respective lodges. Done to create research and interest in their own history. "Informative."

March 29, 1983 — Toronto 3 — an informal presentation (no Regalia) at York Temple on two themes:

1. Masonic Heritage
2. What is in it for you.

Summary

The recorded activities listed in this 1983 report indicate the progressive attitudes and positive productivity towards Masonic Education in this jurisdiction. We have achieved most of our goals.

Can we do more? We are dealing with people. There are three kinds of people:

- Those who make things happen
- Those who watch things happen
- Those who have no idea what happened

Sooner or later a man, if he is wise, discovers that life is a mixture of good days and bad, victory and defeat, give and take.

In closing, may I take this opportunity to thank that special class of Masons who still believe that hard work makes things happen.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the Committee on Masonic Education.

WILLIAM R. PELLOW,
Chairman.

REPORT OF AWARDS COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by M.W. Bro. J. A. Irvine, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by M.W. Bro. Irvine, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee on Awards begs to present a brief report on its activities for 1982-83.

During the past year we have received several petitions for the William Mercer Wilson Medal, and have granted one. Most of these petitions have been presented in excellent order by the respective lodges. However, many have not applied for and received the detailed instructions that are available from the office of the Grand Secretary, hence some errors have resulted. I would, on behalf of the Committee, recommend that all lodge Secretaries be advised that there is such a format available at the office of the Grand Secretary, which gives the proper procedure that must be followed. I further recommend they secure this assistance before petitioning. One of the requirements is that the petition must detail what exactly the lodge has done by way of recognizing the services of the nominee; this is absolutely essential. Many, over the years, have been refused this great honour, I fear, because the petitioner neglected to inform us, or in some cases the lodge did nothing by way of recognizing the contribution of the individual recommended.

It is with regret that we received a resignation from the Committee from M.W. Bro. E. G. Dixon some months ago. Our venerable Past Grand Master (Hon.) as I am sure you all know has been a faithful servant to our Grand Lodge and this Board of General Purposes for over sixty years, and now at the age of ninety-three, wishes to be relieved of this duty. His resignation was regretfully received and accepted and M.W. Bro. H. O. Polk, Grand Master, in spite of his heavy workload, has assumed his duties on this Committee for the balance of Bro. Dixon's term which expires as of this meeting.

All of which is sincerely and fraternally submitted.

B. B. FOSTER
E. G. DIXON
H. O. POLK (Acting)
J. A. IRVINE, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE GRAND LODGE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON LODGE FINANCES

This Report was presented by V.W. Bro. S. H. Cohen, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by V.W. Bro. Cohen, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

On behalf of the Grand Lodge Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances I am pleased to present the third and final report for approval and for distribution to the lodges.

The information herein contained represents the results of our study and analysis of the questionnaires circulated to lodges, and the culmination of three years of hard work and debate by Members of the Committee. We also responded to invitations to visit district meetings and individual lodge meetings to present talks on Lodge Finances, and participate in discussions on relevant matters affecting finance, such as Life Membership and Deficit Financing.

We are also pleased to acknowledge the support and encouragement of the Members of the Board of General Purposes of Grand Lodge and Lodge Secretaries and on behalf of the Committee, I thank all lodges for their cooperation.

In particular, I wish to express my personal thanks and appreciation to each Member of the Committee: M.W. Bros. J. N. Allan, W. K. Bailey; R.W. Bros. J. W. Millar, T. J. Arthur, E. Wilson, R. E. Lindsey, J. A. McLean, J. G. Pell; V.W. Bros. T. R. Davies, and R. J. Del Genio for their dedication to this important assignment. I would also like to acknowledge the assistance received from two other brethren and express my appreciation to R.W. Bro. Wallace McLeod and Bro. Eric Lakien for their contribution. I am indeed indebted to all these brethren for their fine and untiring efforts in making this report possible.

We hope this report will alert lodges to the important issues of proper Lodge Financial Management. The strength we have in our jurisdiction must be nurtured and maintained and preserved through sound, businesslike practices, fostering true Masonic fellowship.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the Committee.

SAMUEL H. COHEN,
Chairman.

I PREFACE

Masonry, a beautiful system of morality . . . We are all dedicated to this purpose, and to our benevolent goals as we have been from Time Immemorial. We must, however, keep in mind that our strength has come from our ability to adapt to the times. In today's society, and especially in today's economy, this strength of purpose must include financial stability, as well as moral stability. As in other organizations, we must be ever mindful that managing and maintaining a viable lodge, includes paying particular attention to the financial health of the lodge.

With this in mind, M.W. Bro. N. Richard Richards formed the "Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances" in 1980 and M.W. Bro. Howard O. Polk has supported the endeavours of the Committee. As we have reported at the past two Communications of Grand Lodge, our purpose was to examine all matters pertaining to Lodge Finances, and to assist lodges in the management of their financial affairs.

In assessing our purpose, it was essential for the Committee to come to grips with the broad issues of Lodge Finances and extract and focus on the relevant points which would achieve this objective.

The Committee therefore requested all lodges to complete a questionnaire on their financial operations. This questionnaire was tabulated and some of the relevant results appear in the report. An analysis of the information which was provided gave us the range of topics to consider in our study.

Within broad categories, our report attempts to address itself to the following issues — Lodge Budgeting, Money Management, Income and Expenditures, Life Membership and Managing Trust & Reserve Funds.

As the body of the report unfolds there will be many interwoven themes, because proper Lodge Financial Management involves a blend of all these issues, and the many interrelationships in running a lodge.

The fiscal year of the lodge begins by the Master-elect planning and setting out his ideas for the various meetings and events of his forthcoming Masonic year. At the same time the Lodge Committees plan their activities for the year and so too must the lodge plan its year from a dollar point of view. The Lodge Budget therefore represents a systematic attempt at gathering this financial information in order to project a "bottom line."

When the results are favourable, that is excess income over expenses, the lodge is in the enviable position of budgeting for a surplus. However, if the budget is unfavourable, when expenses exceed income, there are indications of potential problems. To remain viable, each lodge should operate on a balanced budget and any shortfall in income must be found or expenses reduced.

If this were the sum total to Lodge Financial Management, Lodge Financing would be straightforward. However, to compound the problem and add yet another level of complication, we must consider the effect that the Life Membership policy has on the lodge. All too often this policy has had serious implications on the financial stability of the lodge.

We hope that this report will be used extensively by lodges as a guide to help them attain this financial stability and will act as a source of information on an on-going basis in the management of their financial affairs.

II DATA ON QUESTIONNAIRE

In 1981 all lodges were asked to complete a questionnaire on their financial operations. Your Committee is happy to report that we received usable information from 576 of the possible 647 lodges. This is a very high response rate and we wish to thank all those who took the time to complete these questionnaires. The following four tables summarize these data for general information.

It is the intention and hope of your Committee that individual lodges will compare their financial position with these statistical averages and perhaps gain some insight into their own operations.

TABLE 1 shows typical financial statements for lodges of various sizes stratified by size of initiation fee.

TABLE 2 presents the data broken down by size of annual dues paid by resident members.

TABLE 3 presents the same data with the lodges broken down by number of members.

TABLE 4 presents the data for two groups, those who own their premises and those who rent.

The classes selected are arbitrary, however, your Committee feels they are representative of typical groupings of lodges. We hope they will be of use in analyzing the operations of the various lodges.

It is important to remember that the numbers presented are averages and are not meaningful as individual data points (e.g. In a sample of five lodges, if one lodge reported 2 affiliations at $20 each and four others reported 0 affiliations, the value shown for affiliations would be $$8 = $40 \div 5$).

While all the data presented appears to show that on average Masonry in the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario is in a healthy state, the reader must be cautioned not to misinterpret the data. These are only averages and further analysis of the data reveals that many lodges are experiencing serious financial problems and operating at sizable deficits.

The most serious causes of these deficits seem to be—

1. Dues are set too low to cover operating expenses;
2. Lodges have more Life and Honorary members than they can afford;
3. Lodges continue to subsidize refreshments when they can ill-afford to do so.

These matters and others are discussed elsewhere in this report. Suffice it to say, we hope the data will encourage members of more lodges to think in terms of financial planning, budgetary control and good business practices in running their lodge.

III LODGE BUDGETING

Section 299 of the Book of Constitution requires that an auditor's report be presented to the lodge membership prior to the installation of the new Worshipful Master. It is intended to give the new Worshipful Master and the brethren a clear picture of the financial condition of the lodge.

To a great many of us, the fact that a lodge has not been forced to borrow to meet its operating expenses, is an indication that all is well; actually, however, it may just be coasting along on a wave of "past successes."

Regardless of "past successes," it is important that a lodge "know where it is going" from a financial standpoint. Its expenditures, for the most part, are incurred merely by reason of its existence. It must have a plan as to how it will meet those expenses. This plan is the Lodge Budget.

The survey conducted by the Committee among the lodges of our jurisdiction indicated that while a number of our lodges did prepare an annual budget, a much greater number did not. It is hoped that both groups, those who do prepare and use their budget, and those who do not, will benefit from the guidelines which follow.

The budget is a financial forecast in two parts, expenses and revenue. Its preparation will be discussed under these headings in that order. An estimate is made of what it will cost to operate the lodge, and we estimate the sources of revenue necessary to meet those costs. The operations of the lodge should at least break even.

It is recommended that budgets should be prepared at least four months prior to the lodge installation. Appendix "A" indicates the various categories of expenses which should be provided for in the budget. Early preparation of the budget will provide the lodge with the necessary time to effect changes in bylaws for the dues and fees structure of the lodge for the next year.

It is impossible to be 100% accurate in the forecast of all expenses for the coming year. However, in order to be reasonably close, it would be wise to base the forecast not only on the experience of past years but also on the experience of the current year not completed. By examining costs, say for eight months, and adding an estimate for the balance for the year, a more current trend will be available.

We now have an estimate of operating costs for the coming year. We must now examine the sources of revenue to fully meet these costs, which are Investment Income (but not including income belonging to the Life Membership Fund and/or Benevolent Fund), fund-raising activities, building rental, donations and annual dues.

Based on the response of our questionnaire, out of 647 lodges reporting to Grand Lodge in 1981, 167 initiated zero or one candidate in that year. Every one of these lodges must rely on income other than initiation fees in order to break even. Lodges preparing budgets for the first time may wish to adopt a conservative approach by anticipating no initiates for the forthcoming year.

An examination of the nature of lodge investments will enable the lodge to forecast revenue from this source in a given year. It is usual to set targets for fund-raising projects and Building rentals can be ascertained from current rental agreements. Income from donations will, generally speaking, be nominal. The balance of net costs, i.e., estimated expenditures minus the estimated income described above, will be met by annual dues.

Our survey pointed to a great variety of dues structures, based on residency or age, with dues remitted for various reasons. It may not be politic to make changes in these classifications, but it is worthwhile to point out that practically all the normal operating costs should be shared by all members, regardless of residence or age.

Budget preparation serves a more useful purpose other than that of determining annual dues. It also provides a basis of control of spending. It is realized, of course, that a budget is based on estimates. The control, therefore, is a comparison of actual experience with the estimate, with an explanation for the differences.

The main point therefore is to prepare a budget and then to follow it up. Some lodges which now prepare budgets follow up once a year and others more frequently. The frequency is left to individual lodges, but once a year is mandatory. Proper preparation of a budget is an essential tool in managing the financial affairs of a lodge.

IV MONEY MANAGEMENT

Money Management

Proper money management plays an important part in the well running of a lodge. It is directly related to good budget planning. If members cannot be found within the lodge who are familiar with money management, then a small committee can be formed to deal with it. They should meet with the local bank or trust company manager or, if available, an investment counselor to review and advise on the management of lodge funds and investments, keeping in mind the various investment suggestions detailed in this report.

Earning Interest

The goal is to maximize interest earned on all lodge funds. It is suggested that the lodge operate two bank accounts — a high interest savings account, and a chequing account. All money coming in should be deposited to the savings account, with transfers to the chequing account as required. When funds are available, investments should be made in Deposit Notes or Guaranteed Investment Certificates.

Types of Investing and Points of Caution

Term Deposit Notes generally run from 30 days to one year duration. Some banks have a $5,000.00 minimum for Term Deposits, others have $1,000.00. This type of investment is called "Short Term" and can fill an important need in the investment plan.

Guaranteed Investment Certificates, G.I.C.s as they are familiarly called, run from one to five years, with a fixed rate of interest for the term of the contract. You should carefully study the anticipated expenditures month by month for the next year, matched with known income also on a month by month basis, so that maturity dates could be chosen to cover the more critical periods. For the most part, G.I.C.s cannot be cashed until maturity and if they are the penalty is a heavy discount on earned interest. Interest can be paid annually, semiannually, and, in some cases, compounded to maturity.

As a safeguard to your investment and deposits, be certain that the institution with whom you are banking or placing investments is a member of the Canadian Deposit Insurance Corporation. This will afford you protection up to $60,000.00 in case of default.

Good forward planning and budgeting can play an important part in keeping a lodge healthy and strong.

V ANNUAL DUES

Annual dues form the principal source of revenue in most lodges. Although expenditures will normally be incurred on a monthly basis, the members are liable for annual payment of dues at the commencement of each year. The lodge should endeavour to get commitments from its members to pay their annual dues at the beginning of each year.

Dues received at the beginning of the year ensure that the bills can be paid on time or, perhaps, even in advance in order to take advantage of discounts. There will not be any bank overdraft; budgets can be adhered to and followed. Most important the lodge could conceivably be in a position to earn some additional income on invested funds.

Lodges should remind their members that their dues are payable at the beginning of the year. Each year more and more lodges are adopting the system of invoicing members at the commencement of the year and at appropriate intervals thereafter. As a further means of encouraging payment of dues by delinquent members, some lodges send a separate note apart from the summons and worded somewhat as follows—

The lodge records indicate that your 19 annual dues in the amount of $ are still outstanding. Please attend to this as soon as possible. Our bylaws are quite clear regarding the payment of dues.

If for any reason, financial or otherwise, you are unable to attend to the payment of your dues, please contact the lodge secretary.

Fraternally yours,

The Worshipful Master, Secretary and Treasurer should keep each other informed in the matter of payments of annual dues by the members. Necessary action ought to be taken by lodge officers or other appropriate personnel, to make follow-up contacts with members who are delinquent. Personal visits, telephone calls, can be very helpful in ascertaining whether there are extenuating circumstances of distress or illness. In many instances delinquencies in payment of annual dues arise from a lack of taking a personal interest in the member on the part of the lodge, except for the payment of dues.

Members will invariably take a greater interest in lodge affairs and will realize their financial obligations if each and every member is in receipt of the latest financial statement or a copy of the lodge budget which shows how their dues have been or will be spent in meeting expenses. If they see the complete picture, they will more readily appreciate the need for prompt payment. This small duty performed by each member can help contribute to a financially sound lodge.

VI LIFE MEMBERSHIP

Introduction

Life Memberships have many advantages to lodges, such as the elimination of arrears of dues and suspensions and demits. However, Life Memberships can also cause many problems for a lodge if there is not adequate financing and proper accounting of the Life Membership Fund. In today's mobile society, if a brother has taken a Life Membership in a lodge and moves to a distant town, should he wish to join a local lodge, he would be required to take out a second membership in that lodge, either dues paying or another Life Membership.

This section of the report deals with the proper management of such funds and with the issues Life Membership raises. There are three distinct approaches to Life Membership.

1. Life Membership which may be purchased at some point in time after having joined a lodge and paid an initiation fee.
2. Life Membership received automatically at a given period, i.e. age 65, after 25 years' membership, 30 years' continuous membership, after having served as Worshipful Master of the lodge, etc.
3. Admission to the lodge ONLY by commuted dues.

Whichever plan is followed, the basic principles of managing the fund are the same. Under the third approach in addition to the commuted dues (which must be invested in the Life Membership Fund) the following expenses must be included—

- a) Apron
- b) Volume of Sacred Law (if presented)

- c) Other presentation
- d) Grand Lodge Initiation fee
- e) Grand Lodge Commutation fee

How a Life Membership Fund Works

All amounts received for commutation of dues should be segregated from all other lodge funds in a Life Membership Fund. This fund should be kept fully invested and all interest income becomes part of the fund. The fund will have three sources of income and one type of expenditure, as outlined below. Specific rules must be applied to each if the fund is to function properly.

1. Income from the amount of the commutation fee for the new life member, whether this is determined at initiation or some later date.
2. Income from the amount required to meet the future expenses of the member's free membership.
3. Interest income from fund investments.

The only expenditure is the annual transfer from the fund to meet the cost to the lodge for the Life Members. This amount must not exceed the annual interest income of the fund.

Problems

Some of the practices followed in Life Membership Funds are unsound, and give rise to problems. These problems have been observed in varying degrees among lodges.

- a) No fund whatsoever is kept to cover the expenses of Life Members.
- b) The assets of the fund are invested at a low rate of return.
- c) Insufficient charges are made for new Life Members.
- d) The fund has not been valued periodically to see if it is sufficient.
- e) Investments have been made in lodge buildings and no return has been made to the fund.
- f) Honorary or Life Memberships are granted free, and no provision is made for the expenses of these members.
- g) The Life Membership Fund is not segregated from the regular lodge funds.

Why a Fund is Needed

A fund should be sufficient to provide the ANNUAL EXPENSES of a life member each year as long as that member is alive. Paying annual expenses from any other source is not a good practice. The practice of subsidizing the life members by increasing the annual dues for the other members is not fair. This causes problems if a large percentage of members obtain Life Memberships. A proper fund will pay the expenses of life members without subsidization.

High interest rates on a fund may mask the real need. The interest on a fund may currently pay the annual expenses, but with high interest rates the annual expenses will also increase dramatically.

Fund Amount Requirement

It is recommended that an actuarially sound table, based upon a reasonable "real rate of return," be used to determine the amounts to be charged, and held in a fund for all life members.

A true "actuarially determined" table would give a different rate for each age. For simplicity, a rate has been determined for each ten-year age grouping. Such a table takes into account how long the members of each group are anticipated to live on the average. Averages will not apply to only 1 or 2 members. However, for a group of 200 (or more), if the proper funds are set up and the rules followed of only withdrawing the proper expenses, the fund will be expected to run out on the last death.

"Real rate of return" is defined as the excess interest earnings over the rate of inflation. The high interest rates experienced over the past few years in theory compensate for inflation. If interest rates are 17% and inflation is 12% the real rate of return is 5%. Similarly, if the interest rate is 12% and inflation is 7% the same real rate of return of 5% is obtained. When higher interest rates are obtained the excess of the interest earnings over the actual expenses of life members must be retained in the fund to cover future inflated expenses.

The following Table shows the amounts to be charged for the "Annual Expense" component of a Life Membership, based upon a real rate of return of 5%. Initiation, affiliation fees and commuted Grand Lodge dues are in all instances to be considered as additional payments.

To determine the amounts to be transferred to the fund in the case of your own lodge, multiply the annual cost to the lodge per member by the amount in column 'A'.

Ages	Column 'A'
	Amounts to be set aside for each $1 of Annual Expense per Member	Amounts to be Transferred To Life Membership Fund If Annual Expense
		$ 25.00 $ 35.00
	Purchased at / or Following	Initiation
21-29	$19.25	$480.00
30-39	18.00	450.00
40-49	16.50	413.00
50-59	14.25	356.00
60-69	11.50	288.00
70-79	8.25	206.00

Amounts to be transferred to Life Membership Fund at Initiation

If Free Life Membership is granted at Age 65
21-29	$ 1.42	$ 35.50
30-39	2.26	56.50
40-49	3.60	90.00
50-59	5.92	148.00
If Free Life Membership is granted after 30 years
21-29	$ 3.12	$ 78.00
30-39	2.26	56.50
40-49	1.20	30.00
50-59	.32	8.00

Free Life Membership according to Lodge bylaws

It is recommended that amounts specified in the proper table be transferred to the Life Membership Fund at initiation to provide for the Members' expenses after they attain free Life Membership according to the bylaws. The amount should remain in the fund without any withdrawal until the free Life Membership becomes effective. At that time the annual expenses can be withdrawn.

Honorary Membership

If a lodge confers honorary membership without payment of annual dues it should transfer to the Life Membership Fund an amount based on attained age and the charge required for average annual expenses at the time the honorary membership is granted.

Details of recommendation for commutation of dues

- a) Apart from the charge to cover initiation expense, the proper amount to be charged for Life Membership at initiation or at a later date should be based upon —
 - i) attained age;
 - ii) factor from column 'A';
 - iii) annual expense per member.
- b) Transfer a proportion of the funds at initiation if Life Membership is to be granted free upon certain age and membership requirements.
- c) The value of the fund should be assessed regularly against the expenses again using Column 'A'. This should be done every three years.
- d) Invest the fund at the best rates available, keeping in mind the "real rate of return," and returning all interest income to the fund.
- e) Withdraw from the fund only the amount equal to the annual lodge expenses for life members.
- f) Build a fund to the required level if it is not sufficient to meet expense requirements.

Management of Life Membership Fund

Equally important to establishing proper Life Membership schedules and funds is the management of the fund. To ensure proper management and to protect the fund from misuse, the committee recommends the following —

Sample Bylaw

- 1—A special account providing high interest and with minimum cheque-writing privileges shall be provided for the express purpose of receiving Life Membership fees and investment interest.
- 2—The life members' expenses shall be transferred from this fund to the operating account as required. Authorization for the transfer shall be made by the regular signing officers of the lodge.
- 3—The fund shall be reviewed annually for investment purposes by the Finance Committee and for assessment of its adequacy. The Committee shall have power to authorize the purchase of investments at any time on behalf of the lodge, and shall have their action ratified at the next regular meeting of the lodge.

4—If at any time the annual dues or annual operating expenses are changed, the Life Membership fee charged to subsequently joining members shall be altered accordingly.

5—No fee, in whole or in part, shall be returned to a brother or to his estate for reason of suspension, expulsion or death.

Demission of Life Membership

As has been mentioned in the introduction, there is need for consideration of portability of Life Membership. As a lodge ought to feel obligated to deal fairly and equitably with all age groups in setting charges for commuted life dues, so also should there be some provision for withdrawals in cases of relocation beyond the jurisdiction of the lodge of a life member. In our mobile society there is the real possibility that the member, through no fault of his own may be forced to relocate.

It would seem only fair that the member requesting a transfer should have to pay some premium for the privilege - say 10% of the transfer amount. For example using recommended table - the member joins the lodge in age bracket 21-29 and pays $480.00 for his Life Membership. At age 35 he is forced to relocate. He would then be entitled to a credit of $405.00 ($450.00, the amount he would now have to pay, less 10%). In the interval the lodge has enjoyed full use of his money, and it now receives a modest premium to compensate for the inconvenience.

This is only a guideline and formal policy on this matter would have to be set by each individual lodge.

VII RESIDENT & NON-RESIDENT MEMBERS

It is the practice of the majority of lodges in our jurisdiction to allow those members living a prescribed distance (which must be stated in lodge bylaws) from the lodge location to pay reduced annual dues, most commonly, half the usual rate. Such members are termed non-resident.

There are two important points to consider in this matter—

- a) the distance from the lodge in order to qualify for reduced dues;
- b) the number of the non-resident members when calculating the annual dues for budget purposes.

The committee study revealed a wide variation for qualifications of non-resident status. With Grand Lodge taking a more liberal approach towards concurrent jurisdiction, and with today's society being much more mobile than in the past, there is urgent need for many lodges to take a serious look at this policy. Surely 125 or 160 kilometers is a more realistic distance than 20 or 30 miles (35 or 55 kilometers) which is stated in many lodge bylaws.

The policy of offering reduction in dues for non-resident members should be re-examined by each lodge, since the only difference in the annual cost per member in most lodges is the cost of catering (refreshments).

VIII FESTIVE BOARD & SOCIAL EVENTS

Masons are reminded in the General Charge of the Installation Ceremony that their lodge meetings are intended to promote social intercourse as well as moral instruction. Thus the banquet or festive board has become a natural complement to the lodge ceremonies. Moreover, Masons are encouraged to enlarge their circles of fellowship through visitations. If Masonry is to be meaningful it should include opportunities for, and the stimulation of, companionship and friendship.

Festive boards vary from lodge to lodge and from meeting to meeting, from relatively inexpensive buffets or light meals following a meeting to full course dinners prior to a meeting. Our lodges are not likely in the near future to adopt the practice of lodges in England which have become accustomed to rather elaborate festive boards for which reservations are required and charges are made for each member and visitor in attendance. In the meantime, we continue to finance our festive boards for our members and visitors at the expense of those who for one reason or another do not attend lodge.

An increasing number of lodges are making realistic charges for special events, such as anniversaries, ladies' nights, etc. to defray expenses. It behooves each lodge from time to time to examine carefully the methods of financing social events and festive boards. Social clubs may be an answer if they are managed to properly complement the social life of the members of the lodge.

IX PAST MASTER JEWEL

Although Past Master Jewels of gold plate on copper or silver are available from regalia supply firms, at modest costs, many lodges have elected to adopt individually designed gold filled jewels, usually including the lodge crest. The cost for these jewels, when they were originally designed, and up to a few years ago, was within reason. Now with the increased cost of gold and manufacturing, they have risen to almost prohibitive amounts. Some lodges are endeavouring to redeem these jewels for re-use, by taking steps to obtain an agreement with the Past Master that the jewel is merely on loan to him and is to be returned to the lodge on his decease. The lodge might also consider other less expensive forms of plating, or design changes to reduce cost.

X INSURANCE

The Committee study brought out a wide variety of approaches to insurance coverage. There are two areas involved for consideration—

- a) Lodge building and contents (other than lodge regalia);
- b) Lodge regalia.

It would appear from our survey that many lodge buildings are under-insured. It is important that a proper valuation of a lodge building and contents be established, so that adequate insurance coverage can be determined. Appraisal of the lodge building should be considered every three years, and certainly every five years.

Lodge Regalia

As for Lodge Regalia it is not what the regalia originally cost, it is the replacement value that the lodge is faced with in the case of a serious fire.

The Committee has determined that it would cost from $5,000.00 to as high as $7,000.00 to replace lodge regalia.

Is your insurance coverage adequate?

XI TRUST AND RESERVE FUNDS

Apart from the Life Membership Fund, some lodges maintain special trust or reserve accounts, e.g., Benevolent Fund, Contingent Fund, etc. It is important to treat such funds with the same regard and discipline as your Life Membership Fund. All money should be carefully invested. Depending on the purpose of the fund, the revenue should be used strictly in accordance with the Lodge Bylaw covering the fund. These moneys are set aside for specific purposes, and must be protected in strict accordance with the bylaws of the lodge.

This concludes our Report and we hope it will receive wide-spread approval from the lodges.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the Committee.

SAMUEL H. COHEN,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

This Report was presented by M.W. Bro. N. R. Richards, seconded by M.W. Bro. G. E. Turner; it was received and adopted.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Brethren:

It is my good fortune to report for the Committee appointed to review the Grand Master's address. The Grand Master states that we are assembled here "to witness an accounting of my year's activities." The address is the vehicle through which we are reassured of his commitment and his deep sincerity of purpose. We are impressed with his conviction that each successive assembly of Grand Lodge "is a spirited event, a sharing of Brotherhood, symbolizing an end as well as a beginning, signifying renewal as well as change."

The Grand Master's address bristles with appreciation for having had the opportunity to serve the office of Grand Master. In a characteristic attribute which we admire in M.W. Bro. Polk he expresses a deep sense of gratitude to those with whom he associated and gratefulness for the courtesies, favors and understanding extended to him and his wife Doris. A compelling reaction of the Committee appointed to review the address, and I feel certain for the brethren of the Grand Jurisdiction, is one of grateful appreciation and admiration to the Grand Master and his lady. It is not surprising that we are so impressed so let me refer to some specific items in his address which serve to illustrate his attributes of leadership, sincerity and commitment.

We commend and join with the Grand Master in his welcome to our distinguished guests. We note in Appendix 1 that he has visited with several of you in your jurisdictions. We are happy that modern modes of travel make it possible for such exchanges because it strengthens the bonds of understanding about Masonry which flow across provincial and international boundaries. We thank the Grand Master for drawing to our attention the 250th anniversary of Masonry in Massachusetts and an International Day in the Grand Lodge of Ohio. We join with him in a sense of satisfaction and pride for the participation of a degree team of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at the International Day function. We note and congratulate the Grand Master for the well deserved honours which he received and which are documented in Appendix 2.

At each annual communication we are saddened by voices that have been silenced and chairs that have become vacant during the past year. We join with the Grand Master in expressing sympathy to loved ones and note his special reference to R.W. Bro. Stuart MacKenzie, deceased Honorary Member of the Board of General Purposes, and R.W. Bro. Thomas Greenaway who served that Board with distinction for several years.

The Committee notes acknowledgement of a bequest from Bro. Cecil Philps and recognizes that it will be used to strengthen the work of the Benevolent Committee which so well illustrates Masonry at work. It is appropriate to recognize the continuing effective input to Masonry of the Constitution Committee under the chairmanship of M.W. Bro. W. K. Bailey.

We join with the Grand Master in his words of appreciation to R.W. Bro. James Talman, R.W. Bro. Melville Damp and R.W. Bro. Lorne Pacey for the magnificent contribution they made to Masonry and wish them well as they retire from their respective responsibility. We endorse the recommendations for appointments that the Grand Master has presented. In particular we join with the Grand Master in extending congratulations to Bro. John Gottfred Gustafson for being chosen to receive the William Mercer Wilson Medal, a prestigious award of our Grand Lodge.

The Committee notes the Grand Master's reference to recognition made to a number of brethren by Country Canada, academic institutions, professional organizations or the Order of St. John. Those honoured appreciate the congratulations of the Grand Master and thank him for making reference to their particular award and hasten to express the view that an association with and participation in Masonry had a part in the process of selection by which they were chosen for recognition.

The Grand Master has our full support as he hails and salutes the District Deputy Grand Masters for their devotion to duty and dedication of purpose. The District Receptions and Anniversary celebrations are recorded in Appendix 3. The Committee notes that 22 such functions were held during the period March 9 - July 2, 1983. Congratulations to the Grand Master for his stamina and courage in meeting such heavy demands on his time. The special events he attended are listed in Appendix 4 and further illustrate the great demands upon his time and the satisfaction and pleasure of having the Grand Master present at historical occasions, divine services and other important events.

The Committee looks forward to the reciprocal benefit of attendance of the Grand Master, the Grand Secretary and the Deputy Grand Master at the All Canada Conference of Grand and District Grand Lodges held in Vancouver and the Conference of Grand Masters of North America and Grand Secretaries held in Dallas, Texas in February of 1983.

The Committee is pleased to note the renewal of the use of the Cornerstone Laying Ceremony and congratulates the brethren of Pembroke Lodge for arranging a ceremony to mark an historical occasion. Project HOME, a special project of Heritage Lodge, is another example of giving visibility to Masonry in the community and we share with the Grand Master the hope and expectation that the funding objective will be reached before the Annual Communication convenes.

Brethren are urged to read and reflect seriously about the Grand Master's comments about the safe-keeping of degree charts. We note his reaffirmation of the directive issued in April 1980 concerning the use of alcoholic beverages and urge concurrence of the caution he projects. We commend the Grand Master for his interpretation of the specificity of sections 18 and 384 of our Book of Constitution re the Royal Arch Mason's Jewel and the Jewel of the Past First Principal.

We concur with the indebtedness expressed to the brethren of the seven Toronto Districts for arrangements made for our comfort and pleasure. The Committee notes and agrees with the recommendation related to the Committee on Lodge Finances. We are well aware of his personal interest in this aspect of Masonry when he served as Chairman of the Long Range Planning Committee and join with him in extending thanks to V.W. Bro. Samuel Cohen and his Committee.

The Past Grand Masters thank M.W. Bro. Polk for his generous thanks to them and especially those who chair committees of Grand Lodge. The Past Grand Masters share with him regrets about the unavoidable absence of M.W. Bro. Dixon due to illness. We note the Grand Master's appreciation for Deputy Grand Master Groshaw in the discharge of his duties and the capable manner in which he represented him as Deputy. We endorse the comments in the address related to the efficiency of the Grand Secretary and those associated with him in a staff position.

We note the Grand Master's appreciation to those who assisted in the arrangements for the banquet on Wednesday evening and commend him for his choice of speaker. Masons join with all Canadians in a deep respect and admiration for our neighbours in the United States of America. We are fortunate to have the privilege of hearing Bro. The Honourable William H. Hudnut III of Indianapolis and look forward with much anticipation to receiving his address.

The Grand Master chose to close his address through the word "Horizons" in which he reaffirmed his conviction of the broad perception of Masonry and his observation of the unity and Brotherhood that has embraced the ends of the earth for almost three centuries of recorded history.

My brethren when the Grand Master thanks we the brethren for the great privilege of having been our Grand Master, the Committee on the Grand Master's address speaking for the brethren of this Grand Jurisdiction hasten to endorse his address and thank him for his courage and conviction, to assure him of our admiration for his deeply centered respect for the tenets and principles of Ancient

Free and Accepted Masonry. We rejoice that he was given the health and vigour to discharge his duties effectively and with dignity. We are deeply grateful to his wife Doris and extend to her our sincere thanks. To each of them our deep gratitude and best wishes and the sincere hope for pleasant and satisfying days ahead.

Respectfully submitted.

N. R. RICHARDS,
Chairman.

Some observations relative to the projects which have been supported by The Foundation are presented in order that you may enjoy an appreciation of our work. Your Board has been pleased to cooperate with the Grand Lodge Committee on Benevolence and Remembrance Lodge No. 586 in providing a chair glide for an elderly Mason and his wife. The 17 lodges of Prince Edward District are to be congratulated in their generous support of over $5,000. in cooperation with the Foundation in underwriting a Victorian Order of Nurses project for the Belleville-Trenton area.

We quote from the report of Wallace E. McLeod on the Bursary program, "This year we received applications from seven institutions that to the best of my knowledge had never made submissions before; . . . Another fact that should make us happy is the amount of money we continue to provide for Northern Ontario. You know how thin the population is there; but over one fifth of our funds ($7,165) went to students from Sudbury and North."

Your Directors continue to be satisfied with the progress that is being made in the research we are aiding to develop a prosthesis for the profoundly deaf. We are delighted to be of financial assistance to those parents who are so totally involved in Autistic Homes and Voice projects. At the present time we are standing by on assistance to the Lambton County Disaster Fund.

Grateful appreciation is expressed to the increasing numbers of lodges and brethren which are identifying with the work of The Foundation through In Memoriams to departed brethren.

Expressions of thanks are extended to the Directors who have monitored the programs which we have supported. Special appreciation is merited in the cases of Wallace E. McLeod who has administered the Bursary Program and to T. John Arthur who has given so many hours of time and labour in attending to the financial affairs and correspondence of The Foundation.

COMMITTEE ON LODGE REASSESSMENT

This Report was presented by M.W. Bro. J. N. Allan, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by M.W. Bro. Allan, it was received.

The Chairman, M.W. Bro. James N. Allan, while proffering a few oral comments, made several specific observations.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ANNUAL COMMUNICATION SEMINARS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. D. C. Bradley, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Bradley, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

A decision was made at the 1982 Annual Communication to form this Committee as a separate entity, where previously it had been a part of the Special Events Committee. Besides the Chairman, the only other member is R.W. Bro. John W. Auckland, and my thanks are extended to him for his generous support and assistance.

For the third year in succession a series of seminars will be staged on Tuesday afternoon as a preliminary to the Annual Communication. On this occasion the topics and chairmen are:

Office of the D.D.G.M.	—	R.W. Bro. Wayne E. Elgie
Office of the Worshipful Master	—	R.W. Bro. Earl I. Querengesser
Condition of Masonry	—	R.W. Bro. Robert S. Throop
Lodge Finance	—	V.W. Bro. Samuel H. Cohen
Masonic Education	—	R.W. Bro. Edsel C. Steen
Masonic Foundation of Ontario	—	M.W. Bro. N. Richard Richards
Grievances and Appeals	—	R.W. Bro. Norman E. Byrne

The thanks of the Committee are due to these Chairmen and those who assist them for the time and effort to this project.

These seven informational discussion seminars are each designed to offer information and, where necessary, guidance concerning the subject matter; and, by discussions and question periods, to obtain an insight into the thoughts, wishes and ideas of the members. For, after all, these seminars are arranged solely for the benefit of the members and, therefore, must reflect their needs. Therefore your comments on the questionnaire sheet available at each seminar will let your Committee know how you feel and what you want in the future.

Briefly looking ahead to the future, your committee is considering a seminar on public speaking as a highlight, with both informational and educational topics to complete the programme based upon the responses to the questionnaires.

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the Committee.

DAVID C. BRADLEY,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE GRAND CHAPLAIN

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. G. H. Fresque, Grand Chaplain, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Fresque, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I would begin this report by expressing my sincere thanks to our Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Howard O. Polk, for the great honour that he conferred on me in appointing me to this office of Grand Chaplain. I would also thank the District Deputy Grand Masters for all their support and encouragement during the year. Their willing response to any requests that I made of them was particularly appreciated. The dedicated work of the District Chaplains in their respective Districts and their interest in the Divine Services speaks well for the spiritual life of the Craft. I am glad to note whenever possible the District Chaplains accompanied the District Deputy Grand Masters on their official visits and on occasion were called on to speak on topics related to Masonry. On those occasions when I was not able to accept the invitations extended to me and where Past Grand Chaplains or District Chaplains substituted, I extend my sincere appreciation.

I felt that I was most fortunate to be able to take my part as Grand Chaplain in the Dedicating of a Temple and services of Dedication for new libraries.

I was most pleased to address a number of District Divine Services in many parts of our province and thus share in the religious enthusiasm of our fraternity. The large attendance and the hearty singing were very heart warming.

My attendance at several receptions for the Most Worshipful the Grand Master enabled me to learn, at first hand, the simple, sincere and kindly devotion which is the never-failing mark of his personality. These occasions illustrated, also, the strength and loyalty of the Grand Lodge Officers, past and present, who were always in attendance in such great numbers.

I am grateful to my predecessor in office, R.W. Bro. The Rev. George Morris, who shared his knowledge and experiences. I am indebted to V.W. Bro. The Rev. John E. Jordan, the Assistant Grand Chaplain, who participated in receptions and activities, especially in the northern part of our Jurisdiction.

From my experiences over the past year, I am more convinced than ever that Masonic life is strong in its faith and that Masons who are active in their Lodge are also zealous in fulfilling their religious obligations.

And now may the Great Architect of the Universe who brings peace and comfort to mankind pour His blessing upon you in rich abundance.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

GORDON H. FRESQUE,
Grand Chaplain.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON AUDIT AND FINANCE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. J. W. Millar, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Millar, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

This Committee now has reviewed and considered in detail the reports of the Grand Treasurer, the Auditor's Report attached thereto, and the report of the Grand Secretary as referred to it by this Annual Communication. These appear to fully and accurately record the essential details pertaining to:

- (a) the financial position of this Grand Lodge as of April 30, 1983 and the results of its fiscal operations on a cash basis for the twelve month period ended on that date.
- (b) details of all Receipts and Disbursements in respect to the General Fund, the Commutation Fund, the Memorial and Semi-Centennial Fund; together with particulars of all transactions and changes in Capital Accounts of Grand Lodge, which have occurred during the said period.
- (c) The Investment Accounts of the above mentioned Funds and the summary of all financial resources as of April 30, 1983.

The following observations respecting certain matters covered by these reports, and / or relative to its financial affairs, are presented for your consideration.

- (1) The Audited Statements of Grand Lodge accounts show that the net balance of all its resources now amount to $2,266,350. This net balance includes total investments at cost value (not market value) plus cash on hand and in the bank and represents an increase in assets of $144,488 over the same figures a year ago.
- (2) Total receipts under the General Fund for fees, dues, commutations, interest on investments, etc. amounted to $428,230 while disbursements etc. amounted to $391,965, leaving an excess of income over expenditures of $36,265.
- (3) Grants for benevolent purposes amounted to $61,591, a decrease of $19,037 from a year ago.

These grants were paid out of the combined incomes of the Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds, as supplemented by transfers from the General Fund, which last year amounted to $12,000. It is anticipated that the amount for the coming year will be greater. The Committee on Audit and Finance therefore recommends that in order to provide these funds, the Board of General Purposes authorize, in accordance with Section 126 of the Constitution, appropriations from the General Fund up to the amount of $15,000. Such funds to be transferred as and when required, to the combined Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds, in order to supplement the interest and income therefrom, thus making adequate provision for all benevolent grants which Grand Lodge may make during the period May 1, 1983 to April 30, 1984. It should be noted that the Committee on Benevolence has shown great care in administering its funds.

On the recommendation of our auditors our methods of accounting have been revised and our monthly audit has been discontinued. Re Dues and Fees — the annual dues were raised at the 1981 meeting of Grand Lodge from $2.00 to $2.50 per member effective January 1st, 1982. After careful consideration by the Grand Secretary, the Grand Treasurer and myself a notice of motion has been given that the annual fee be raised at the 1983 meeting of Grand Lodge from $2.50 per member to $3.00 per member and that the life membership fee be raised from $25.00 to $30.00 effective January 1st, 1984.

Your Committee recommends, in accordance with Section 126 of the Constitution, the approval of the payment of $2,000 made to The Masonic Foundation.

In its review of all matters covered in this report, your Committee has received the fullest cooperation and assistance from the Grand Secretary and his staff. The cooperation of the Grand Treasurer is also appreciated.

Your Committee recommends to this Grand Lodge the adoption, without amendment, of the reports of the above-mentioned officers and approval of the recommendations contained in the report of this Committee.

In accordance with Section 134(c) of the Constitution, your Committee submits, for consideration and approval, an estimate of Receipts and Expenditures as it relates to the General Fund for the year ending April 30, 1984. Committee Chairmen were asked to submit budgets if funds were required. These budgets were carefully considered by your Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

FOREWORD

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Report of the Committee on Fraternal Correspondence is presented as a Foreword to the reviews of the Annual Proceedings of the several Grand Lodges received during the past year. These reviews give us an analysis and summary of the activities of these Grand Lodges. Our sincere thanks and appreciation is expressed to R.W. Bro. Dr. Charles A. Sankey for his careful selection of items from these Annual Proceedings which are of interest to us in this jurisdiction. Each Grand Lodge seems to have a few problems to solve, just as we do. Your Committee urges you to read all the reviews for they give us a broad picture of Freemasonry in our time.

Most Grand Lodges are finding that many young people are leaving certain areas, both rural and urban, resulting in declining membership in these areas. Consolidation of two or more lodges appears to be the usual solution but the disappearance of local lodges brings with it deep regrets to Masons who have to travel greater distances to maintain their active participation in the Craft. Perhaps some of our lodges should be doing things to attract the attention of our communities to 'our good deeds' which benefit individuals beyond our lodge members, thus creating a greater interest in Masonic membership and saving a lodge from extinction.

History does not appeal to everyone, but wouldn't it be great to be able to say to each new initiate: "We have a history of our lodge which we expect you to read, so that you will know 'from whence you came'." There are splendid examples of Masonic history in the reviews of Virginia, Pennsylvania, Oregon, South Africa and British Columbia.

Continuing interest in educational assistance through bursaries, scholarships and loans to students is evident in many Grand Lodges. Students benefited by these become instant ambassadors of good will for Freemasonry in these areas.

M.W. Bro. Dwight L. Smith, P.G.M. and P.G.S. of the Grand Lodge of Indiana, spoke at the Grand Lodge of West Virginia in 1981. He was the speaker at the Grand Master's Banquet in Toronto in 1968. For those who heard him on that occasion, it will be a delight to read the excerpts which Dr. Sankey has selected from the address in West Virginia, just like meeting an old friend! For those who did not hear him in 1968, much pleasure is in store for you.

Accidents can happen and judicial awards are very high today for liability. The Grand Lodge of Connecticut raised its blanket coverage for liability to five million dollars. It is best to be prepared.

Several Grand Lodges are permitting their lodges to erect signs at town and city entrances and also to place advertisements in local papers which state dates and places for Masonic meetings. Read the reviews of Oregon, Arizona and New Zealand.

Different geographical areas present different opportunities for distinctive community projects. The International Peace Gardens is one of these. It is sponsored jointly by the Grand Lodges of North Dakota and Manitoba. We should all be proud of our brethren of these two Grand Jurisdictions and extend our congratulations to them on a successful venture.

Finally, your chairman has selected only a few items from the reviews, in the hope that you may be induced to read further. Your Committee assures you that it is worth while. R.W. Bro. Dr. Sankey has, as usual, put together an extremely fine number of reviews. Take a bit of time and read the complete group. It will be a satisfying exercise.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

BRUCE B. FOSTER,
Chairman.

Fraternal Correspondence and Reviews

Reviews written by R.W. BRO. CHARLES A. SANKEY

Two of the smallest Grand Lodges included in these reviews had Grand Masters of exceptional ability and devotion. Each, at the conclusion of his Address to his Grand Lodge, looked at the potential for survival of Freemasonry, but under diametrically different local conditions of viability of the Craft.

In Utah, M.W. Bro. L. S. Axland had been the focus of a genuine revitalization and had generated willing, active and generous support. He concluded:

“Each of you here today has the opportunity to be the single most effective voice for Utah Masonry in our history. All you need do is remember that you are the personification of the Masonic ideal. What you do here, what you see here, what you say here cannot stay here when you leave here. You must share your Masonic knowledge and experience with both your Brethren and those men whom you would desire to see as Brethren. We cannot allow our Masonic Light to remain under a bushel and survive as a viable organization.

Thank you for your support of my programs, and your efforts to renew the importance of Masonry in your daily lives. You have made this year the most memorable in generations. May God be with you always.”

M.W. Bro. Johannes Driessen spoke to his brethren of the York Grand Lodge of Mexico on March 13, 1982. His Grand Lodge is in a critical, indeed desperate, condition. He has never hesitated to face the facts. At the end of his Address he set out the personal challenge, the only hope for a viable future. Many years ago your reviewer was told that “when it is dark enough you can see the stars.” M.W. Bro. Driessen has seen them. Even if his efforts fail (and they may fail in his locale), his words reveal the stars to those of us who have ears to hear and hearts to respond:

“. . . Our ritual says that we take good men and make them better — did we forget the word ‘MAKE’? . . . Living Masonry must be an aggressive vital force that permeates the life of those who choose to belong to it.

Masonry is the strong hope of this bewildered world. We have seen what it is capable of in history; independence of countries, drawing up of constitutions, implantation of law and order, the gradual realization upon this earth of the brotherhood of man under the fatherhood of God.

I hope and pray that amongst us the real Masons will unite to carry on with the good and great work, to let the Masonic light shine in this world, so as to attract others who want to be united with us to form that mighty force that is implied not by the number of its members, but by the high ideals and elevated tenets of the institution. May I repeat what is written in a prominent place in the House of the Temple in Washington:

'What we do for ourselves only will die with us —
What we do for others will live after us.'

May the Great Architect of the Universe resolve in us today to be Masons at heart, to practice Masonry as the very essence of life, all the days of our short travel towards the Eternal East.

Then, by our activity and example, Masonry will blossom again and exert the benevolence of its excellent tenets in our lives, our families, our community. Then we will leave something behind that will live after us.

Brethren, now is the time . . . This is the place."

(To which your reviewer can only add "So mote it be.")

The Grand Master and Grand Secretary attended all 20 District Meetings and visited the far northern lodges. There were only 4 resident members left at Fort Smith and their Polaris Lodge had to surrender its charter.

For the first time in many years revenue exceeded expenditures without any special assessment. A computer is going into operation in the Grand Lodge office for all the statistical records, etc. The Grand Secretary retires in 1984 and Grand Lodge is advertising for a successor to join the staff in 1983.

The "Condition of Masonry" was summarized from the 20 reports from the D.D.G.M.s (summary of each in Proceedings) by the Deputy Grand Master. He concludes that Research and Education "with every Lodge and District undertaking a vigorous, down-to-earth program, particularly involving younger members of the Craft" is of "paramount" importance to keeping Masonry sound. Because of younger people moving from rural areas he recognizes "the stark truth that some rural lodges are a generation, or less, away from extinction."

The Jurisprudence Committee reminded Grand Lodge that it was imperative that all prospective candidates sign a copy of the introductory letter approved by Grand Lodge, acknowledging that their character will be investigated and approving this, before they are given a petition form. The Constitution was amended to add I.P.M.s to membership in Masters', Wardens' and Deacons' Associations (no P.M.s had such membership before, although they could attend). A motion to relieve lodges from the per capita of life members was rejected. A committee will make recommendations as to the regalia for a lodge which will celebrate its centenary in 1984.

The Grand Lodge of Alaska was recognized.

Bursaries of $800 were awarded to 20 freshmen (110 applicants) and 11 scholarships for the same amount to undergraduates. There were some minor problems with duplication of Heritage Fund awards to recipients but these are being cleared.

Ten issues of the Grand Lodge Bulletin were published. It had to be emphasized that this is not an "official" document and opinions expressed are not necessarily those of Grand Lodge.

The Chairman on Fraternal Relations and Correspondence pays your reviewer the compliment of using material from our reviews quite extensively. He is, of course, most welcome to do so.

On a personal and happy note, our Grand Representative near the Grand Lodge of British Columbia, M.W. Bro. Claude Green, attended Grand Lodge and had the pleasure of seeing his son, now R.W. Bro. C. R. A. Green, elected and installed as Junior Grand Warden.

Gain 108

There were seven Special Communications; two to "celebrate" lodge centennials, four for cornerstones (3 Masonic and for a public library), and one Temple dedication.

A Grand Lodge Centennial is unique. This Grand Lodge is prospering but the gain in membership is due, not to internal growth but to "foreign affiliations." These totalled 370, almost equal to the number of raisings. The Grand Master reported on the condition of the Craft:

" . . . We have gained 1 Lodge during the year, and while several areas are cause for some concern, we have been able to maintain all our present Lodges. I charge all Arizona Masons to lend their enthusiasm and support to those Lodges which are beginning to flounder under the combined weight of increasing expenses and decreasing membership . . .

(Some) programs are beginning to bear fruit. Lodges are enjoying and reaping benefits from non-Masonic friends in their Lodge halls when the principles of Masonry are explained and discussed. Our increased support of youth organizations has (increased) membership drawn from DeMolay and from the families of Rainbow Girls and Job's Daughters. I commend those Lodges which have made an effort to appear in public in Masonic regalia at parades, fairs and church meetings. There are many good men in our communities who need Masonry and who are needed by Masonry; however, they must know who we are and what we stand for. Brethren, let us talk Masonry, let us live Masonry, and let us build Masonry."

The Grand Master approved highway signs indicating place and time of Masonic meetings, presentation of George Washington posters by the Scottish Rite to all lodges, presentation of "Dynamic Freedoms" by the Rite to all newly-raised M.M.s, and Masonic ads in a Shrine Circus coloring book. He ordered "an appendant body" to cease fund-raising activities "in the name of Masonry" for the United Cerebral Palsy Association. He ruled that a former member of the Grand Lodge of Cuba "with no current dues card" could petition "as a non-Mason."

A revised ceremony for laying cornerstones is printed in full in the Proceedings, but was not approved. Apparently the second section of the M.M. Degree has been conferred in this jurisdiction technically while the lodge was at refreshment. A resolution to put this work back where it belongs — in a lodge at work — was approved.

Grand Lodge was addressed by M.W. Bro. R. O. West, Grand Master of California. He noted that California is the Mother Grand Lodge of Nevada, Oregon and the Philippines as well as of Arizona, and continued:

Solomon Lodge at Tombstone was working under a dispensation of this Grand Lodge and a charter was granted by the (new) Grand Lodge . . . Azatlan Lodge No. 177 at Prescott . . . the oldest Lodge in the Territory was not represented at the convention, having afterwards given its assent to the proceedings thereof, was given first place as Azatlan Lodge No. 1 . . .

. . . Your committee is pleased to see that the constitution of this new Grand Lodge is in all essential respects a copy of our own . . .

This new Grand Lodge starts out under the most favorable auspices with 5 subordinate lodges which have an aggregate membership of nearly 300 and with jurisdiction over a territory larger than that of all New England and the middle States combined . . .

. . . Your committee trust that it will be one of the most prosperous and useful of our Grand Lodges and they therefore propose and recommend for adoption that the Grand Lodge of California recognize the Grand Lodge of Arizona as a just and legally constituted Grand Lodge . . . and extend to it a most hearty and fraternal welcome.”

Financially, a loan of $57,000 to a lodge made expenses exceed revenue by $14,000. The “Home” funds have $1.2 million assets. There is no home and revenue is partially used for benevolent relief. “Masonic Charities of Arizona” is being established.

Scholarships of $750 went to 10 students (51 applications). Several lodges participated actively in “Public Schools Week.” One thousand, two hundred and forty dollars was distributed as prizes in a state-wide essay contest. “A tribute was paid to Arizona Masonry for its contribution. This all helps immensely.” Lodge expenditures on public school activities were subsidized up to $100 by Grand Lodge.

The Centennial Committee published a supplement to the Tucson newspaper on the history of Masonry and its concordant bodies. A history of Masonry in Arizona was given each registrant at Grand Lodge. There were all the usual publicity gadgets — bumper stickers, banners, ties, wind bells, hats, as well as floats in parades and rodeos and, of course, numerous dinners. “The most important part of this 100th year was the brotherhood.”

There were 7 Emergent Communications for special Masonic events, including "placing a Commemorative Stone in the structure."

The Grand Master "wore two hats" as he continued to serve as the paid Secretary of three Grand Lodge Boards (Charities, Custodians and Scholarship).

Among his decisions, he approved sponsorship of a Little League Baseball team by a lodge "provided there were records on file to protect . . . from all liabilities and . . . an approved code of ethics." He dealt with a request for open lodge participation in a Sunday United Fund Residential Drive, ruling that the lodge could not assemble in the Lodge Hall, but participation as individuals and being publicly recognized as a Mason in the community was proper. His decision that a Grand Lodge Officer could not serve on a Committee of Inquiry in his lodge was rejected by the Committee on Masonic Law and Usage and by Grand Lodge.

Ritual Seminars were organized and "successful," as was a Masonic Information Booth at the State Fair.

There were some remarkable resolutions presented:

"Whereas: It is an absolute fact that after 9 years of adoption, the esoteric ritual of the Second Section has made very little progress . . .

Whereas: It is an absolute fact that since there are so many grammatical errors, less than 5% of the 359 Subordinate Lodges use the adopted Second Section . . .

. . . it should not be adopted esoteric ritual . . ." and

"Whereas: Ritual Work is being changed so fast it is almost impossible to keep up to date . . .

Therefore, be it resolved that Blue Lodge Ritual not be altered or changed in any way however small, unless so voted by a 60% majority of all Subordinate Lodges on a basis of 1 Lodge, 1 vote."

Both of the above were "indefinitely tabled."

Three lodges were lost, one by each of amalgamation, charter surrender and charter arrest. The usual long list of Masonic Trials resulted, after Grand Lodge Committee action, in 12 expulsions, 7 indefinite suspensions, 4 definite suspensions, 1 deferral for later action and 1 acquittal.

The Grand Treasurer's Report is less than half a page. All revenue was spent. The per capita was raised to $3.

Scholarships to 50 students totalled $16,700.

The new Grand Master was initiated in 1971, was Worshipful Master for two years starting in 1973, and has moved rapidly in both Grand Lodge and in concordant Orders.

The three Emergent Communications were for cornerstones, those of the Royal Arch Masonic Apartments in Vancouver, the Masonic Hall in Ganges, and, of very special interest, a re-enactment of the laying of the cornerstone of Congregation Emanu-El Synagogue in Victoria. The cornerstone had been originally laid in 1863. Canadian history is involved:

"This 119 year old Temple . . . was, at the time of its dedication acclaimed as 'The first Synagogue in Her Majesty's Pacific Possessions' and is Canada's oldest standing Synagogue and one of British Columbia's oldest Houses of Worship in continuous use. Recently it was declared an historic site, and restoration to its former beauty has just been completed.

. . . It was decided . . . that a re-enactment of the laying of the cornerstone by Freemasons would be appropriate. A stone mason excavated about 2½ feet below ground level at the North East corner of the building to where the cornerstone is located and removed its sandstone capping . . . A slab which may have borne an engraved inscription was badly eroded.

In the hollow of the stone was a rectangular shaped glass apothecary bottle with a glass stopper. The bottle had been cracked . . . By-laws of Victoria Lodge No. 1085, G.R. England dated 1860 . . . and of Vancouver Lodge No. 421, G.R. Scotland dated 1862 were . . . still readable. A vellum scroll . . . was disintegrated due to moisture."

Some 500 Freemasons attended as well as "several hundred observers of various faiths." The Chairman of the Restoration Committee welcomed the gathering. Greetings were brought by the Chief Justice of British Columbia, by the Premier and by the Leader of the Opposition of British Columbia, by the Mayor of Victoria, and by the Chairman of the Council of Churches of Victoria. The Grand Master spoke as to the significance of the Ceremony and the oration was given by W. Bro. R. T. D. Wallace, former Chancellor of the University of Victoria. An especially prepared copper capsule, hermetically sealed and containing current Masonic and Canadian items, was added to the stone.

Your reviewer attended the Annual Communication on the personal invitation of the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. MacLaurin, who has been a highly valued friend for many years and who gave your reviewer an opportunity to address Grand Lodge in the capacity of their Grand Representative near our Grand Lodge. The excellent facilities of the University of Victoria were used for the sessions.

The Grand Chaplain, a senior "retired" Salvation Army Officer (the word "retired" could hardly be more inappropriate), maintained the tradition of this Grand Lodge with a challenge to "Let there be Light," advocating:

“ . . . 23,000 dedicated Masons moving out from our lodge rooms to bring the sunshine of Divine Light to our communities through our friendliness, our concern for others, our practical service, our faith in the Great Architect of the Universe . . . ”

The Grand Master later commented that “Let there be Light” appeared in Hebrew characters at the top of the University’s Heraldic Achievement, placed there by the late M.W. Bro. Paul, P.G.M., and first head of Victoria College from which Victoria University arose.

The first Masonic lodge meeting ever held on the Queen Charlotte Islands took place on September 21, 1981, by special dispensation to Tsimpsean Lodge No. 58, Prince Rupert, with the Grand Master in attendance. One brother received his certificate following his M.M. proficiency examination and two E.A.s received their F.C. degrees. True Freemasonry has existed on the Queen Charlotte Islands at least since 1910 as attested by the introduction which your reviewer selected for his reviews at the 1979 sessions of our Grand Lodge and to which he again refers. This first lodge meeting increased the visibility of the Craft and was followed by a community banquet.

The Grand Master especially scheduled visits to lodges which had not received their Grand Master in recent years. During his previous three years in Grand Lodge office, he had visited every lodge in the jurisdiction. He was concerned with Grand Lodge officer itineraries of visitation and proposed co-ordinated planning for and by the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Senior Warden and Grand Junior Warden. He records his visit to your reviewer’s lodge, Perfection No. 616, G.R.C., and his being given honorary life membership.

One new lodge was instituted (Tsawwassen Lodge U.D.). One lodge will be lost by approved amalgamation in the next Masonic year. The reports of all 27 D.D.G.M.s are printed in full.

Grand Lodge operated in the black. The Benevolent Fund increased its capital as well as transferring $20,000 to the Bursary Fund. Some $44,000 was spent on direct benevolence and 90 students divided $33,000 in bursaries.

A Committee on Life Membership recommended against any commutation of Grand Lodge dues, allowing individual lodges to set up their own life membership provisions for lodge dues, but all brethren remaining liable for Grand Lodge requirements from year to year.

A Committee on Alcoholic Beverages approved use in the banquet hall subject to no use without a majority lodge vote, no use in the lodge room, nor prior to or during a lodge meeting, and only after the Tyler’s toast and 30 minutes thereafter, with no lodge funds to subsidize a bar.

A Committee on Landmarks declined “to identify (or) recommend for official endorsement . . . any specific Landmarks” while approving Mackey’s list being printed as an appendix to the constitution with a disclaimer of official recognition.

A new Committee on Lodge Buildings was established.

The Grand Lodge of Honduras was recognized.

Your reviewer expresses his thanks and appreciation of many courtesies received and his continuing pleasure with his association with the Grand Lodge of British Columbia.

High spots of the Grand Master's year were a trip to Tokyo in May and reception of a delegation from the eastern U. S. in June. A jade cornerstone was presented to the Grand Lodge of Japan ("It had created admiration and excitement.") at a joint reunion banquet of the Scottish Rite (Tokyo bodies) and the Grand Lodge. The U. S. delegation, including three Past Grand Masters, saw degrees demonstrated in Chinese. M.W. Bro. Gasson, Grand Master of South Africa, was another special visitor to Taipei.

The Grand Master reported:

"The state of the Craft had not been improved. Masonic enthusiasm is fading rapidly among our brethren. Poor attendances were generally felt in the lodge meetings for same causes that I reported at last Communication . . . The state of our 2 lodges outside Taipei is more serious . . . if no immediate action is taken their existence will be threatened."

U.S. $2,000 was sent to Italy for the earthquake relief fund.

The General Fund "continues to drop." The Charity Fund now has "about 94% of the total financial assets of Grand Lodge." All the Charity Fund, therefore, cannot be kept at interest but part is kept liquid as operating cash on hand when needed (to be replaced later).

Fraternal relations with the "old" Grand Lodge of Belgium were maintained and the new Grande Loge Reguliere Belgique also recognized! The Grand Lodge of Alaska was recognized, it being noted that this Grand Lodge was formed "with the consent of the Grand Lodge of Washington."

Special Communications included dedication of three Masonic premises.

The Grand Master attended six Table Lodges and commented favourably. He had been advised of three other "Common Table Ceremonies" in which Prince Hall Masons had participated. He took no formal action, but "gave consideration" to an edict prohibiting such ceremonies "with groups we do not masonically recognize."

Plans for the Bicentennial of this Grand Lodge in 1989 are being started. Two individual lodges, Wooster No. 10 and St. Paul's No. 11, celebrated their Bicentennials. The Grand Master attended both ceremonies.

A resolution to make mandatory retirement of the Grand Secretary and the Grand Treasurer at the Communication following their 70th birthday was "unanimously" defeated in Grand Lodge. (If the proposer and seconder voted against it why did they not withdraw the resolution?)

The Masonic Culture and Public Relations Committee arranged seminars for junior officers (attendance from 65 lodges), Senior Deacons (74 lodges), Junior Wardens (80 lodges), and Senior Wardens (101 lodges). This committee made Masonic road signs available and published "Master's Media" monthly circulated to all Worshipful Masters and Wardens, as well as Grand Lodge Officers.

The Tax Advisory Committee warned lodges that the Internal Revenue were making test examinations of lodges and Temple Corporations, especially with reference to any commercial revenue. The Insurance Committee raised the blanket coverage for liability to $5 million.

An appendix to the Proceedings by the Grand Historian records "The Genesis of Grand Lodge" - 1783 - 1785.

The Grand Master is a physicist with the National Bureau of Standards and was an able administrator, replacing an antiquated accounting system and significantly pressing for a solution to the financial problems of the Temple. At the end of his term, he became Grand Secretary, the previous Grand Secretary, R.W. Bro. Minnick becoming Grand Secretary Emeritus after serving for 12 years.

The Masonic Temple has been increasingly a financial burden, "solved" largely by "loans" from the Masonic Foundation. The property, in a prime downtown location, is highly valuable so there was collateral. As an extreme example, if the Eastern Star had been paying the going commercial rent of $20 per square foot, their rent would have been an impossible $272,000 per year (now $8,000). An able committee reported in depth at each communication. A possible solution involves gutting the building, leaving three outside walls to conform to a "Historic site" designation, rebuilding by a developer to maximum permitted height and with provision for long term lease of Masonic quarters as part of the deal.

By resolution, a single written ritual, including esoteric work, was prepared, with security, and deposited with the Grand Secretary, with access restricted to the Grand Master, the Grand Secretary, the Grand Lecturer and the Chairman of the Grand Lodge Committee on Work and Lectures, and then only when 2 of these 4 brethren were present. All working papers in the preparation were burnt.

A ballot in a lodge for restoration had appeared on the notice only as being for affiliation. Another properly-identified ballot was ordered. A decision of the Grand Master pointed out as an irregularity, naming the committee of investigation for a candidate openly in the lodge and printing the names in the notice. A Worshipful Master or a Warden cannot request a demit for any reason during his term of office.

Two lodges were lost by amalgamation.

The Grand Lodge of Alaska was recognized.

Another example of instituting sounder business practice was in the Home, following a 3-year study by a special committee. There is now a business manager, an investigation of possible benefits from Federal and State programs is active, and future plans include a decision as to whether "skilled care" is best provided in the Home or in commercial nursing homes. There were 76 residents (capacity 114). The financial state is reported:

" . . . through generous legacies, special gifts, support of Grand Lodge, the Masonic Foundation, the W.M. Association, and many other individuals and organizations, income . . . exceeds expenses by over $300,000 . . . A major legacy over the past 3 years (over $1 million) will cease this year, so the Home will need more support."

One source of revenue for the Home was an $8,000 donation collected during an Alaska trip by the Grand Master, 70 brethren and their wives.

Two of four cornerstones laid at Emergent Communications were for a Veterans' Memorial Building and for a Fire Hall.

Grand Lodge had been rocked by the embezzlement of $350,000 by the Past Grand Master who served as Grand Treasurer. By court action $163,000 was recovered from the individual involved and the balance from the bonding company. Efforts are being made to recover lost interest on the funds.

The Grand Junior Warden died during the year and the new Lodge U.D. was named after him. One lodge was lost by consolidation.

At a special meeting of Solomon's Lodge No. 1, the Grand Master and most of his officers were present to welcome the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania who was accompanied by many of his officers:

“The ties between Georgia and Pennsylvania Freemasons date back some 200 years. The present Grand Lodge of Georgia was organized December 16, 1786 by Solomon’s Lodge (chartered by England) and what is now Hiram Lodge No. 2 (chartered by Pennsylvania).

(Appropriate gifts were exchanged and) to insure the unique occasion being preserved for all time in the lodge archives, the happenings of the historic gathering were recorded on film . . . It was a great occasion . . . It was a history-making event.”

An attempt to make any liquor business association grounds for U.M.C. changed to “illegal” liquor business was defeated as was a proposed change in the code to allow automatic restoration from N.P.D. suspension if dues were paid within six months of suspension. Masonic trials resulted in 29 expulsions, 2 definite suspensions and 3 acquittals!

The brother who the Grand Master-elect wished to appoint as Grand Chaplain was made an honorary member of Grand Lodge with the rank of P.M. during his service as Grand Chaplain.

Some 800 brethren and their families joined the Grand Master for the “Annual Appreciation Day” at the Masonic Home. Invested assets for the Home are $2.9 million. Year’s expenses were $775,000. There were 61 children in the Home of whom 47 were “non-Masonic.” Three “children” were supported at college.

The Grand Master combined his trip to the Grand Masters’ Conference with a visit to Fiat Lux Lodge No. 1079 in New York for their annual Idaho Night, the 45th Grand Master from Idaho to so attend. It is quite an event.

Commenting on the state of the Craft, the Grand Master found this to be “exactly as the Master Masons who control this Grand Lodge want it to be . . . (These) Master Masons are the Masters, Wardens and Past Masters of the Constituent Lodges.” He referred to deliberate breaking of regulations in a case where a M.M. was initiated into an appendant Order the night after receiving his degree — no proficiency exam cleared and obviously balloted for before receiving his M.M., both deliberately contrary to the code. What do you do when lodge bylaws are simply ignored or broken when the officers want to do something different? The real concern was not with regulations but with morals. He asked, “What kind of Masonry do you want?” If you want to change the rules, change them! If you don’t, follow them!

The "Report of the Worshipful Grand Orator" was directly challenging:

" . . . In the 10 years since (I) was D.D.G.M., Masonic membership in our own State of Idaho has declined more than 13%. Our lodges are not well attended, at times not even able to assemble sufficient members to hold a meeting . . .

. . . Landmarks published by Mackey in 1874 are currently applicable in this the space age as they were when originally laid down. The ritual is the most beautiful and outstandingly impressive of any fraternal organization I know today . . .

We have the most affluent society in the world . . . dedicated to creature comforts (with) ever-advancing and accelerating technology . . . Is it not now a time for decision?

Shall we reorganize that, in order to preserve the ideals of the fraternity, we must regroup and continue to select men acceptable to our standards . . . perhaps even realize that our fraternity exploded beyond reasonable expectation.

. . . Shall we recognize we are in a society that is the most knowledgeable in the history of man and may well speak out on separation of church and state, oppressive interest rates or taxes, who wish to take positions on foreign policy or ecology.

. . . Will any of us gather together during the period of this communication and enjoy each others company and share philosophy in relaxed atmosphere over any one or more of these forbidden (liquors).

. . . In Idaho we require proficiency . . . Should that man who meets all other requirements but fails to advance be prevented from participating and be lost to the Craft.

. . . Our Worshipful Master's Certificate . . . is far more demanding than by our bordering sister jurisdictions . . . It is time to have a less stringent requirement but, more importantly, let deed and actions demonstrate more fully what is in our brother's heart . . .

. . . Our failure to be alert is an abdication of accountability, and could ultimately result in such a lethargic apathy that this body could become a sham . . ."

Maybe he put the case too strongly, but subsequent votes on several resolutions produced nothing new. Resolutions, all rejected, included ones to permit alcoholic toasts at Table Ceremonies, to liberalize present liquor regulations, to make liquor restrictions absolute and complete, to modify the proficiency requirements for W.M.s. to modify the requirements for a P.M. undertaking a second term as W.M., to reduce the proficiency exam for candidates.

The Lodge of Research No. 1965 reorganized and catalogued the Grand Lodge Library. An index of available books, pamphlets and documents is printed in the Proceedings. The lodge has also set up "Members' Services" and its stewards are available to provide programs for other lodges on request.

The cornerstone of a High School was laid at one of five "Occasional Grand Lodge" meetings.

M.W. Bro. Polk attended the Annual Communication. In the opening ceremony the Grand Master was especially courteous:

" . . . Brethren, will you join me in pledging allegiance to our flag and, of course, the flag of our neighbours to the north, Canada, is in the East and our guests from that country may join with us in pledging allegiance to their flag."

The Grand Master was pleased with the lessening of membership losses, especially in suspensions. His conclusions are subject to the computerization of records showing an increased net membership loss rather than a decrease. Last year (non-computerized) may have reported too high a membership. The true facts will be confused until the new system has been established for a time. Nine lodges were lost by consolidations.

A proposal to add the word "symbolic" before "penalty" in the obligations was introduced as a code amendment and, as it is a ritual matter, could not be considered. M.W. Bro. VanTassel gave notice of proposing this ritual change at the next Annual Communication. A code change to allow "Bingo" (as permitted under Illinois law) was introduced. A more comprehensive amendment dealing with legal games of chance will be considered later. There was no vote on the "Bingo" proposal.

Recognition was withdrawn from the Grand Lodge of Belgium and was given to Alaska, to "the Andes," and to the Regular Grand Lodge of Belgium.

The Grand Orator, R.W. Bro. Dr. W. H. Brown, classified the many bases of Freemasonry, some legendary, some conjectural, some historic, as "tributaries" of a mighty river system (he used the Mississippi as an example) which was Freemasonry:

" . . . From primitive magic, from ancient religions, from mysticism, symbolry, the occult, architecture, history, Pagan rites, the Christian observance, from each come some influence. Savages contributed to it, the learned influenced it, Kings made laws about it, humble men followed it. Ages of time, millions of men . . . all were TRIBUTARIES . . . then to unite in that brook, this rivulet, these rushing rapids . . . gradually forming the river we call FREEMASONRY."

General Fund operated $40,000 in the red on expenditures of $600,000.

The Masonic Children's Home had 28 inmates and helped support 5 college students (3 from one family). If you consider this as 33 total, the operating cost was $13,400 each, excluding depreciation. The Home was praised by State authorities and is well run.

The Masonic Home had 246 residents and there is a waiting list of 76, which will be reduced as extensive renovations to the ladies' building have just been completed. Cost was $13,900 per resident, excluding depreciation. (Gross $4.2 million) The endowment fund for the Home is $15.3 million and for the Children's Home $9 million.

Last year your reviewer had a copy of an issue of "The Square & Compasses" from which he derived his text. The Proceedings of the Grand Festival are now at hand. The meeting was called for 4:30 p.m. and was followed by a banquet at 9:30 p.m. Dress is specified as "Formal, National, Dark Lounge suit with Masonic necktie or Uniform." When the Grand Master is received he is saluted "with eleven." Later in the ceremony when the Deputy Grand Master and the Assistant Grand Master (both appointees of the G.M.) were installed and proclaimed, they were saluted "with nine." There are 4 Regional Grand Masters for Western, Southern, Eastern and Northern India, each of these brethren holding the rank of Past Deputy Grand Master. The Grand Lodge of India follows the English tradition of extensive "granting" of past rank, all such honours being conferred by the Grand Master.

One proposal before the meeting, following previous notice of motion, would have divided the Grand Lodge of India into four Grand Lodges, one in each of the present four regions. The theory was that such a structure would parallel that in the U. S., in Australia, and in Canada. The motion was withdrawn before a vote and the Grand Master's Address was primarily an intensely personal and impassioned plea for a single Grand Lodge in a single and united India:

"... When I was installed as Grand Master, Brethren, I did not take my Obligation upon the Volume of the Sacred Law of the religion to which I belong, but spread out my fingers to take the Obligation on the Volumes of the Sacred Law of all religions . . . What I did, I did for myself, for I do not know out of the 800 people who were present whether any had noticed it. It was to re-emphasize to myself that in the Temple of Freemasonry there are no Hindus, or Muslims, no Parsis or Sikhs, no Jews or Gentiles, that in the Temple of Freemasonry we all meet as one, we meet as brothers. There I do not come to you as a man from the Western Region, or from Maharashtra, or from Bombay. I come to you as a Brother from the Grand Lodge of India. No one comes to Freemasons' Hall from any one state or town. He comes from one single country and one single town. That country is Freemasonry and that town is the Grand Lodge of India . . ."

The Grand Master conferred the "Order of Service to Freemasonry" on four brethren, three from within his Grand Lodge and the fourth to M.W. Bro. Wagemans of Belgium for his actions in "saving Freemasonry in Belgium."

Financial statements are in the Proceedings. Revenue and expenditures are in a close balance as practically possible. Reserves in the Benevolent Fund, the Relief Fund, and the Scholarship Fund each increased. Ten scholarships of 200Rs were awarded and there were significant grants for relief and for benevolence.

There were seven Emergent Communications, including laying a "datestone" at an elementary school, cornerstones of a City Hall and of two Masonic buildings, three dedications and a funeral.

The Grand Master had the pleasure of raising both of his sons as Master Masons during his term. His dispensations included permitting Masonic floats on five different occasions "in a manner worthy of Freemasonry" and, in one instance, "I refused to let them wear aprons in the parade or sell beer or other alcoholic beverages in a food stand."

The cost of a state-wide building liability policy turned out to be over $160,000 which was considered prohibitive.

The Grand Secretary's office took action to reduce the number of amalgamations:

"... 1980-1 saw the largest number of consolidations ever experienced (14), (9 of these taking effect in 1981-2) . . . At least half a dozen lodges have called and reported serious problems in attendance and election of officers in 1982. We have responded to these calls immediately with personal visitation . . . Talking on a 1:1 basis we find that the rank and file does not want to lose their lodge identity. In every instance the brethren are told 'If your lodge is to be saved You must be the ones to save it. The Grand Master or the Grand Secretary or Grand Lodge or your Worshipful Master can't do it. It must be a combined effort . . .

. . . We are pleased to say that (new) consolidation requests are zero . . . The fires are not out, not one of them. We have simply succeeded in motivating enough local brethren for the time being to help keep the fire under control . . . PLEASE call us before the fire gets out of control."

Grand Lodge provided 48 x $500 scholarships to high school seniors (790 applications, of whom 70 were personally interviewed).

The Grand Lodge of Estado do Espirito Santo was recognized.

State-wide concurrent jurisdiction was approved. Publicity for special Masonic events is encouraged. Life membership is being considered.

At the request of the Grand Master, Bro. Zeis addressed Grand Lodge on alcohol and drug abuse problems with young people, on potentials for instruction, techniques and methods for helping, and strongly emphasized adult example, e.g. in drunk driving as a critical factor in this "illness." Conversely, good adult example, especially parental example, was of the utmost importance:

"We need to set high standards for ourselves and for our community. We, as business men, should not be willing to tolerate establishments who cater to young people drinking. We should not be willing to let our community have drug paraphernalia sales . . . We need to insist on law enforcement and judicial officials that the repeated offenders will be removed from society. We need to critically examine advertisements which suggest that alcohol is a social lubricant and that drinking will make a person more socially acceptable, brighter, more entertaining, more sexy, more successful or more wealthy.

You see, I believe that substance abuse will only be as prevalent in our community as we are willing to let it be.

We cannot turn our heads from this problem. In the United States there are 115 million adult drinkers. Of these 12 or 13 million will develop a serious alcohol or drug related problem sometime in their lifetime . . . The victim of this illness is taught that he or she must be responsible for his or her actions. We, as a society, must share the responsibility for either permitting or preventing such an illness."

Grand Lodge operated comfortably in the black. The Home had its capacity of 78 residents (annual cost, including depreciation $13,700). Revenue came 74% from residents, 17% from interest and only 7.5% direct from Grand Lodge. Fund balance is $2.1 million, increasing moderately during the year.

In this Grand Jurisdiction (like New Brunswick) there is no "line" to the Grand Mastership. The Deputy Grand Master is an appointee of the Grand Master. There appears to be a complete replacement of the four senior officers (G.M., D.G.M., G.S.W., G.J.W.) each year. The incoming Grand Master had served as G.J.W. in 1974 and as D.G.M. in 1977.

There is, it is regretted, no change in the slow but continuing erosion of membership, nor any increase in the Japanese citizen portion of 5%. The new Grand Master was born and educated in the States and is an employee of the United States Forces in Japan.

The most forward step was the construction of a new Masonic Temple in Tokyo. Plans called for cornerstone laying in May, occupancy in September and dedication in November. The cornerstone comes from King Solomon's quarries in Jerusalem. A speech by W. Bro. Harris, who was responsible for the interior design, is printed as an appendix to the Proceedings. The Craft lodge room is planned for degree presentation with modern audio-visual equipment, a Scottish Rite Hall is more flexible, dining facilities are adequate. Grand Lodge offices are on the premises, and the entrance areas are impressive with some stained glass windows, cases for memorabilia etc. Your reviewer found no reference to the Yokohama Temple problem noted in the previous Proceedings. It is to be hoped that was resolved.

Inflation and small membership have caused financial shortages. The Grand Lodge fee per degree was increased from ¥800 to ¥1000 and the per capita from ¥1200 to ¥1500. Steps are being taken to make some restricted funds generally available for Grand Lodge purposes. The constitution was changed to make M.M.s immediately available for appendant orders with no attempt to disguise that an object was to improve the finances of bodies paying rent to Temples, through catching U.S. Armed Forces personnel due for recall to the U.S. within the year of getting their M.M. degree.

The Grand Orator spoke on Secrets and Secret Societies, tying in "Masonic Secrets" with Japanese traditions:

"My father was a barber who owned several shops downtown Tokyo, employing skilled barbers who worked for him at full rate wage and taking apprentices who lived in our same household. He was very strict in training his apprentices. I still remember the words he often used. "You take it, steal it and don't expect everything will be taught." The "IT" is that which nobody could teach him but which he "took" and "stole" when he was an apprentice — the secret of the master barber's art. It was not that he was reluctant to give his knowledge to his apprentices, but that there was something that belonged to his personal experience, so personal that it could not be readily imparted to others."

The Children's Festival was, again, the major public relations and charitable activity. Expenses are given as ¥1.4 million.

Cornerstones of 2 lodge buildings and of the High School were laid during Special Communications. There were also 2 lodge dedications and Grand Lodge ceremonies at 2 gravestone markers of Past Grand Masters.

There were several constitution revisions, some to permit the now state-wide jurisdiction of all lodges (but with each lodge having "perpetual jurisdiction" over its applicants unless demitted), others to simplify the arrangements for lodge consolidations and one extraordinary proposal, which was defeated by "an overwhelming standing vote" of a new section providing for trial of a Grand Master! Your reviewer remains curious as to what prompted this, as it was carefully drafted (complaint signed by 25 or more W.M.s to the I.P.G.M. who assembles a committee of P.G.M.s etc. etc.). There must have been something more in mind than the regretted problem in New Jersey some years ago.

The Grand Master recommended establishing a Lodge of Research. Petitions for charter membership were circulated at Grand Lodge and an initial meeting with Bro. Harry Carr as speaker planned. The Grand Lodge Library received the careful attention it had long deserved. It includes the James McFarland Library of 5,500 volumes, over 2,000 "non-masonic" books, 1,700 other "masonic books," and over 1,000 Proceedings of Grand Lodge, adjacent Grand Lodges and of co-ordinate bodies. Fifty-four volumes were found "dating from 1698" and these very valuable items are now in a vault.

Shrinkage of membership is a real cause for concern. Six lodges were lost by consolidations, 152 of the lodges report no raisings. Even more shocking, 99 lodges were not represented at Grand Lodge.

Kansas has "Area District Grand Masters" as well as "District Deputy Grand Masters." An "area" seems to include 5 or 6 D.D.G.M.s.

The Public Schools Committee gave 8 prizes ($1,000 to $150) in an essay contest on "Private Education versus Public Education." The number of awards will be raised to 10 next year. Lodges were directed to hold special programs in February, designated as "American Heritage - Public Schools Month."

The Grand Lodge of South Africa was recognized. The Committee on Foreign Relations commented on a hardening of the Roman Catholic attitude towards Masonry since John Paul II came to the papacy. They also requested "that our Grand Lodge . . . study . . . the office of Grand Representative with intent to increase responsibilities and accountability of the office."

Current revenue just met expenses. The per capita was increased from $5 to $6 and would have had to be higher except for reducing the number of issues of the "Kansas Mason" from 6 to 4, primarily to save several thousand dollars due to increased postal rates.

The Chairman of the Correspondence Committee (M.W. Bro. R. H. Arnold, who visited our Grand Lodge during his term of office) will include reports in each issue of the Kansas Mason. Your reviewer agrees with his remarks:

"... (who) cares if a communication was held in Podunk Centre or Boom City, or even if a past Grand Officer passed on during the year . . . I feel the Craft in Kansas are more interested in happenings which can influence our Grand Lodge . . . increase membership . . . interest all E.A.s . . . some things (may be) entered only because they are interesting or whimsical."

The completion in 1981 of a 120-bed health care centre at the Home has given major stimulus to its work and place in the Fraternity. Year end occupancy was 120 in this centre and 86 in residence. Assets are $11.6 million (40% fixed). Operating expenses, including $1 million "property and related," were $3.2 million. There was a surplus of under $200,000 with revenue including $1.3 million as "contributions." These numbers obviously include building related costs and contributions. If you omit these, the cost per guest was not far from $10,000.

Grand Lodge installations were open.

The "Welcome" Address at Grand Lodge was given by M.W. Bro. E. B. Beatty (G.M. 1943). His words reflected the stuff of his country at its best and we, in Canada, can listen with appreciation and for our benefit:

"On the 11th day of October, I celebrated my 89th birthday and on the 11th of November I will have been a Master Mason continuously for 65 years . . .

Our country was born in a time of crisis. We have lived through dangerously troubled times throughout our history. It is crucial that we continue to preserve our past, study and enrich the present, and challenge the future. Our forefathers were aware of the dangers that lay ahead and realized that each citizen must do his part to make democracy work . . .

America means many things to many people. What it means to one person may be quite contradictory to the meaning it holds for another. This is the beauty of America. To me it is a land in which a man's destiny is limited only by his ability . . . (it recognizes) the right to think, to speak, to write, and to print what one believes; the right of peaceable assembly; the right to subscribe to any creed or religion without fear of persecution . . .

. . . we are not perfect but we are free to seek perfection. There is injustice in the land, but it is our privilege to combat it. Let us remember that these rights and privileges are not only very precious but very rare . . .

The Grand Master reported nine dedications and cornerstone ceremonies of which one was civic and eight Masonic. Of his more than 50 dispensations, several were for degree conferral at a special outdoor site or out-of-state. These carried the specific notation, "Dignity and decorum is to prevail at all time." He revoked the Masonic status of a man who had served a term in the penitentiary and was on probation when he received his three degrees. (Somebody slipped.)

This Grand Lodge has an unusual service, "The Masonic Employment Association of Kentucky Inc.," which seeks employment for unemployed Masons. These are tough times but their report indicated 81 placements out of 512 registrations on file.

The Grand Lodge of Alaska was recognized and the failure of the Jurisprudence Committee to include the Regular Grand Lodge of Belgium in their previous year's report (although cleared by Grand Lodge at the time) was corrected "nunc pro tunc." Your reviewer cannot resist contrasting this delightful legal formalism with the degree of informality from some of the verbatim reported proceedings:

"Most Worshipful Grand Master, James B. Elliott:
There have been some who have asked me that we not smoke in this room. Those who would like to see smoking go down the tube while we are in session, raise your hand. Oh, my Lord I'm in trouble. How do you get out of it? Those who would rather we permit smoking, raise your hand. Brethren, the smoking section is in the rear of the lodge."

Grand Lodge operated well within budget and had a significant surplus. The "St. John's Day League" works to support the Old Masons' Home and the Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home and to reduce their debt of over $1 million. They presented cheques for $150,000.

Final corrected proofs of the history, "Kentucky Freemasonry, 1788-1978: The Grand Lodge and the Men who made It," were in the hands of the printers. The Committee on Masonology hopes to use money from the newly-created Endowment Fund to provide "expanded services" (speaker's bureau, assistance on arrangement of meetings, information, etc.). This Committee gave Grand Lodge Achievement awards to 53 Eagle Scouts, and adopted the slogan "If it is to be, it is up to me."

Of the 464 lodges, 411 (89%) own their own halls and only 42 (9%) just pay rent.

The Proceedings are beautifully hard-bound. Of the 747 pages, 506 are a roster of the lodges listing officers, living Past Grand Masters, living Past Masters, living Fifty Year Members, Master Masons (including all those listed previously), F.C.s, E.A.s, admissions, demitted members, suspended brethren and "dead"! Lexington Lodge No. 1 was chartered under Virginia in 1788. It has 1, 257 members of whom 66 have their 50-year jewel, and 31 living Past Masters.

There were nine Emergent Communications. At two of these, three new lodges were constituted, six involved cornerstones (4 Masonic, a High School and a City Hall) and one was for a lodge dedication.

Your reviewer has previously referred to lodges in this jurisdiction which use a Scottish Rite ritual. Use of such a ritual is wider than realized before as the Grand Master reports:

"Our State is unique in that we have 10 Lodges in New Orleans which . . . utilize the Scottish Rite Ritual. This (16th)

District has made great progress . . . and are to be commended for their activities . . . (They conferred) the E.A. Degree utilizing the S.R. Ritual during the 1981 Imperial Council Session of the A.A.O.N.M.S. held in New Orleans in July . . . and evoked many favourable comments."

(Your reviewer has also been advised by R.W. Bro. A. B. Finnie that he attended Etoile Pollaire Lodge No. 1 in New Orleans and saw their F.C. Degree. Our brethren visiting New Orleans might note this possibility)

The Louisiana Masonic Co-ordinating Cabinet, combining senior officers of the Craft and all appendent bodies, met four times during the year "working together to solve problems that are common to all our bodies."

The Grand Master was called upon to make one unusual ruling. A Greek student who had received his E.A. Degree in Greece, but who was under 21, wished to complete his degrees in Louisiana. The ruling was that he could not receive further degrees until he was 21, but that he could attend lodge in the E.A. Degree only in the interim as he held that degree in a Grand Lodge recognized by the Grand Lodge of Louisiana.

Resolutions to require minimum attendance at three meetings per year for all M.M.s (subject to illness), and to remit Grand Lodge per capita for all members whose lodge dues were remitted were both defeated.

To reduce costs of printing the Proceedings, the "Masonic Directory" is now omitted, but the budget is still exceeded. A committee will consider the matter further. The copy under review still has 244 pages of lists of officers, P.M.s, and all work, deaths, suspensions, etc. etc. for each lodge.

The Committee of Appeals and Grievances dealt with serious offences. For what difference it makes, embezzlement from the Grand Lodge cemetery fund will be repaid and blackmail drew expulsion, while attempted murder, bigamy, and illegal drug distribution by a doctor received indefinite suspension.

The Grand Lodge of Alaska and the Regular Grand Lodge of Belgium were recognized.

The Masonic Home for Children averaged 43 residents, age 5 to 18. Expense was $275,000 plus $52,000 depreciation. Revenue was $412,000 (including $50,000 in donations, $133,000 from per capita and $59,000 from Grand Lodge). The endowment fund, with assets over $1.1 million, also gave grants up to $500 to each of 91 college students. Several special activities, such as "the Grand Master's Day" were highly successful.

Three new Masonic Temples were dedicated at Special Communications.

The Grand Lodge Banquet, held the evening before the official opening, was addressed by M.W. Bro. Rasor of Ohio, who later received the Drummond Medal. M.W. Bro. Rasor's enthusiasm remains contagious. He was credited with sparking the Outreach Program from his previous visit in 1978. This program now involves over 95% of the Maine lodges with special emphasis on keeping in touch with widows of deceased brethren.

M.W. Bro. Howard Polk attended the Annual Communication.

Three lodges amalgamated into one, including Portland Lodge No. 1 dating from 1762. The new lodge is designated Triangle Lodge No. 1.

A dispensation for the Maine Lodge of Research was issued by the Grand Master. Its charter was approved at Grand Lodge. The last new lodge to be chartered dates from 1961.

The Grand Master ruled that a consolidation of lodges cannot be rescinded. He gave dispensation for 9 Table Lodges.

Financial statements show a good surplus. Grand Lodge funds are under 18 separate "funds" with a total of $2 million in reserve.

The new Deputy Grand Master retired as Grand Secretary at the Annual Communication at age 72.

Grand Lodge sponsored trips to the U.K. and to Aruba, the latter for "fun and relaxation."

M.W. Bro. Howard Polk attended the Annual Communication and was one of several visitors to address the brethren.

The Grand Chaplain's memorial address included:

"The Hebrew word for Israel is made up of two parts, the first coming from a verb which means to wrestle, to struggle; and the second coming from one of the names of God; as it is explained that Jacob has striven with God and with man and has prevailed. Now there is a concept here which is of great meaning to us as Master Masons. The word which we seek and its great secret will never come to us through idle speculation. We must confront life, strive with it, and force it to yield us its blessing . . . Our strength will lie in deeds of morality and righteousness, our tools the skills of our craft. Thus the means of achieving and recovering the lost word is to strive with life with vigor, with firmness, with purity of intent."

Like our Grand Lodge, Manitoba has a Committee on Lodge Finances which is collecting data and preparing recommendations. Grand Lodge had a balanced budget for the year. The Temple showed a profit for the first time and 10% of the benevolent fund loan ($28,000 of the $280,000) was repaid. This "loan" only paid 1% (as it did last year) but at least 10% of the money is now reinvested at an acceptable return. The Tax Review Committee had made submissions to the authorities to try to get property tax partial exemptions for fraternal organizations. They drew a blank. The Government Committee recommended exemption from school taxes for:

"Veterans' Associations, golf courses and curling rinks, homes for the aged and infirm, agricultural and horticultural societies, educational institutions, colleges, charitable institutions, Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., Y.M.H.A., community museums and buildings, but not for fraternal organizations and service clubs."

The Committee on the Condition of Masonry recommended that Masonic Education be a "substantial and regular" part of meetings, that districts develop activities to aid in maintaining interest in lodges, that rural lodges should attempt to relate to their communities.

Recognition was given to Alaska, Pernambuco (Brazil) and Goias (Brazil).

The Masonic Foundation of Manitoba has completed its second project with the International Peace Gardens, sponsored jointly with North Dakota, now fully operative. There was usage (camps, concerts, dances, festivals) by over 22,000 in 1981 and this should be doubled in 1982. The Garden was started 50 years ago. It has been a long road, but "it can be done." The Board of General Purposes will decide what the next major project is to be.

Reports of all committees and statistical data are given at both Communications. The figures above are for 12 months ending July 1, 1981.

The Grand Secretary, R.W. Bro. Uppercue, died in December 1980. His assistant, R.W. Bro. Loosarian, and, later, R.W. Bro. Frazier were appointed by the Grand Master to fill the office. R.W. Bro. Frazier was elected at the Annual Communication.

M.W. Bro. Polk attended the Annual Communication and was one of several brethren who spoke at Grand Lodge.

Revision of the Constitution has been a highly debated activity over recent years. A new Constitution was formally declared in effect at the Semiannual Communication and ordered printed. One proposed amendment to forbid M.M.s from joining any collateral bodies for 12 months after their M.M. examination was defeated.

There were two Special Communications, between the others, for cornerstones at a United Methodist "Fellowship Hall," and for the new Health Care Facility at the Masonic Home.

Blood donors whose donations have now reached 3 gallons or more were individually recognized at Grand Lodge. The record is 8 gallons.

The Grand Master had attended a reunion of Maryland Masons now in Florida. The Grand Master of Florida later advised him that, with regret, he had to refuse permission for these, or similar meetings involving other Grand Lodges, in the future.

The Grand Lodge of Alaska was recognized.

The Masonic Home, "Bonnie Blink," has 125 guests and 112 full time plus 16 part time employees — 1 to 1! Its financial reserves are almost too good to be true, including an endowment fund of over $17 million plus a property fund of $14 million, augmented by over $2 million during the year from sale of more of its previously too-extensive land holdings. Maryland General Hospital has acquired the most recently sold land and the Home still retains some 260 acres. New buildings are being built and the year's outlay included buying an ambulance, a passenger bus and a mobile home. Subordinate lodges contributed only 7% of the $2.4 million operating fund income, while operating expenses were just under $2 million. Some 8,000 Masons attended "Harvest Home Day" at the Home.

This Grand Lodge is in critical condition. The Grand Master, an able business executive, is a realist:

" . . . A terrible fact is becoming clear. Our English-speaking Lodges are dying, some fast and some more slowly, but all are going down in activity, in attendance, in membership.

There are only two Lodges in our jurisdiction that show a more positive trend and both work in Spanish.

The core of our English-speaking Lodges is formed of Masons of advanced age, often with failing health . . . New members . . . are generally expatriates who have been sent to Mexico by their companies for a few years only. The same fate befalls our German-speaking Lodge."

There are 30 living Past Grand Masters, 2 serve as D.D.G.M., 2 as W.M., and 2 are Lodge Secretaries. The Grand Master encouraged the formation U.D. of Atemajac Lodge (Spanish-speaking) in Guadalajara, as a step to introduce some new virility and vitality.

“How did this become possible, my brethren? Because we have let it happen!

. . . We have been sometimes nit-picking on words, taking years for translating . . . We fail to realize that yearly dues nowadays are at the level of a single meal in a decent restaurant . . . If we talk about a yearly banquet (it is) too expensive, bothersome because of Friday night traffic, too boring. Where is the pride we had . . . at such an occasion with friends and family? . . . Why (are) Grand Masters barely able to get one of the Grand Lodge officers to accompany them on their official visits out of town? Too expensive? Useless? Lack of time?

. . . We had a turn-out between all our Metropolitan Lodges of only 50 persons, ladies and guests included, at the St. John's celebration held as a social get-together at the home of one of our dear brothers. Does the real brotherhood and friendship we enjoyed here not appeal to us any more? What kind of Masons have we become? . . .

. . . I ask: based on our present involvement and activity, would it inspire you, my brothers, if you had been made a Mason lately?”

The issue (and this is even more obvious from the reports submitted) is simply that of survival. The Grand Master set out the terms for this in the conclusion of his Address. You will find his words at the beginning of these reviews.

M.W. Bro. Polk attended the Annual Communication and addressed Grand Lodge.

The Grand Master ruled that local Lodge and Temple Associations should, within confines of his directive, decide for themselves as to use of alcoholic beverages on their premises:

“ . . . Finding . . . a situation when our Laws were being broken almost daily and the Grand Master being defied in several cases. (I endeavoured) to meet an intolerable situation that had existed far too long.”

His ruling that a Grand Lodge or District Officer should not accept lodge office at the same time was, after considerable discussion, rejected by Grand Lodge.

The Proceedings give (verbatim) questions, comments and discussion on the Grand Treasurer's Report and financial management generally. The text ranges from highly pertinent to inconsequential, but the active participation from the floor of Grand Lodge made sure that nothing was swept under the rug. Per capita fees were increased from $4 to $6 (the proposed amount was $7) and the increasing costs of operation recognized, while insisting on budgetary control. Computerization of Grand Lodge records and accounts is proceeding. An official receipt, authorized by Grand Lodge, will be issued for dues. "Prepaid Membership" (the word "Life" was removed from the title) will exempt from per capita as of the January 1st following the date of receipt of the required dues at the Grand Secretary's office. A proposal to add the cost of collection to "Delinquent dues" was defeated.

Proposals to permit sponsorship of Little League Baseball teams and other organized sports by individual lodges were ruled out of order.

There is very strong support for DeMolay, including a "DeMolay Foundation" which distributed $44,000. Grand Lodge contributed $15,000 and numerous other Masonic Bodies gave lesser amounts. Six scholarships ($300 - $500) were provided.

The only election was for Grand Marshal, the junior officer in the "line" to the Grand Mastership. A single resolution advanced all the rest.

Management of Grand Lodge is under a Board of Directors. Minutes of their 10 meetings are printed in the Proceedings.

During the year over 6,000 visitors went to the Masonic Home which had 296 residents and a waiting list of 80 at the end of the fiscal year. Costs are given as $29.30 per day for "Home care" and $53.48 per day for "nursing care" ($10,700 and $19,500 per year respectively). Total expenditures were $5 million, some 60% of this being for salary and wages. Revenue included $2.9 million from residents' accounts, $1.5 million from endowments and $0.5 million "investment income."

While three lodges were lost by consolidations, two new lodges were started U.D. and are ready for their charters. "They will be the first charters granted since 1968, and we are all very excited by it."

The Grand Master's numerous dispensations included eight permitting lodges to participate in civic parades or local celebrations and one to take part in a radio talk show.

Area conferences were called District Festivals, the suggested format including a social hour, dinner, entertainment and an Address by the Grand Master. Innovation was encouraged and some districts had things such as a dinner theatre, dancing, Hawaiian themes, an afternoon exemplification of "Ontario's M.M. Degree." or "profits" were donated to medical supplies for diabetic children, or the Jerry Lewis Telethon, or the Masonic Foundation. The new idea worked as total attendance for the 23 districts was 3,403 with 166 lodges represented, compared with 425 from 125 lodges when "the traditional Masonic Education format was used."

A prepaid dues system was approved. Funds, controlled and administered by Grand Lodge, comprise an "age-factor multiplier" of lodge dues (12.5 for ages 18-55, then decreasing to 5.0 over age 80) appropriate interest returned annually to each lodge subject to an administration charge. The regulations include complex automatic changes in the "factor" should the capital prove inadequate. Individual lodges remain liable for Grand Lodge per capita as long as the member is living and in good standing. Full details are in the Proceedings.

The Grand Lodge of Alaska and the Grand Lodge of Espirito Santo (Brazil) were recognized.

Scholarships were presented at the Grand Lodge banquet, 14 x $1,000, 4 x $750, 4 x $500. There were 486 applications from 270 schools. The Masonic Home had 137 in the "Main Lodge" ($10,250 per resident) and 147 in the "Care Centre" ($21,600 per resident). "The Minnesota Masonic Home is capable of admitting and caring for individuals suffering from terminal cancer, Parkinson's Disease, epilepsy, emphysema, heart ailments, strokes, fractures, as well as other(s) . . . associated with the aging process." The formula for return to heirs of unspent personal assets assigned to the Home on entry are part of the admission contract.

Funding for the Masonic Memorial Hospital with its Masonic Cancer Centre was just under $200,000, including a full professorship, two assistant professorships, three fellowships and some support staff. During the year there were 1,650 admissions and 7,674 out-patients to the Centre. Total cost of the Hospital was $4.6 million. Grand Lodge also supports a "Visitor" at the Rochester Clinic, who reported over 2,000 hospital calls.

There were 11 Emergent Communications: 6 cornerstones (5 Masonic, 1 a Baptist Church), the consecration, dedication and constitution of a new lodge, 3 other dedications and a P.G.M.'s funeral.

The new lodge and one amalgamation kept the number of lodges the same. There is also another new lodge U.D. and approval for its charter was given at Grand Lodge. The Mississippi Constitution requires that the two lodges geographically nearest must approve a U.D. lodge's work. Orange Grove Lodge U.D. moved its quarters so as to get farther away from one lodge which seems not to have wanted it around in the first place.

The Grand Master recognized current problems:

"It is evident that our influence on public opinion, our image in our communities and our real mission as Master Masons is falling short of the mark . . . We should be deeply concerned about the loss of membership . . . It will take years to regain our losses if we fail to act now . . . I know that we can re-establish (ourselves) if we give freely of a small share of our time and talent."

His recommendations included much more education for E.A.s, F.C.s and newly made M.M.s; formation of new lodges in more populated areas; and continuation of a statewide officers' seminar.

Two M.M.s each with over 70 years' service were recognized at Grand Lodge.

The Grand Master refused permission for a Grotto (there was enough "dilution" now) and denied, as not permitted by the Constitution, a request for lodge room use by Daughters of the Nile. An amendment to permit this was defeated at Grand Lodge.

There are now 24 children in the Home, which has a new superintendent. A summer trip to the gulf coast saw "many lodges entertain the children with meals and other activities . . . During the year, the children visited many lodges by invitation." The cost per child was $7,700, the same as last year.

Installation of new Grand Lodge Officers was public.

The Grand Master did not hedge in reporting on the state of the Craft:

" . . . I would be less than honest if I were to tell you that all is well in our Masonic Fraternity . . . Many of our members are still talking platitudes . . . I do not espouse the theory that we are only one generation away from extinction . . . but if we do not accept the fact that we are continuing to lose ground we may get in that position . . . With all my enthusiasm for the Fraternity, I still have a feeling that many of our Lodges get by in spite of themselves . . . To me this is serious."

He recommended some relaxation of the strict prohibition against official Masonic involvement with any political action. After debate and amendment, Grand Lodge now excepts "school elections" from this ban, which was what the Grand Master really wanted.

He also recommended an increase in the per capita to finance the "Montana Masonic News." This was approved. The additional $1.25 per member will provide that the News is mailed to every member of each lodge, "for less than the cost of a hamburger."

After noting the excessive number of Masonic trials in several other jurisdictions, it is with pleasure that your reviewer records the two-sentence report of the Appeals and Grievances Committee:

"Your committee has had a tough year. We have spent no time and no money and have absolutely no complaints to report."

The Montana Masonic Foundation funds scholarships, of which 34 x $300 or $500 were awarded (258 applicants). Of these, 14 had no known Masonic connection.

"which the committee believes to be a good and advisable part of the program." Thirty-seven lodges participated in "Americanization and Public Schools" activities.

Our R.W. Bro. Groshaw attended the Annual Communication.

In his "devotional address" the Grand Chaplain quoted a translation of one of the magnificent poems from the ancient Vedas:

"Look to this day!

For it is life, the very life of life,

In its brief course lie all the verities

And realities of your existence:

The bliss of growth,

The Glory of Action,

The Splendour of Beauty,

For yesterday is but a Dream

And Tomorrow is only a Vision;

But today well-lived, makes

Every Yesterday a Dream of Happiness,

And every Tomorrow a Vision of Hope.

Two new lodges were started U.D. These dispensations were continued for the coming year.

A long series of constitutional amendments brought the Constitution up to date, as well as doing some housecleaning. The Grand Master ruled that "due to an extreme increase in postal rates" one mailing could contain lodge notices for two or three meetings and that notices of Masonic meetings might be placed in local papers as to time and place of meeting only. The contents of meetings "shall not be published."

There were active district programs with workshops for educational, ritual or officer training purposes.

The General and Benevolent accounts had satisfactory surpluses in the year. The Quinn Trust provided money for 7 x $1,000 scholarships (there will be 10 next year) and $400 to each lodge (up $50 each year since the Trust was established).

The Grand Master is the representative of our Grand Lodge near his jurisdiction.

A Special Communication during the 100th Anniversary of a United Methodist Church took the form of a cornerstone ceremony, appropriate memorabilia being placed in a sealed receptacle in the building.

The Grand Master was moderately optimistic. Two lodges "considered to be beyond help" are now "doing quite well." Suspensions npd "are not as bad as could be." Ritual is "good, bad and indifferent." Financial operations are just in the black.

The Public Schools' Committee promoted reference to the 100th Anniversary of action by members of Silver City Lodge No. 8 in persuading the territorial legislature in 1882 to pass a bill authorizing people to tax themselves for support of free public school education. They had been strongly supported by "the ladies" and had petitioned the legislature seven times before they were successful.

The Deputy Grand Master attended the Conference of Grand Masters of North America. One sentence in his report is cryptic: "All the politics in Washington are not in the Pentagon."

An important financial development was establishing "Perpetual Membership" to pay, annually in perpetuity, to the member's lodge the amount of dues (including Grand Lodge per capita) in effect at the date of such membership. Accumulated capital, under Grand Lodge jurisdiction, is segregated for accounting but not as to investment portfolio. Surprisingly, the required payment is related to age, involving a "multiplier" of present dues from 19 for age below 34 down to 15 for over age 52. There is also a "memorial" provision at half price for deceased brethren who were over 52 at death! As it is obvious that age has nothing whatever to do with the true cost of a perpetual annuity (one can, of course, recognize that inflation will augment annual out-of-pocket cost per member more for members with a longer life span) the fee structure seems to have been deliberately designed to attract older members. In any event in its inaugural year the scheme attracted 295 members and 21 memorial purchases and has $117,000 in its capital investment account.

The Lodge of Research reports 102 members. It held 4 meetings with two papers at each, one before and the other after dinner. A Masonic Museum is being started at Grand Lodge headquarters.

The Installation was attended by delegations, headed by the respective Grand Masters, from all the "down under" jurisdictions and there were solos, duets, choral numbers, organ music and four trumpeters for the fanfares. The Masonic motto of

New South Wales — “Juncta Juvant” — “United We Rejoice” — was fully evident. Later in the year, the Grand Master appointed a special Masonic Music Committee who will “investigate, obtain and collate” Masonic Music from throughout the world, arrange translations of non-English texts, set up a reference library and assist in organizing music in the jurisdiction.

In spite of the continuing losses (15 lodges lost by consolidations and a continuing annual membership shrinkage of 3%) the Grand Master remains convinced that a turn-around from this unending decline is brewing. He worked unceasingly to promote his slogan-thesis “Freemasonry is Good — Let’s Talk About It.” This was not restricted to his many lodge visits but included “Foundation Stones” of four Masonic Centres, civic receptions, interviews with the press and an interview on a national TV channel. He originally characterized the latter as “successful” but there must have been problems in what was broadcasted as he noted at the March quarterly:

“ . . . It is imperative — and I cannot emphasize this point too strongly — that in talking about Freemasonry, we must be sure that we know precisely what we are talking about . . . (My) interview was by no means a simple exercise because the interviewer was a highly skilled and capable reporter who not only probed deeply into our Obligations and Ceremonials but . . . questioned me as to (our) attitude concerning divorce and court actions . . . on religion (especially the Roman Catholic) . . . on our ‘fondness for secrecy’ and our ‘strange deeds in private’ . . .

“ . . . Following the film session, which took some hours, I felt a degree of apprehension, because such interviewers are very adept, when they so desire, in taking answers to questions out of their context . . . to suit the point they themselves decide to make.” (See also the review of Victoria)

In spite of, or perhaps because of, this public involvement, the Grand Master is strict as to candidates, reminding lodges that two members of the investigation committee must visit the home (including discussing Freemasonry with the wife), must note “traffic offences, other than parking,” and that no one who is living in a “de facto” marital relationship can be accepted as a candidate and that any such member should be charged with U.M.C.

Among other special events which the Grand Master records are his visit to Government House, his opening of a new hostel wing in the Hawkins Masonic Village, a trip to the Family Group Homes of the Thompson Masonic School, a dinner on the Centenary of the Freemasons’ Benevolent Institution, and the Armistice Service for Freemasons, their families and friends. One novelty was having a Grand Representative speak at the June Quarterly on the Grand Lodge which he represented.

The record of each Quarterly Communication includes reports of the monthly meetings of the Board and reports from the Inspectors of Workings with brief comments on activities in each of the numerous Masonic Districts.

The Board of Benevolence spent A$21,000 in relief and A$10,500 on “public charities.” This is exclusive of the Masonic Homes, which are separate corporate bodies, and the New South Wales Masonic Hospital.

Our jurisdiction is 1 of 12 to receive an extended review (for our 1980 Communication).

Each quarterly review has several pages listing gifts to the Grand Lodge Museum. A quick scan noted "a hand painted silk apron 30", "certificates and regalia of R.W. Bro. Thomas Reid who became P.G.S.W. in N.S.W., including his M.M. Certificate from England dated 1875," and "M.M. apron, Netherlands — Bro. R. M. F. P. F. deVilleneuve Rose Croix apron and sash Netherlands constitution, Masonic passport."

The skipper of the America's Cup Challenge Yacht "Australia" was R.W. Bro. James Hardy, P.D.G.M. There were messages of encouragement to him from two of the Quarterly Communications.

The new lodge is No. 445 Waikato Lodge of Research.

In spite of what must be the record for return on investments of 14.21%, Grand Lodge has been using some specific reserves to cover operating deficits in recent years. These special funds are now exhausted. The per capita fee was increased from NZ$5 to NZ$9.

The regulations for dress at Grand Lodge were simplified and liberalized, providing reasonable options to those not officers of Grand Lodge.

The Grand Lodges of Alaska and of West Columbia were recognized.

The tenure of executive officers was changed, providing a 5-year term and non-eligibility for reappointment. Appointments are made by the Grand Master, assisted by a select committee of Provincial Grand Masters.

The Central Publicity Committee is increasingly active. A sub-committee has filled orders for 120 information road signs. A folder on the Grand Lodge Insurance Scheme has been prepared. A watching brief is maintained on critical comment by the media, and recommendations made as to desirable action. Another sub-committee launched a mentor program for personalized Masonic Education, with loose-leaf notes on such topics as "Religion and the Craft," "Wives and the Craft," "The Volume of the Sacred Law," etc. Future plans include a national slogan "Freemasonry — Yours for the Asking," increased local representation, training courses for officers, helping lodge secretaries, encouragement of public opinion favourable to the Craft.

The Kirkpatrick House for girls had 8 residents, 2 applications and significant unoccupied space. Expenses were NZ$48,000. The Board of Benevolence awarded 19 bursaries and an additional 18 "Special Tertiary Bursaries." The Papakura Masonic Home had an operating surplus. It operates in association with the Department of Social Welfare.

Here are some excerpts from the Grand Master's Address after his reinstallation:

" . . . The real value of Freemasonry to Society in these divided times will ultimately come through the conduct and way of life of its individual members. And the value to each individual member will only become evident when he allows the spiritual nature of our teachings to transform his way of thinking about the destiny of man generally and about himself in particular. With this transformation will come . . . the serenity (for) true happiness . . .

This whole concept must start with (a pride) in Freemasonry, to be seen as a man of principle, who is never ashamed to stand up for . . . what he feels is right. These are the qualities which will attract the worthy young men we seek."

Virgin Lodge No. 3, Halifax, started their 200th Anniversary Celebrations in January. The Grand Master attended their "Birthday Supper" at the Hotel Nova Scotian. Special programs are scheduled for each month of the year.

The Advisory Board held 6 meetings, with emphasis on finances as Grand Lodge revenue of $43,000 was $6,000 short of expenses. A Capital Fund was started, to be administered by the Board of Finance.

The Masonic Foundation of Nova Scotia divided its $3,400 revenue among 12 listed charities.

The Grand Lodge banquet was at noon, addressed by M.W. Bro. Laningham of Virginia, who praised Canadian-U.S. relations. The Grand Lodge Ball was the same evening, and the Divine Service the following morning in which the Grand Chaplain gave the sermon. He used the story of Nehemiah to illustrate the importance of getting things done, one at a time if necessary:

" . . . The Masonic Order needs all kinds of different people with different talents to restore it to new life and provide it with new blood from time to time, just as Nehemiah needed all kinds of different people to restore Jerusalem to new life."

Constitutional amendments to reduce lodge mailings to permit two summonses to be mailed together and even to permit a single notice per year (except for ballot) were defeated.

The Home now houses 16 men and 44 women and there is a waiting list. It is well run and there are many activities. The guests and staff are preparing a cook book for sale. A lodge meeting was held at the Home by dispensation. Fire evacuation plans are established. The "Red Barn Auction" raised over $2,000. The cost was $8,370 per person (the lowest your reviewer has seen when infirmary services are included). The year had a small financial surplus and the endowment stands at $1.85 million.

There were 13 Emergent Communications: 1 High School cornerstone, 2 Masonic building dedications and 10 "Rededications" at special anniversaries and the like.

M.W. Bro. Polk attended the Annual Communication. Grand Lodge had suffered severe loss when both the D.G.M. and the S.G.W. died during the year. Elections brought the previous Grand Treasurer (who is also the Deputy for Ohio in the Scottish Rite) to the Grand Mastership and advanced the other brethren in the long "line" two spaces, e.g. the J.G.W. became D.G.M.

The membership statistics are discouraging. The "net loss" is 300 higher than last year, but the true figure is nearer 1,000 as there were over 700 more affiliations than in 1980. Two lodges were lost by amalgamation and Grand Lodge approved a dispensation for Copper Penny Lodge. Each of the petitioners had contributed 100 copper pennies towards building costs.

The Grand Master attended a "most impressive annual event" which includes a visit of the Grand Master of the District of Columbia to Marion Lodge No. 70, the "traditional" conferral of the M.M. degree at 4:30 a.m., followed by breakfast, a memorial service, and wreath placing at the Harding Memorial.

The Grand Secretary lists over 2,300 membership awards including eleven brethren who had joined 75 years ago. Current accounts were just in the black for the year. The pension scheme for Grand Lodge employees was improved. The Museum will receive financial help from special sources.

Twenty-nine students at as many different institutions each received $500 scholarships. Two of these, one in medicine and the other in nursing, also assist the medical staff at the Masonic Home.

The Grand Lodge of Alaska was recognized. No action was taken on Spain.

The Masonic Home has 472 residents, average age 82. Costs are stated to be $40 per day per resident. This would make the total just under $8 million for the year. Only 7% comes directly from current Grand Lodge funds, the rest is from the endowments and from the residents' assets transferred to the Home.

The new Grand Master proposes "Freemasonry is as Freemasons are" as the slogan for the year, and advocates that special events, such as his visits, be used to publicly acknowledge local Masonic membership.

A change in the date of the Annual Communication made this a fourteen-month term of office and, presumably, of statistics and accounts.

There were twelve Special Communications. Nine involved cornerstones (including a high school) and four dedications. Eight lodges were lost by consolidations.

The serious problems in this jurisdiction regretfully extend to personal incompatibilities. Your reviewer would have thought this incredible if it were not documented in the Proceedings. The Deputy for Oklahoma in the Scottish Rite, a very distinguished and senior member of the Craft, died. His successor was appointed by the Sovereign Grand Commander, but was, obviously, persona non grata to the Grand Master, who "felt the appointment did not serve the best interests of all Masonry in Oklahoma" and who asked for withdrawal of the appointment. When Ill. Bro. Clausen declined (there is no suspicion even that the appointee was not in fully good Masonic standing in the Craft), the Grand Master issued an edict, stating that the "Sovereign Grand Commander has denied the absolute authority of Grand Lodge over all Masonry in Oklahoma" and ordering "any activity" in the Scottish Rite prohibited to all Master Masons in the jurisdiction, although he stopped short of barring membership in the Rite. The edict remained in effect for a month, during which the appointee submitted his resignation to the Sovereign Grand Commander. Your reviewer finds the whole episode deeply discouraging and very sad.

A resolution was passed to make the Public Schools Committee a permanent standing committee of Grand Lodge. Also approved was automatic indefinite suspension of a member convicted, or entering a plea of guilty, in "a court of final resort." But a provision for "involuntary suspension" when a felony charge was laid was defeated.

The Grand Lodge of Alaska was recognized.

The Hospital Services Committee is doing a good job at several hospitals, writing letters for patients, attending to their personal business transactions and the like.

There were Occasional Communications for cornerstones of a grade school and for a Temple, and for dedicating an elementary school.

The Grand Master reported: "I am sure my critics found me a little liberal at times. I would like to think of myself as progressive." He is deeply concerned with the future of Freemasonry and discussed his concerns at district meetings, which he "insisted be held down to approx. 1 hour (to give) everyone an opportunity to visit after the meeting and still not be late arriving home." He appointed several new D.D.G.M.s as he had "long felt that a District Deputy should serve no more than 5 years." He held two meetings with heads of concordant bodies. He ruled that a lodge could join a community booster club "as long as there was nothing in (its) bylaws which would be in conflict with . . . Freemasonry," also that lodges could erect signs and place ads in newspapers giving dates and places of meetings.

The Grand Orator advocated action:

"On the sands of hesitation, bleach the bones of countless thousands Who upon the dawn of victory, sat down to rest, and resting died."

". . . T.N.T. are initials for what was once a most explosive force . . . But Brethren, I submit to you that T.N.T. may still stand for the most explosive force known to mankind, when it encourages good people to put their Masonry into action and the initials stand for TODAY, NOT TOMORROW."

Two lodges were lost by consolidation. The Grand Secretary printed a Special Dispensation from 1978 (not previously published in Proceedings) following a charter surrender, that other lodges could deal with applications for affiliation of its members "waiving the usual investigation and time before ballot."

"Education assistance" of over $47,000 was given some 27 students. The Masonic and Eastern Star Home had 86 residents (cost of $14,700 each per year). Receipts of $1.4 million (54% from endowments, 25% from residents) were $200,000 over expenditures.

A chapter of the History of Grand Lodge is printed at the end of the Proceedings. The current text (10 pages) is for the year 1977-78.

The celebration of 250 years of great Masonic activity identifies a very special accomplishment. The Special Communication, spread over five days commencing on summer St. John's Day, WAS special, including the unveiling of a statue of "Benjamin Franklin - Craftsman" operating a printing press. A buffet luncheon was provided in the Grand Ballroom of the Sheraton Hotel "for all Masons and their families attending the parade and dedication." Following dedication of the statue and its presentation to the City of Philadelphia "where lodges of Freemasons were first erected in America," the Grand Master's Address stated the fundamental tenets of our Order. These need to be publicly stated:

"... Freemasonry, rooted in antiquity, is a way of life based upon the Fatherhood of God, the Brotherhood of Man and the Immortality of the Soul. The Holy Bible lies upon its altars and no Masonic function begins without a prayer to God. It is not a religion, however, and no true Freemason will look upon it as a substitute for his church, temple or synagogue. Neither is it a secret society, nor secretive as to its purpose, for it seeks but to make good men better . . .

. . . Freemasonry awaits all free men of lawful age and good report, but solicits none. It admits men of their own free will and accord and strives to teach them Brotherhood and unity. Speculating with the tools of operative masons, it makes builders of good character of all men who are willing to learn the craft . . . Freemasons are expected to walk in the way of charity, and travel in peace and harmony, to render aid to the poor . . .

. . . Our celebration is the 250th Anniversary of Freemasonry in Pennsylvania. It was on June 24, 1731 that the first Provincial Grand Lodge of Freemasons was erected in the City of Philadelphia at the Old Tun Tavern.

. . . We have been asked, many times, why (a statue of) Benjamin Franklin? Why at his printing press? Why a Craftsman? Why? We'll tell you why.

Benjamin Franklin was the Grand Master of that first Grand Lodge in 1734. In 1749 he served again as Grand Master, proof indeed of his love for the Fraternity of Freemasons and his dedication to its precepts and principles. That he was a craftsman cannot be denied . . . The printing press demonstrates his love of communicating with his fellowmen . . . It was on the pages of his Pennsylvania Gazette that he recorded the existence of (Masonic) Lodges and established for all time the antiquity of Pennsylvania Freemasonry . . ."

You will find excerpts from two other pertinent speeches given during this Communication at the end of these reviews.

M.W. Bro. Polk attended the December Quarterly Communication.

A decision by the Grand Master required the appointment of a "Committee on Visitation" in each lodge to visit the sick, needy and bereaved of present and past lodge brethren, to personally contact members who have attended less than twice a year, to personally visit local and phone or write more distant brethren who are "in danger" of being suspended, and to maintain contact with families of brethren or dependents in the Masonic Home. In each case a report with recommendations for further action is to be made to the lodge. The names of the committee are to appear on all lodge notices with the phone number of the chairman. Recommended size of the committee is 1 per 100 members. Another decision dealt with applicants who had been rejected at least 10 years ago and now reapply to another lodge. The latter must still check as to objection in the first lodge, but if there is objection, a Grand Lodge Committee will determine whether the objection is "truly Masonic."

The Code was revised to give concurrent jurisdiction for applications throughout the State, but a committee report from the lodge of nearest jurisdiction is required before acceptance and ballot.

The Grand Lodge of Espirito Santo (Brazil) was recognized.

There are serious problems with the main Temple. The structure is being damaged by construction of a major tunnel and there was further damage from a violent storm. For years there had been neighbourhood problems with mugging, theft and crime. The future of the magnificent old building is a matter of great concern.

A student loan program is very active. Some $100,000 new loans were approved during the year and the total outstanding is just under $250,000. Loans are subject to repayment after graduation. "The repayments are slow but we keep trying."

Computerization of Grand Lodge records is settling down towards comprehensive information in the third year of operation.

As usual the Proceedings give detailed and extensive information on the Masonic Home, which is one of the largest of its kind in the U.S. On the average, there were 332 guests in "skilled" facilities, 126 in "intermediate" care, and 229 others. Some items from the many tables: 2,800 x-rays, 80,800 physiotherapy treatments, 750 electrocardiograms, 70,000 prescriptions; and from the food service: 98,000 lb. beef, 55,000 lb. pork, 55,000 lb. chicken. There were 1,000 permanent waves, 9,000 shampoos and sets, and 2,700 haircuts for the men. Medicare paid 26% of the $12 million operating expenses. Very extensive renovations and improvements are continually in progress, e.g. $1 million for a modern fire prevention and control system.

Grand Lodge approved new admission policies which give equal rights to Prince Hall Masons and their families and included numerous provisions for administration on a "non-discriminatory basis." There had been the bureaucratic problems under the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and legal advice had been sought.

The new Grand Master, in his inaugural Address, set out a "liberal" policy. He advocated activities with wives and families after meetings and, to shorten formal meeting time, permitted a summary of the minutes instead of the full text. He suggested youth organizations be encouraged to provide post-lodge programs.

"... I urge every Masonic Lodge to become more active in community affairs, to let our friends and neighbors know that we are Masons and what we stand for . . . The visible influence of Freemasons is desperately needed in every town and city in this great State . . .”

He is starting a Pennsylvania Youth Foundation, with headquarters in the Patton Complex and invited every appendent Order to join. He will convene a “Masonic Congress” with appendent Orders to deal with mutual problems.

Gain 8

The gain in membership was cemented by 10 new members in Alexandra Lodge No. 5. Membership certificates were personally presented by the Grand Master to these Master Masons during his official visit to this lodge, which accounted for 10 of the 35 raisings in the jurisdiction.

At the opening of Grand Lodge, a letter of regret for absence was read from M.W. Bro. R. A. Gordon who, as Grand Master in 1932, was entering his 50th year since becoming Grand Master.

The Grand Master visited each of his lodges at least once and attended many functions including the 100th Anniversary Banquet and Dance of the Knights of Columbus, the St. Andrew's Banquet on November 30th, three New Years' Levees and principal functions of concordant bodies.

M.W. Bro. Gordon L. Bennett addressed Grand Lodge on the abiding principles which remain in Freemasonry in the changes of the modern world, listing these as moral integrity, brotherhood and compassion:

“. . . There is nothing in the beliefs of Freemasonry that cannot be shouted from the roof-tops. This is the message which, as Masons, we must get to the people. We don't often enough tell people who we are and for what we stand . . .

Today we live in a global village, — nothing can happen to another which won't affect you and me . . . Freemasonry must constantly affirm the belief that 'mankind is indivisible.' We must learn to live together if we are going to live at all.”

Speaking at the luncheon, Bro. Wood took the text of the old song to recommend “Accentuate the positive, eliminate the negative, latch on to the affirmative and:

“. . . Finally 'And don't mess with Mr. In-Between' . . . (Being) 'The Great Silent Majority' is messing with Mr. In-Between, because we do not live up to the things that we profess and do not support the things that we believe in.”

He told the story of the young boy taken by this father to a great cathedral and who was much impressed by the stained glass windows which, his father had told him, were pictures of Saints. When his elder brother later asked him "What is a Saint" the youngster answered "A Saint is a person the light shines through."

Finances were in balance for the year. Twenty scholarships were awarded for a total of $4,500.

Three lodges were lost by amalgamation but there is a new lodge, "La Loge Esperance" sponsored by Denechau Lodge No. 80. Several lodges appear to be conferring degrees in French. Thought is being given to forming a new bilingual research lodge. It is only in this manner that more than a shadow of Masonry can survive. Material has to be available for unilingually French candidates.

The financial bind of the Montreal Temple remains:

"... Our appeal to the Superior Court of Quebec relative to real estate taxes seems to have entered into the log jam of our judicial system... No date has been set down by the court for our hearing. (We are still) before the Board of Revision. This was a phase we had completed 6½ years ago."

The "Save the Temple" campaign is being revived on a three-year pledge basis. The overall financial effect on Grand Lodge fund liquidity and, indeed, veracity is unchanged:

"... the Balance Sheet indicates capital funds of . . . $1,221,384 (including) $826,500 loaned to the Masonic Foundation of Quebec . . . the (real) capital is $304,884, of which only $38,757 pertains to the general fund, (and) the remainder to the Benevolent and Certificates of Indebtedness Funds."

On happier notes, the seventh ecumenical Divine Service was very successful, and special projects in individual districts have sparked well worthwhile action e.g. a "talking books" program of tapes and supplying tape recorders to the Montreal Association for the Blind by Montreal District 2. The "Charities Fund," started in 1969, now has a capital of $0.5 million.

An Occasional Communication of Grand Lodge on March 20 received the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Degree Team. Nine Past Grand Masters were present for their degree conferral. The visit had been especially arranged by the Grand Master as a "demonstration" of excellent work and to support his contention that lodge attendance was strongly influenced by good degree performance.

The Grand Master accompanied brethren of Harmony Lodge No. 9 to Plymouth, England, where they visited Harmony Lodge No. 156, E.R. Later he was received at the June Quarterly meeting of the Grand Lodge of England.

Grand Lodge operates under a Board of Managers which meets monthly, except during the summer. Grand Lodge operated with a small surplus. The Masonic Home Fund (used for benevolence, there is no Home) continues to grow with assets well over $1.9 million. Grand Lodge carries $1 million comprehensive liability insurance.

The Committee on the Status of the Craft is concerned with the "alarming" continuing decrease in membership. It is "firmly convinced that one of our major failures is a lack of publicity to the general public." They recognize the factor of "a mobile society" and note that over 50% of the membership are age 60 or over. "We are firmly convinced that the honeymoon is over, and definitely time we went back to work in the vineyard of masonry." The "Rhode Island Freemason" has provided good communication within the fraternity — but that is not enough.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence deals with the attempts to unite the various Masonic Grand Lodges and Orients in France. It suggests that, in view of "the struggle going on within Masonry in France" that developments be observed carefully and with caution.

Lodges were canvassed as to alteration in the regulations dealing with alcohol. No change was recommended.

M.W. Bro. Polk attended the Annual Communication and, with other visitors of Most Worshipful rank, was made an Honorary Past Grand Master.

The Grand Master attended and spoke at a 100th Anniversary Celebration of the Knights of Columbus as well as at the B.O.P. Elks. At a Church Service, which was provincially televised and attended by "Masons from all parts of the province" and by Youth groups, he read a lesson and sang a solo.

Dealing with Concordant and Appendant Bodies, he "commended" the conclusions of a special committee that while "Formal recognition . . . is not provided for within our Constitution" . . . "there is a significant role being filled by these bodies in advancing the objectives of Masonry . . . Craft lodges may establish informal channels of communication . . . Discussion (within the lodge) of Masonic projects and activities involving the Masonic Bodies . . . is entirely permissible."

The Committee on the Condition of Masonry ranks the state of individual lodges as "Excellent," "Good," "Fair," "Poor." This year's appraisal is poorer than last year and "prospects for future" show further loss with "excellent" dropping from 26 to 21 and "poor" increasing from 9 to 22.

The report of the Committee on Finance is explicit. The per capita has to be raised (it was, from $6 to $9). "Life membership" with automatic granting in some lodges with age and membership length has got out of hand so that "a sound and workable system" has to be devised. Benevolent and related funds have not been charged with their overhead. The General Fund can no longer take this drain. They recognize that the "Tracing Board" publication is "an important program activity of Grand Lodge" and "reaffirms" this for future status.

A constitutional amendment to allow notices for two months in one mailing was defeated.

Recognition was withdrawn from the Grand Lodge of Guanabara (Brazil) in light of its alleged contact with the illicit Italian P2 organization.

In addition to the above lodges, eight new lodges were formed during the year - 1 in the Shetlands, 3 in Nigeria and 1 each in Trinidad, Bahamas, South Africa and Ghana. The most recent proposal was for Meridian Lodge No. 1742, located in Umuahia, in Nigeria. Its colour of lodge clothing is green, white and red.

Annual benevolent grants are listed — 522 such grants total £91,125 and it is noted that 6 of these go to recipients in Pakistan where all the lodges are now dormant. The maximum grant was £340 and the smallest £62. The majority were between £200 and £100. In addition, 25 awards of £140 each went to children of brethren or deceased brethren to further their education.

The Grand Lodge of Alaska was recognized.

Many distinguished visitors were received, including a deputation from the Grand Lodge of New Jersey who attended the August Quarterly.

The problems as to the status of Grand Lodge appointments by Lodge Mother Kilwinning No. 0 remain unresolved. This was an item at each of the Communications. The fact seems to be that two groups of responsible brethren are each convinced that they are right and the other wrong.

Renovation or disposition of valuable Grand Lodge property on George Street in Edinburgh required close attention from the finance committee so as to minimize capital gain taxes and / or raise money at minimum rates. The preferred solution involved purchase by the Benevolent Fund as an investment for £400,000 prior to refurbishment, and handling other financing through this fund.

At the Festival of St. Andrew, the Toast to Grand Lodge and the Grand Master Mason was proposed by Bro. Gustaf Piehl, Pro Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Sweden. Other Toasts were to Provincial and District Grand Lodges and to Daughter Lodges. Concluding the latter Toast, Bro. Dickson quoted from the F.C. Charge as given in his Mother Lodge:

“Charity in giving availeth much, charity in service surpasseth all. The one may be cold and lifeless like the image on the coin it bestows; the other, rich in love and pulsing with life, is an acceptable offering the odour of whose incense rises to the very gates of Heaven itself.”

The material at hand is the 1981 Year Book. There is a new editor and, while a high quality is maintained, more material (especially the quotations) is (probably properly) in Afrikaans in which your reviewer is not competent.

The figures above are derived from an excellent directory of lodges. The majority of lodges have membership in the 25-35 range. The largest lodge is Star of the East No. 28, with 83 members; the smallest Diamond Lodge No. 22, with 10. Twelve lodges have less than 20 members.

The Grand Master's message includes reference to the publicity given to the so-called Lodge P2 in Italy.

Especial attention is given to the Grand Master's awards of the Order of Service to Masonry, which is “the highest honour” in the jurisdiction.

During Grand Lodge sessions, a suggested ritual change to incorporate all the Installed Master's Ceremony, except the actual seating of the new W.M., into a Lodge of Master Masons was rejected. Recognition was withdrawn from the old Grand Lodge of Belgium and accorded the new Regular Grand Lodge. The Flag Ceremony, introduced by M.W. Bro. Gasson after his visit to the U.S., is viewed as an important forward step. The presentation of both the Canadian and U.S. flags at Grand Lodge in Saskatchewan is reported verbatim.

Special articles include a biography of R.W. Bro. Dr. H. M. Dalebout, O.S.M., who served as Provincial Grand Master of the Southern Division before becoming Assistant Grand Master. Between the Scottish Rite and the York Rite he holds 44 degrees. He has been responsible for translation into Afrikaans of the Craft rituals in the Scottish constitution as well as the Royal Arch and the Mark Degrees. He retired from the Cape Education Department and is a noted scholar.

A major article is on "Our Netherlandic and French Heritage," going back to 1729. The roots develop with the founding of the Lodge, De Goede Hoop in 1772, whose original S.W., J.W., Secy., and Treasurer were raised at the founding meeting together with five new Entered Apprentices. The first Worshipful Master, W. Bro. Abraham Chiron served for five years in that chair. The lodge continued for nine years, providing "hospitality for the hundreds of brethren travelling between Europe and the East," and then, apparently ceased operations as it "was scratched from the Roll of the Netherlands in 1785." The lodge, at least in name, was revived under the present Grand Lodge of South Africa as their No. 1.

The first new lodge since 1978, Concordia No. 226, was dedicated. Three lodges were lost by consolidations.

Constitutional amendments were passed to reorganize the Board of General Purposes, providing for staggered terms for both elected and appointed members, age limit of 70 on election or appointment, and a minimum fixed quota for "country members" (those living more than 33 km from the General Post Office in Adelaide).

The Board considered "that it is in the spiritual and social environment of the lodges where attendances are being lost," and lists uninteresting meetings, indifferent performance of work, stereotyped Festive Boards with not enough mingling, new members not looked after, no community work, lack of attractiveness of buildings (interior and exterior), need for better ceremonies, installations and speakers, non-communication of what is occurring within the Craft, as things to be worked on and studied.

The Grand Lecturer is heading-up preparing an exceptional correspondence course. For a A$25 fee to cover printing and postage this will comprise sections on the origin and history of Freemasonry; the philosophy, principles and ethics of Freemasonry; the symbolism of Freemasonry; Masonic jurisprudence; the Freemason's life; the Volumes of the Sacred Law; the adviser in the lodge. "We expect that the numbers will have to be limited to about 100 a year . . . The brethren who do take part in this course will do so in the interests of Freemasonry and their lodges in general and in their own interest in particular. The end result cannot fail to be of benefit to the whole jurisdiction." The outline in the Proceedings impressed your reviewer greatly.

"Freemasons' Hall" in Adelaide has become a visible traditional symbol of the Craft to the public as well as to the brethren. Dating from 1927, it fails to meet present requirements for safety, convenience, facilities, and decor. Extensive studies, reported at both Communications as well as at a Special Communication devoted solely to this matter, led to the conclusion that although at least A$3 million will be required for any reasonable restoration, it would cost A$8 million to build new today and no one has any "satisfactory" alternative, especially in view of the up-coming centenary of the jurisdiction. It will be far from easy, but the machinery for detailed estimates and planning plus approval in principle was approved by Grand Lodge.

The Grand Master invited all the brethren who had been initiated during the year to meet Grand Lodge officers informally at Freemasons' Hall on November 20th:

"A notice has gone to all Lodges about this. I hope you will encourage your brethren to come. If any of them seem shy about it, I would be very happy to have them accompanied by their sponsor or an officer of the Lodge."

Any of us who have seen anything of Masonry first hand "down under" know what a vital part Masonic Homes play in the working of the Craft. These operate as separate entities in full financial co-operation with the government but with tremendous personal input from the fraternity. It was "with a great deal of satisfaction" that the Grand Master announced the purchase of 21 acres in the suburbs as a site for a new Home complex for the aged. Thanks in large measure to a bequest residential accommodation at the "Colonel Light Gardens Masonic Homes" has been upgraded. Expenditures of "Masonic Memorial Homes Trust Inc." of A$2 million were covered 64% by resident contributions and 33% by government subsidies.

Cornerstones were laid in two Masonic buildings during Special Communications.

Our M.W. Bro. Howard Polk attended the Annual Communication.

One lodge was lost by consolidation but two new ones started by dispensation with charters approved at Grand Lodge. Two technical requirements are of interest. The lodges may not meet between the surrender of their dispensations at Grand Lodge and their subsequent constitution. All members are automatically demitted in good standing from their previous lodges as of the date of constitution.

The Grand Master wrote to each new M.M. whose name was supplied by the lodge secretary, as well as a "personal" letter to more than 3,000 members in arrears. "This was a tremendous help but we still erased 1,487 members." He strongly recommended an increase in the per capita from $2.50 to $3.50 and this was approved. A resolution to increase the per capita for Masonic relief from $1.50 to $3 was defeated as was a resolution to establish state-wide concurrent jurisdiction of lodges.

Trial Commission Reports effected 15 expulsions, 7 acquittals with 14 more charges pending. One lodge laid charges against two of its members, both of which were dismissed by the Commission. The same lodge laid a charge against its Worshipful Master, which the Commission dismissed on the ground that a W.M. cannot be tried by his lodge. The regulations re trials are under study for revision. Your reviewer would respectfully concur that something needs to be done, including a better guarding of the portals, and a reduction in occasional pettiness.

A comprehensive study of the Ahiman Rezon (Masonic Code) is also underway. "There are many needed changes."

Miss Pauline Mackey presented a gift of books and artifacts of her great-grandfather, Albert G. Mackey, to the Charleston County Masonic Association. These will be on display in the library-museum of the new Masonic Temple, the room being dedicated and named for A. G. Mackey who was W.M. of Solomon Lodge No. 1 in 1843.

The Regular Grand Lodge of Belgium was recognized. Action was deferred on some of the Brazilian State Grand Lodges.

A very successful workshop was attended by 90% of the W.M.s of the State. Over 300 lodges participated in a hospital visitation program.

The Board of General Purposes meets monthly as a management committee for Grand Lodge. Revenue was A$10,611 in excess of expense of A$36,000 in General Fund and A$9,700 in excess of outlay A$13,000 in benevolence.

The Board was asked to approve production of a simplified form of music for use "by unqualified organists who lack the experience to play from the current hymnal." All the basic work has been done but the Board did not feel they could justify the expense.

At Grand Lodge amendments to the ritual deleting the Ancient Penalties and adopting amendments previously circulated were approved "after fairly lengthy debate."

A Centenary Fund was started with per capita contributions. Distribution eventually will give sizable grants "to establish Masonic Homes for the Aged on the Northwest Coast," "to be paid to a building committee (for) administrative headquarters for Grand Lodge," and "to the Peace Haven Committee of Management for a special purpose memorial."

Work in and with Masonic Homes continue to be a major activity. These are, as is usual "down under," separate incorporations with full government support but with outstanding extra input from the Craft.

The Grand Master began his third year in office.

The view of the Grand Master that any meeting at which attendance was predicated ultimately on Craft membership came strictly under the Grand Lodge prohibition of alcoholic beverages (except for "ceremonial" wine in certain degrees) led to directives to Shrine Clubs and to charges against one Shrine Club President. When this was coupled with twenty-one separate trial commission reports, the Proceedings tended to give, it is hoped erroneously, the impression that discipline was a more important part of the Annual Communication than it should have been.

Two of the cases do merit comment. In one, a brother, now resident in Massachusetts and with lodge membership in both Massachusetts and Tennessee, was suspended U.M.C. in Tennessee, and the Grand Secretary of Massachusetts advised. The Grand Master of Massachusetts ordered only a reprimand in the Massachusetts lodge. The Grand Master of Tennessee therefore withdrew approval of dual membership as between the two Grand Lodges involved. In the other, the Grand Master removed a Worshipful Master from office and suspended him for one year following an original criminal charge of "felonious assault" and sentence under a reduced charge by plea bargaining. The brother appealed and the trial commission held that he was unquestionably guilty of felonious assault (full details are printed) and ordered indefinite suspension so that "he should never be allowed to again darken the door of a Masonic Lodge."

There are 24 brethren listed as having been M.M.s for 70 or more years. The record (and it may well be the record) is Bro. Charles F. Bayless who was raised on July 28th, 1899 — nearly 83 years a M.M. as of the date cited.

Per capita was increased from $3 to $4.25 as expenditures exceeded revenue and are increasing.

The Insurance Committee gained status as a permanent committee of Grand Lodge. Coverage on the main Temple is $4.5 million.

The Grande Loja do Estrado do Espirito Santo (Brazil) was recognized.

The Fraternal Correspondence Report gives, in its fourteen pages, very brief reports on 31 jurisdictions. Our Grand Lodge is not included.

There were seventeen "Special Representations" of Grand Lodge, eight for leveling cornerstones (including a City Hall, a Police Station, two High Schools and a College) and nine for lodge dedications.

The Grand Orator asked three questions:

"One — Is my Lodge better because I am a member of it?

Two — Am I a better man because I am a Mason?

Three — Is my family better off because of Masonry?

... The greatest importance should be attached to the family. It is within the family circle that we first learn the principles of honesty, respect for authority. Education begins in the home. Reverence before God and religion must be exemplified in the home to be promulgated. Moral teaching and example are stronger when they have importance attached to them in the family . . ."

There are more speeches, more stories, more anecdotes in the Proceedings this year than your reviewer has seen previously, e.g. 92-year old Bro. Ramey convulsed Grand Lodge with hilarious experiences in trying to promote wild bird breeding.

The Grand Master ruled that a lodge could donate a scoreboard to a High School but could not identify it as donated by Masons, that a Lions Club could not meet in a Lodge Hall, and that a Rainbow Assembly could not hold a slumber party in a Lodge Hall. A recommendation was approved that a Mason, a member of a Texas lodge, who was expelled or suspended in another jurisdiction in amity was automatically under similar disability in Texas.

Three lodges were lost by amalgamation, but two new lodges were chartered.

The Grand Lodge Library seems impressive. There were over 35,000 volumes, nearly 1,000 visitors and over 12,000 copies made "for research." There are some seven pages listing museum and library acquisitions during the year.

The Home and School has assets of $18.5 million ($4 million fixed). Income, including substantial donations, was $3 million and expenses $1.9 million, excluding depreciation. Residents in the school dropped from 121 to 106 during the year and widows in the old folks home from 61 to 55. The school is particularly proud of its scholastic and athletic standing.

The Grand Master injected a personal measure of considered dynamism into his work:

"I have had the opportunity . . . to work intimately in many facets of our Fraternity which other Grand Masters have not had the opportunity to do . . . I have not maintained the status quo, but looked to the future, because the future is the hope of Utah Masonry . . .

. . . I discussed with you . . . a theme 'Reach Out and Help Someone,' to work locally to help and assist those in need both within and without the Craft. You have performed yeoman service and you and our Symbolic Lodges are the better for it . . .

. . . 14 official visitations were made (covering) our 31 Lodges . . . The general format was modified significantly as the oration, given by the Grand Orator or his designee, was presented at the dinner with the ladies, rather than in the tyled meeting . . . This (allowed) our ladies and guests to learn more of the reasons that each of us is as enthused with Masonry as he is. Additionally 50-year pins and other presentations were made at the dinners that the recipients could receive the full approbation of those in attendance. At each of these I was accompanied by a full complement of my officer corps and by many Past Grand Masters and their wives."

The Grand Master's Church, Wasatch Presbyterian, in Salt Lake City, held a "Masonic Appreciation Sunday," honouring him as well as a Past Grand Master and the S.G.I.G. for Utah of the Scottish Rite who is a member of the same congregation.

The Grand Master reorganized the Masonic Foundation of Utah (assets $1.5 million):

"(Because of) modifications to the Internal Revenue Code . . . the Foundation expends (much) of its interest income supporting charities which have no logical relationship to the Fraternity . . .

. . . I discovered that the Foundation was relying on a 1970 legal opinion and advice of friends . . . That situation was intolerable and I sought the most competent available legal counsel . . . A revision has been made in the legal status of the Foundation which should exempt it from the payment of any income taxes whatsoever and (it is seeking) refunds of taxes paid in some prior years."

(M.W. Bro. Axland is a former President of the Salt Lake County Bar Association.)

The representatives of Youth organizations presented at Grand Lodge were the top young people themselves, not "the adult leadership who act solely in an advisory capacity."

A resolution was passed to permit either a public or a tyled installation of Grand Lodge Officers at the discretion of the Grand Master-elect and similarly for lodge installations at the discretion of the Worshipful Master-elect.

The per capita was raised from $5.75 to $8 plus $1 per degree conferred plus $1 for each raising for the George Washington Memorial Association.

Graveside Masonic Services appear to be normal practice in Utah. Proper dress is specified in the code:

"... black or dark clothing, a white shirt and dark tie, a black or dark hat, and a plain white apron, which must be worn outside of the coat or overcoat."

Thus, even the Grand Master is clothed as an E.A. on these occasions.

As would be expected under M.W. Bro. Axland, the Committee on Masonic Education and the Lodge of Research were very active. The Grand Master remained the focus of a persevering purpose:

"It is a truism that perception becomes reality and if our fellow men perceive Masonry as a dying and ineffectual organization, the organization will mirror that perception. Certainly, I do not believe either of these conditions prevail, but each of us must renew his personal effort to improve his Lodge room, his Temple, his personal conduct that the light of Masonry may shine to illuminate the dark recesses of the world of the profane and, thus, renew and encourage Masonic understanding. By reaching out and helping someone, automatically, one helps himself and our Fraternity."

You will find the conclusion of M.W. Bro. Axland's Address at the beginning of these reviews.

M.W. Bro. Polk attended the Annual Communication and was one of several visitors to address Grand Lodge.

The Grand Master had attended each of the 13 district meetings. He believed that Masonic Education holds "a vital key" to the future success of Vermont Freemasonry. With some of his officers he had attended "Brotherhood Night" with New Hampshire and Massachusetts brethren in Portsmouth, N.H.

A consolidated fire insurance scheme for lodges is available. So far, only 15 lodges have taken advantage of it.

The Mandigo property in Pittsfield has been offered by Mrs. Mandigo for use as a Masonic Home. Negotiations are going on. "There is some reluctance on the part of your Trustees to commit Grand Lodge . . . to the expense of running a Masonic Home."

A ritual for Table Lodges is being prepared.

An amalgamation of 2 lodges was approved at Grand Lodge.

Plans for the 1994 Bicentennial are being started. The per capita was set at $6.10 with the 10¢ to start a bicentennial fund. DeMolay gets 25¢ and "the Green Mountain Mason" 60¢ of the per capita.

The Grand Historian reported briefly on Masonic books:

“One of the most interesting books published by the Masonic Book Club . . . ‘Three Distinct Knocks and Jachin and Boaz’ . . . is two different exposures of Masonry written in the 1700’s . . . If it had not been for these . . . we would have almost no first hand knowledge of the Masonic Lodge of that time. Very little was written down and records are scarce.”

The Grand Master was reinstated during the March Quarterly. After the final Fanfare of Trumpets, Proclamation, and Grand Honours, the assembled brethren sang:

 Burst from our lips in one glad song of praise;
 Hail to the Art whose glory beameth o’er us,
 Loud to the Heav’ns above our voices raise.
 Ages have passed since first our Art descended,
 Ages on ages may it yet remain;
 Join every heart in one full chorus blended,
 Long may our noble Art high state maintain.”

In his Address the Grand Master referred to his satisfaction with having consecrated four new lodges. These were all “daylight,” bringing to thirteen the number of such lodges in the jurisdiction. Five new Temples had been dedicated.

The Grand Master had attended three Grand Lodge Installations. Those in Brisbane and in Sydney had been covered by television. The Brisbane “show” lacked reasonable balance:

“. . . The probing and pervasive eye of the media cannot be denied. It is a fact of life and we must learn to live with it. The unwelcome intrusion into private lives . . . is an indication of the extent to which privacy is held in contempt and respect for institutions undermined . . . It is no answer for the Craft in Australia to lock the doors and bar the windows against the media, but past experience has now warned us that when they approach, we must be quite sure they do so as seekers of objective truth rather than as prejudiced troublemakers.”

The Grand Master’s list of “promotions” and “past grand rank” include two P.D.G.M.s, eleven P.S.G.W.s, and over six pages of lists to other ranks, name after name after name.

Several amendments to the Constitution were passed. Details are not given, but one must have referred to liquor as it was drawn up “by those skilled in the licensing laws of the State of Victoria and . . . meets the approval of (our) solicitors.”

The Grand Master visited many country lodges during the year and participated in the Masonic Amateur Radio Network:

“. . . I sent and received greetings from our Brethren throughout the length and breadth of the State . . . (This was) not only an interesting innovation in Masonic communication, but one which may well develop into a highly organized medium for mutual comfort and support. The network opens up a real prospect of being incorporated as part of the communication system of the Masonic Task Force.”

Benevolent grants totalled A$53,000, the largest being A$7,000 “for the sustenance of a dependent of a brother and the maintenance, welfare and support of two student children.” Interest-free or low interest loans were made for benevolent purposes to lodges for a total of A$116,700. (Examples: A$5,000 interest-free to reduce mortgage payments on the home of a seriously ill brother; A$5,000, interest-free for the first 12 months, then 8% interest to be paid in 3 years, to pay the debts of a brother.) It is to be noted that these loans are always to lodges, not to individuals.

The quarterly reports of the Royal Freemasons’ Homes of Victoria and of Freemasons’ Hospital are heartening and fully in accord with Australian tradition.

The Grand Lecturer reported having some 350 “titles” and over 60 “lecturers” available to lodges. Five hundred and two lectures were given during the year. He was concerned that in rejection of older beliefs —

“. . . Wisdom is tending to mean self centered cunning and ability to manipulate others for political or commercial gain, that Strength means force and temporal power and that Beauty lies merely in transitory satisfaction of sensuous pleasure.”

He holds that our Craft has the potential to remedy this lack of moral aim.

There are 19 fraternal reviews, each by the appropriate Grand Representative. We receive a generous review. Thank you Bro. Daley, and this reviewer is envious of your dealing with our 1981 Communication in your 1981 Proceedings.

At the beginning of the Proceedings is a “Thumb-nail Sketch” of the organization of this Grand Lodge:

“. . . That Masonry was operating in Virginia prior to the establishment of any chartered Lodges seems very probable . . . (these) under the law of ‘immemorial custom’ in which case a charter was not deemed necessary . . .

There were 9 chartered Lodges known to have been invited to participate in the organization . . . How long (they) had been functioning has not been definitely established. They had been chartered by the Grand Lodges of Scotland, England and Ireland . . . Responding to a proposition from Williamsburg Lodge . . . delegates met in Williamsburg on May 6, 1777. Matthew Phripp of Norfolk was elected President of the meeting.

It was the unanimous opinion of the convention that a Grand Master ought to be chosen to preside over the Craft in Virginia. A committee was appointed (and) reported on May 13, 1777 . . . 'little benefit could be derived from a Grand Master appointed by a foreign authority (and) recourse to a "Grand Lodge beyond the sea" was almost impossible.' The report was sent out (and) a request for delegates to a convention to be held at Williamsburg on June 23, 1777 for the purpose of electing a Grand Master. (This meeting) merely brought agreement that (this) was 'essential to the prosperity and dignity of Masonry.' . . . (and) recommended to the Grand Lodges of England, Scotland and Ireland that 'His Excellency General George Washington was a proper person' for the office . . .

(When this was ignored, a subsequent convention on October 13, 1778) unanimously elected R.W. Bro. John Blair Jr., P.M. of Williamsburg Lodge, as the first Grand Master of Masons in the Commonwealth of Virginia . . . Thus was created 'according to prescription and usage, as adopted in London, in 1717, by and through the Representative System, as practiced on that occasion . . . the first Grand Lodge thus constituted in America.'

Another unusual item in the Proceedings are full page reproductions of each of three plaques presented to 70-year Masons.

M.W. Bro. Howard Polk attended the Annual Communication, which was addressed during the opening ceremonies by the Governor of the Commonwealth.

Fifteen "resolutions" of which notice of motion had been given were considered. Most were rejected, including one to eliminate the title "Worshipful" on the grounds that it "infers a reverence like unto that which might be used into deity." Your reviewer saw nothing to indicate that the correct equivalence of "worshipful" to "worthshipful" was mentioned. A resolution was passed that a W.M. could automatically order a second ballot if black balls were in a first ballot provided that the result of the first ballot had not been declared. Among 10 resolutions for future action is one to reduce the joining age to 18.

The Committee on Higher Education reported 28 x $500 scholarships awarded by Grand Lodge and an additional 81 scholarships by Craft Lodges or Masonic Districts. Most of these were for $500 or less but there were 1 x $1100, 2 x $1200, 2 x $1500, 2 x $1750, and 1 x $6250!

The Committee on Security advised lodges on alarm systems, fire protection, etc. and arranged for protection of regalia between Grand Lodge sessions.

The Committee on Advance Planning, Research and Construction combines the function of our Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings with Long Range Planning.

Grand Lodge operating expenses of $630,000 were $75,000 over revenue. The difference was substantially met by cashing $61,000 in certificates of deposit (over $100,000 remain on hand). The investment portfolio is $900,000. The Grand Lodge fee per candidate was raised from $25 to $30.

There were 80 residents in the Home. The Home Care Centre had 9,600 patient days and 1,400 patient days were provided in various hospitals. The Home had $1.6 million revenue (12% from Grand Lodge assessment, 54% from endowment [$10 million], 21% from residents and 13% "interest"). Expenses were $1.1 million for a healthy surplus. Construction and improvement of facilities are active.

The full ceremony of the open installation of Grand Lodge officers is printed in the Proceedings.

There were 9 Special Communications, including laying cornerstones at a Public School and a Masonic Temple as well as 3 occasions "to open and display" the contents of caskets removed from old school buildings now being razed.

This is a very "conservative" jurisdiction and the Grand Master was tough! He removed a Worshipful Master from office who was "not proficient" and ordered U.M.C. charges laid against his predecessor who had installed him! Another Worshipful Master was removed because he became a Worthy Patron in the Eastern Star at the same time. A "Masonic Cemetery Association" was ordered dissolved as operating "contrary to Masonic Law." The Grand Master directed an independent audit, under Grand Lodge supervision, for a lodge whose auditors had not reported prior to installation. Problems with lodge jurisdiction led to edicts declaring three brethren "irregularly made Master Masons" (but one was immediately "healed" as the brother was in no way at fault) and two more brethren "irregularly made E.A.s." He refused dispensations for examination of candidates at a special communication and for reconsideration of a ballot. He directed strict conformity to "physical requirements," refusing permission to initiate a candidate whose right thumb had been partially amputated. But he did rule that an employee of a grocery, permitted by West Virginia law to sell liquor, was not barred from Masonic membership, provided such sales were only incidental to his duties.

As a counterbalance, this jurisdiction has a unique and outstanding scholarship program. Some 400 students were recipients of a "base" $100 grant augmented several fold from and by the Maier Foundation. M.W. Bro. W. J. Maier Jr. died during the year. He had been Grand Master in 1962 and had contributed some $15 million to his Foundation named in honour of his father and mother. A Rhodes Scholar in 1922, graduate of Harvard Law School, and a highly successful industrialist, this outstanding scholar, gentleman, merchandizer and Freemason leaves an honorable and significant legacy of his ideals for many future generations.

M.W. Bro. Dwight Smith, P.G.M. and P.G.S. of Indiana, gave one of his now all too few addresses. M.W. Bro. Smith remains an unrepentant believer and advocate of a simplistic but perhaps ideal Masonry, with minimum frills and appendages and maximum simple brotherhood. In many respects his speech was magnificent. Here are some excerpts:

“(in earlier days) Lodges were small. And I mean SMALL. Ten members, perhaps. When Centre Lodge, (the first) in Indianapolis, reached . . . 35, the brethren decided it was too large and set out to sponsor a New Lodge. Think of it . . . (they) had the courage and the good sense to take the best possible action for the good of Freemasonry! . . .

What about refreshments? If you're thinking of dry ham and cheese sandwiches, coffee and a slab of paper-covered ice cream . . . they knew nothing about that. But if you're thinking about the finest possible banquet in the town's leading inn . . . the early brethren were right at home. They didn't have banquets every meeting night, but when they did, they expected the best and were willing to pay for the best . . .

Demitted Masons were not treated as if they had committed a Masonic offense. They were welcomed . . . while 'carrying a demit.' . . .

Masons on the move visited Lodges in the communities through which they passed. What about examination . . . You can be certain it was not the outrageous inquisition it has become in some places today . . .

By present day standards it seems they did everything the 'wrong way,' and it worked out very well indeed. By the same standards we try mightily to do everything the 'right way,' and the results leave much to be desired. And there you have what I mean when I refer to a 'Glorious Paradox'! . . .”

Above the door of the church in Staunton Harold, in Leicestershire, stands this inscription:

“In the year 1653/when all things Sacred were throughout ye nation / Either demolisht or profaned / Sir Robert Shirley, Barronet,/ Founded this church;/ Whose singular praise it is,/ to have done the best things in ye worst times./ and/ hoped them in the most callamitous.”

“We like to think our Craft IS different. It should be . . .

How much longer are we going to be able to persuade even ourselves, much less the general public, that Masons are different unless Freemasonry as . . . body of men is different? . . .

Is Freemasonry different? It used to be. Certainly it should be now. Then why, in heaven's name, is our American Masonic leadership working so feverishly to make the Fraternity common — something that is NOT different? . . .

Is it our misfortune to live in the worst times? Or could it be our privilege . . . Let it be said of us that we never lost sight of the glorious paradox . . .

That when basic values are held up to scorn we continue to symbolize dependability, and truth, and honour, and unshakable integrity;

That in days of disagreement and misunderstanding and strife we labor to establish small units of friendship and understanding and brotherhood; . . .

That in a day when the individual counts for less and less, we insist that his importance and worth are greater than ever before; . . .

That when truth is assailed we are truthful, and when honesty is openly questioned we are honest; . . .

And that although we may build temples and institutions of stone and brick and steel, we remember always our basic purpose of laboring to make rough ashlar perfect.

Glorious, glorious paradox! All I am talking about is the old, and oftentimes forgotten, Masonic virtue known as the pursuit of excellence . . .

What greater service could we render than to nail the standard of excellence to the top of the mast and keep it there?"

Masonry in Wyoming must have a good public image as all four Special Communications were for cornerstones of public buildings — a High School and Elementary School in Douglas, a senior citizens' building in Rock Springs, a High School in Riverton and a County Public Library in Laramie.

The Grand Master's banquet was on the Sunday evening before Grand Lodge. Flag presentations, oath of allegiance and some receptions were in open session. The Grand Master noted that all lodges were doing "some" degree work. He deplored the occasional use of open rituals and the failure of some lodges to celebrate George Washington's birthday and Flag Day. He refused permission for a lodge to undertake a "joint venture" with a Shrine Club for a "Mosque" in a Temple because liquor would be served. He proclaimed a "Jobie Week" and a "DeMolay Week."

A constitutional amendment to allow lodges to authorize, by bylaw, payment of their representatives' expenses at Grand Lodge was defeated. A listing of the relative rank in Grand Lodge places all present officers ahead of any past officers, so that P.G.M.s rank after the Grand Tyler!!!!!!!!!! (9 exclamation marks seem appropriate)

The Youth Committee provided 20 scholarships of $400 each ($450 next year) and $2,200 towards expenses of leaders of DeMolay and Job's Daughters.

Your reviewer had problems trying to rationalize distribution of items as between "General" account and "Benevolent" account, which share an unsegregated investment portfolio. He can only report that the year's operations were in the black and that close to $10,000 was spent by Grand Lodge on direct "charity" relief. Pensions, scholarships, youth groups, the Masonic Relief Association, the George Washington Memorial, the library and "management fees and expenses" are all charged to the benevolent account.

Installation of new Grand Lodge officers was open.

EPILOGUE

Over the five days June 24 - 28, 1981, the Right Worshipful Grand Lodge of the Most Ancient and Honorable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons of Pennsylvania and Masonic Jurisdiction thereunto belonging, in Special Communication, celebrated 250 years of Freemasonry. As was appropriate the first day included papers on St. John the Baptist's Day; on St. John's Lodge, the First Lodge, Franklin's Lodge; and on Freemasonry in Pennsylvania 1731-1981. A wreath-laying ceremony was then held at the grave of Bro. Benjamin Franklin at Christ Church burial ground, and in the evening a Vesper Service in the Church. There were many outstanding events during the other days as well.

Your reviewer especially commends to his brethren portions of two Addresses.

First, Bro. Dr. Whitfield J. Bell Jr., Librarian and Executive Officer of the American Philosophical Society, spoke, at length, about Benjamin Franklin, but he did not confine himself to the past (neither did Franklin):—

“. . . The founders are usually better known than their sons and grandsons, and their names are more gratefully recalled. . . Once an institution is firmly established . . . we pay it little attention. This is the case with much of our written Masonic history. Yet the fact may well be that the story of Masonic Lodges in the 19th and 20th centuries, . . . could be more interesting and inspiring. Let me suggest . . . some topics to which I hope historians . . . can address themselves before our tercentenary anniversary rolls around in 2031.

1. The Masonic Lodge was one of the social centers of its community, providing an opportunity for 'rational amusement.' 13th century writers on Masonry remarked on the animated conversation, mirth and gaiety that marked meetings. Masons sang a great deal . . . Masonic songs were printed . . . in general literary periodicals. Benjamin Franklin enjoyed such conviviality . . .

2. The charitable services of the lodges are well known. . . . the help was usually generous and often practical: in response to one widow's plea for help, the charity committee got her son a job; for another the committee provided a sewing machine. . . . In 1815 Grand Lodge made space available in its Hall for "A Sunday School," NOT what we understand by the term, but an institute where illiterate workingmen were taught to read (on Sunday, because that was their only day of rest) the Bible . . . newspapers . . . and found themselves able to take better jobs.

3. It gave its membership the sense of belonging to a wide-extended world. . . . Brothers in Paris, in Naples, in Copenhagen, . . . in British garrisons at Quebec . . . They toasted the Grand Masters of England, Scotland and Ireland . . . and 'Our Brother, Francis, Emperor of Germany.'

4. But perhaps more important . . . was the role the lodges played as schools of republican self-government. We often forget that our democracy can only work where and so long as men know how to behave, to conduct themselves and their affairs with civility . . .

If we have sometimes claimed too much for the influence and power of Masonry, we have as often claimed too little. The fraternity has not existed, and does not exist, in a social vacuum. For 250 years it has been an integral and sometimes significant part of the national story . . . (We) have taught and practiced the essentials of freedom and self-government . . . acceptance of legitimate authority, rejection of narrow sectarianism, recognition of character — of virtue — in whomsoever found."

Second, at the Vesper Service, Bro. Rev. W. H. Siegel, Grand Chaplain, took as his sermon topic "Where History Begins." He quoted the closing paragraph of Franklin's Last Will and Testament:—

". . . And now humbly returning Thanks to God, for producing me into Being, and conducting me hitherto thro' Life so happily . . . that he was pleased to give me such a Mind, with moderate passions, or so much of his gracious assistance in Governing them . . . that he gave me so long to live in a land of Liberty, with a people that I love; and rais'd me, tho' a Stranger, so many Friends among them . . . For these, and all his other innumerable Mercies and Favours, I bless that BEING OF BEINGS who does not disdain to care for the meanest of his Creatures. And I reflect on those Benefits received, with a greater Satisfaction, as they give me such a confidence in his Goodness, as will, I hope, enable me always in all Things to submit freely to his

Will, and to resign my Spirit cheerfully into his Hands, whenever he shall please to call me for it."

"We have already discovered that the days that lie ahead . . . defy our simplistic solutions . . . Here is a desire for change and here a reluctance to change. We are impaled on the horns of a dilemma. On the one horn a search for some panacea that will placate our uneasiness . . . on the other horn, a nostalgia to return to the past. The people ask: to what end or for what cause shall we give ourselves . . . The realization that others in the past had visions of brave new worlds and had failed gives us little consolation. . . There is so much against us and this dream of our Fraternity of universal brotherhood; a world that knows no peace; a nation where class is arrayed against class; and even in this city of 'Brotherly Love' there is much that makes the name Philadelphia a euphemism.

Yet these difficulties can but give us cause to harden our determination that all men shall brothers be. We must firm up our faith. The saddest prospect for this moment would be for us to say 'I remember when' but to forget 'I remember how.' While our greatest boon would be to discover in that past that which points to a far better future. We cannot simply give either mental or moral consent to the voices that speak to us now unless by their counsel we serve our time as they served theirs . . . Let us then arise from where we are and go where we must go. Let us be doing what we must do. And may the angels of heaven go with us."

APPENDIX "A"
ADDRESS BY BRO. WILLIAM H. HUDNUT, III
AT THE
GRAND MASTER'S BANQUET
JULY 20, 1983

THE GRAND MASTER: I am now going to ask M.W. Bro. J. N. Allan to introduce the speaker.

M.W. BRO. J. N. ALLAN

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Honoured Guests and my Brethren.

I am happy to-night to have the privilege of introducing our guest speaker, Hon. Bro. William Hudnut III now serving his second term as Mayor of the City of Indianapolis.

If Most Wor. Bro. Ewart Dixon were in my place to-night he would inform you first of all that Bro. Hudnut is a Presbyterian. Indeed he is a distinguished Presbyterian, being a third generation minister. He has served several large Presbyterian Congregations before being elected to the United States Congress where he served for one term.

Our speaker was elected Mayor of Indianapolis following his term in Congress where I am told he served with distinction. It was, however, as Mayor of his city that he really made things happen. Indianapolis has experienced dramatic growth and revitalization in an age when many major cities are becoming ghost towns. Its downtown has been cited in a national study as one of only a few that have a healthy future. Many millions of dollars of public and private money have been invested in the construction of new buildings and the rehabilitation of older structures.

Our speaker, as Mayor, maintains close contact with the people. He works closely with Civic Groups. He meets monthly with the Mayor's Neighbourhood Advisory Council, the Mayor's Labour Advisory Council, and has Senior Citizens' Luncheons in various locations throughout the city.

The proof of the pudding was evident in his re-election for the office of Mayor following his first four-year term. He defeated his opponent by 84,000 votes.

Our speaker has received numerous honours. He has received honorary degrees from four Universities. He is Past President of the National League of Cities in Washington, also Past President of the Indiana Republican Mayor's Association and the Indiana Association of Cities and Towns. He is active in the U.S. Conference of Mayors and a member of President Reagan's Federation Conference of Mayors.

My Brethren I am proud to give you Hon. Dr. Hudnut, III.

BRO. WILLIAM HUDNUT

Thank you very much Bro. Allan, Most Worshipful Grand Master, Most Worshipful Past Grand Masters, Distinguished Head Table Guests, Brethren. It certainly is a pleasure, an honour and a privilege for me to be here with you for this annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Canada, in the Province of Ontario. Thank you for inviting me.

That was a very fulsome introduction. I don't think you left anything out from what the Chamber of Commerce wrote about Indianapolis. I certainly do appreciate it, Bro. Allan, and I think there are a lot of people here who just hope that when we get to be your age that we will be able to introduce anybody. You certainly are a living refutation of the old adage that "if all the great institutions of this world were laid end to end, it would be a very good thing."

I was very impressed by the singer and by the music and feel that I am quite an anti climax. I have been told this before — I was shaking hands at a 'Fish Fry' the other day and some old lady looked up at me and said, "By golly, you are a lot better looking on T.V. than you are in person." It reminds me of what one lady said when we were shaking hands after a Church Service, and she said, "Preacher, you know, every one of your sermons is better than the next." I think the first of tonight's programme will be better than the next part, and I just thank God that I am here to talk and not to sing.

Bro. Allan mentioned to you that I used to be a Minister, a Presbyterian Minister, and then I fell from grace and went to Congress. Well, I discovered on a certain week in November of 1974 (Bro. Allan was very gracious and he passed over the fact that I was only in Congress two years) that so many people back home in Indianapolis missed me that 51% of them voted for me to come back. So I came back — and not being able to hold a job for too long, I ran for Mayor — and, as he pointed out, I have been the Mayor ever since. Being Mayor is truly an exciting job — it is a tough job — but I might say (parenthetically) that former Mayor, Paul Cosgrove of Scarborough, and present Mayor, Gus Harris, are good friends of mine. Indianapolis has a sister city relationship with Scarborough, and every year we have 'Indianapolis-Scarborough Peace Games'. One year it is down in Indianapolis and the other year it is up here — I'll be back in two weeks. We have about a thousand people, of all ages, who go from one city to the other to compete each August in a whole rainbow of different sporting events. It's a lot of fun, a way of affirming friendship and fellowship across the border line. It means a lot to us in Indianapolis, and that's another reason why I'm glad to be back here in Toronto, near Scarborough. This City has got to be one of the premier cities in the western hemisphere.

Since I have travelled life's journey in the last ten years or so, I have had occasion to speak in many different places. People ask me, "Why are you a Mason?" and the answer that I usually give is, "Because Masons believe in things that are important, and because they are committed to some things that are pretty significant in terms of making the world a better place in which to live."

People are like flag poles, in my opinion. The thing that counts about a flag pole and the thing that counts about these flag poles up here flying all these beautiful flags, it's not what the pole is made of. You may not see it from out there, but some of them are wood, some of them are metal, some of them could be bamboo, some could be silver — it wouldn't make any difference — because the thing that counts about a flag pole is not what it's made of, but what it is flying. The thing that counts about a flag pole is the flag that it is flying that symbolizes the beliefs and the ideals that we hold dear and that we respect and appreciate or, conversely, that we don't respect. If a silver flag pole was flying a flag that you and I do not respect, we would not salute it. What counts about people is what they live by. That's what the word 'Belief' means. What counts about people is what they are committed to. What counts about people is the same thing as what counts about a flag pole, and that is not how rich or poor it is, but the kind of flag it is flying from its mast. We love these flags at the dais here because they are flying flags that are important to us and that we believe in.

I

It is the same with Freemasonry. I think that Freemasonry has three or four commitments that I think are pretty important and that are pretty significant. The first — we began this meeting with prayer. Congress begins its meetings with prayer. Congress needs all the prayer it can get, but there are some people, atheists, that don't even want us to have prayer in public places down in the States — but from the first time I ever encountered any of the Ritual Work in Freemasonry, and from the first time I ever was ushered into the sanctity of a Blue Lodge meeting, it came upon me loud and clear that Masons at their best have reverence in their hearts for the Supreme Being, though they call it by different names.

It is interesting that when the literature was written that began modern Freemasonry in the early 1700's over in England, the gentleman that wrote the books that came down to us, and they are the basis for the Grand Lodges that are in existence today, struck out the word 'God' and inserted the word 'Deity'. Why? Because he wanted Freemasonry to be inclusive rather than exclusive. He wanted it to be something that people who had many different kinds of religious beliefs could all adhere to; but all could bow before the Supreme Architect of the Universe. All could recognize that God alone is Lord of the conscience. All could give allegiance to the transcendent being of Almighty God — "loyalty to God is man's primary allegiance," says one of the Ritual lines in Freemasonry. That is good. We live by that belief and we are committed to the proposition that you and I are children of the Creator. That is something that a lot of people don't believe, but is something that is very, very important it seems to me, if we are going to preserve our freedom, because there is a connection between acknowledgment of God as Lord of the Universe and our political and economic and social freedoms.

"It is the duty of Nations, as well as of men, to owe their dependence upon the overruling power of God," said Abraham Lincoln. "To confess their sins and transgressions in humble sorrow, yet with assured hope that genuine repentance will lead to mercy and pardon and to recognize the sublime truth, announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those Nations only are blessed whose God is the Lord." One commentator has said that this is the issue, my Brothers, that sharply separates the totalitarian states in the modern world from the democracies. The totalitarian state is made possible only by the denial of a higher allegiance, and its totalitarian character arises from a refusal to acknowledge the existence of a sphere of human life over which no political control may be legitimately exercised.

Democracies, on the other hand, recognize that there are aspects of human life which the state may not legitimately control and that recognition has its roots when it is recognized in the teachings of biblical religion. Above the authority of the state, there is the authority of god, and this is precisely what totalitarian states refuse to acknowledge. So the first point would be that if we are talking about the flags we are flying, one is love of the Deity — reverence, or humility before Almighty God.

II

The second, as I implied a minute ago, is the commitment to freedom. Ever since our founding as a fraternal order, we've been called not just Masons but Free Masons. All too often we don't think about the meaning of the word 'Free' which has its roots in medieval times centuries and centuries ago when people were freed from the shackles that bound people to a rigid caste system. They were free to join guilds or form guilds, or not to as they chose, and freedom is something that is deep in our Ritual. In the so-called Regius Manuscript, which dates way back to the year of 1390, and is probably the oldest Masonic document in existence today, we have the same kind of emphasis enunciated from the beginning. The classic Masonic study of that manuscript by our Illustrious Brother F. M. Hunter, concluded with these words: "The regius manuscript emphasizes to each of us the great inheritance and duty which is our legacy and basis. We do not just take a man and make him a Mason. It is incumbent upon us to introduce him to the task which faces us as individuals and as a fraternity which is 'to save freedom under the Law in a Spiritual Universe'."

So Freemasonry is committed to freedom, and that is another reason why I'm proud to be a Mason. We were talking up here at the Head Table about the way in which during the terrible days in Europe of Nazi occupation, in Hitler's Germany, Masons as a secret sign of their loyalty to God and their loyalty to their fraternity, and their opposition to that totalitarian state, wore a forget-me-not flower or button in their lapels. And to this day, there are those in our Order who have reserved some of those forget-me-nots — a symbol of our commitment to freedom.

And speaking of freedom, I cannot stand here on a Canadian podium without expressing my sincere deep gratitude, which is felt by all Americans, when certain Canadians helped secure the release of some of our hostages during the Iranian crisis — and I'm here to say 'Thank you'. There was a bulletin board put up on one of the freeways in Indianapolis. It had a beautiful picture of the Canadian Flag, with the leaf in red on white — and above it, three words, "Thank You Canada". It was there for a month or two, and all of us were grateful for what Canada had done to help us win freedom for those hostages who were enslaved by the tyrant Ayatollah Khomeini. What constitutes the bulwark of our own liberty and our own independence, is not frowning balance or bristling sea coasts for our army or our navy, these are not our alliance against tyranny — all of those may be turned against us without making us weaker for the struggle. Our defence is in the love of liberty which God has planted in us, said Abraham Lincoln, and I quote him again. "Our defence is in the spirit which prides liberty and the heritage of all men in all lands everywhere." So I am here tonight to reaffirm our commitment as Free Masons to freedom.

III

And, thirdly, I am here to say that another reason why I think the Masonic Order is important and why I am proud to be committed to it is because of what it has done to bind up people's wounds: to express love and friendship and compassion in action; to implement goodwill in community after community. All through the Ritual there are phrases from Biblical religion about "a new commandment I give to you, that you love one another" or, "do unto others what you would have them do unto you." "Faith without works is dead," and that kind of thing. All through our life together in our fraternal Order there is an emphasis on "the love which binds us together." Not on things that divide, not on things that hurt, not on things that sit in judgment and demean our people, or depersonalize other people, or wreck other lives, but things that heal and things that bring light into darkness, and things that promote hope where there is despair — that's what I get out of the Ritual, that's what I think about some of the fraternal fellowships that I enjoy, that's what I pick up out of meetings that I go to. The commitment to service — the commitment to love.

Some of you are probably active in Shrines, either here or on the south side of the border. The Shriners used to take one example of what Masons do — as you know, they do a great deal to help kids who have suffered terribly from burns, or are crippled, and some with terrible afflictions — I love that poem:—

I'm but a little crippled kid
 Who's burned, you see,
 And my life was of little value
 Till the Shriners thought of me.

My days were dark and dreary
 My hopes were small and weak,
 And I was filled with torture
 Till the Shriners thought of me.

I felt as if in a dungeon
 Under heavy lock and key,
 I could not see the sunshine
 Till the Shriners thought of me.

A few more months of kindness
 Then I can laugh with glee
 And play as other children play,
 Since the Shriners thought of me.

So each and every night I pray
 To the one Great Deity,
 To love, protect and bless
 All those Shriners who thought of me.

And now I'm getting better
 And as happy as can be,
 A kid with a smile upon my face
 Because those Shriners thought of me.

Committed to love in action. Committed to service. John Wesley, a Methodist, and I hesitate to quote him since I'm a Presbyterian, offered a prayer - a good prayer - good for two reasons, one because it was short and one because it said something. He said, "Lord, let me not live to be useless." Poor Richard said in his Almanac, "the most important question we can ask on earth, 'What good can we do upon it?'" We all have to think about that. Masonic leadership is tested in the arena of life. The principles which inspire that leadership will prevail only as long as those who cherish them are men of vision, men of wisdom, men of courage and men of compassion. I look forward to the day, says Alan Paton in the foreword to his book, 'Cry, The Beloved', (it is a story about the perplexing problems of racial relations in South Africa) . . . "I look forward to the day when we shall realize that the only lasting and worthwhile solution to our grave and profound problems lies not in the love of power, but in the power of love, without which life would be an intolerable bondage, condemning us all to an existence of violence, misery and fear." And I think that Masons at their best stand for a commitment to the power of love and compassion in action.

We are committed to love, to serving our fellow man. We're committed, it seems to me, to an understanding that freedom is important. We're committed to understanding also that ours is a nation under God and that we must have reverence in our hearts.

IV

And, finally, fourthly, we're committed I think to hope, which the Bible says is "the anchor of the soul." You know you can't think about Masonic Ritual without understanding that — about the desire to plumb a straight line in life instead of a crooked line, to hit the mark instead of to miss it, to make a square corner instead of rounding it off, to use the compass well, and to use triangles and squares. We talk about building rather than tearing down — "O Thou Supreme Architect of the Universe, wield well thy tools in the workshop of the world, that we who come roughhewn to Thy bench might be fashioned by Your hand to a better and finer service in our world." We live with the hope, the real hope, that things can be made better, the rough places can be made smooth, the mountains can be made low, and a straight road can be driven through the wilderness of all the problems that we face. We don't give up. We don't abandon our ideals; we hang in there, my friends, and that is part of the Masonic Order; part of what we are committed to — hope, and the belief that each of us can make a difference and each of us has something to contribute. "I'm only one, but still I'm one — I cannot do everything, but I can do something — and because I cannot do everything, I will not refuse to do the something that I can do." Each of us has a contribution to make — to combat the despair and discouragement that stalk the shadows of this world, and to lift people up and to give them something to look forward to and to tell them that tomorrow can be better than yesterday, and to keep faith with the future.

Bruce Catton, the great historian, says about the Confederate soldiers during the declining days of the Civil War down in the States "with midnight crashing down around them, they lived as though they stood at the edge of dawn." And I think that should characterize Free Masons at their best because they believe in the light that shines in the darkness and are not overcome by it. They can have hope, even behind an Iron Curtain, or behind the Gestapo's guns over there in Germany when they wore their forget-me-nots.

There's been a lot of talk down in Indianapolis about the republishing of Ann Frank's Diary — that dear little Jewish girl who hid with her family in a garret in Amsterdam to escape the Nazi tyrants. She didn't make it and went to her death in one of the concentration camps with many members of her family. About two weeks before she was taken, before she heard the boot steps coming up the stairwell and a loud knock on her door, she wrote, "It's really a wonder that I haven't dropped all my ideals because they seem so absurd and impossible to carry out, yet I keep them because in spite of everything I still believe that people are really good at heart. I simply cannot build up my hopes on a foundation consisting of confusion, misery and death. I see the world gradually being turned into a wilderness. I hear the ever approaching thunder which will destroy us too — I can feel the suffering of millions, and yet, if I look up into the heavens, I think that it will all come right and this cruelty too will end and that peace and tranquility will return again. In the meantime, I must uphold my ideals, for perhaps the time will come when I shall be able to carry them out." Well, the time never came for Ann Frank; she went to her grave. But she went to the gas chamber with hope in her heart! And it is our job, my friends, to be custodians of that kind of hope and the belief that in the wilderness which is created by human sinfulness there can be changes, and a better quality of life can be structured into the sinews of your community and mine, and that not everybody in life need be a wrecker and that we are called to be builders as Masons.

I drove into town tonight from the Airport and I saw a lot of construction. It's like that in my town. It's a great city here — building going on — a great grainery elevator over there going down. Then I thought of a poem written by a Mason which puts it pretty well, because, really, when you get right down to it the fundamental question we have to ask is whether we're going to be part of the problem in life or part of the solution. Whether our hearts are going to tilt towards despair or towards hope — or, in Masonic terms, whether we're going to be builders or wreckers.

I watched them tearing a building down,
A gang of men in a busy town.
With a ho heave ho, and a lusty yell
They swung their beam and the sidewall fell.

I said to the foreman, "Are these men skilled
And the kind of men you'd use to build."
He gave a laugh and said, "No, indeed,
Just common labourer is all I need.
We can easily wreck in a day or two
What it's taken people years to do."

I asked myself as I went my way,
Which of these roles have I tried to play?
Am I a builder who works with care
Measuring life by the rule and square.
Patiently doing the best he can
Leading his life to a well laid plan.
Or am I a wrecker, who walks into town
Content with the business of tearing down.

I'm here tonight to salute you, because in my heart I believe that you are builders and not wreckers.

Deputy Grand Master's thanks to Rev. Hudnut.

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Your Honor Rev. Sir, Distinguished Head Table Guests and Brethren.

Dr. Hudnut, you may realize that our Grand Master is a sporting and athletic enthusiast. When the Mayor of the home city of the "Indianapolis 500" is our Grand Master's Banquet Speaker, we are assured that there could be no spinning of wheels but that we would be the fortunate recipients of a powerful, finely tuned and dynamic address.

Your Honor, we now understand why you graduated Summa Cum Laude from the Union Theological Seminary. We are indebted to you Rev. Sir for taking the time to bring this timely and eloquent message to us. Let me assure you that Summa Cum Laude also refers to your inspiring and motivating message. We are indeed indebted and grateful to you.

Thank you most sincerely. (Loud applause.)
